In the case of "Hybrid Securities", the Securities are linked to two Underlyings. Each Underlying may either be a Financial Index, an Inflation Index or a Share.

In the case of "Basket-linked Hybrid Securities", the Securities are linked to the performance of two different types of Underlyings. The Underlying(s) and the Basket Components are the main influencing factor on the value of the Securities. The influence of the value of the Underlying(s) or of the Basket Components on the value of the Securities is described below in the section "Description Of The Securities" for each Product Type.

No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with the Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme, and if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer.

Neither the Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme constitutes a recommendation, an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Securities. The delivery of the Base Prospectus does not imply that the information contained therein concerning the Issuer is correct at any time subsequent to the date of the Base Prospectus or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date indicated in the document containing the same. Investors should read inter alia the most recent non-consolidated or consolidated financial statements and interim reports, if any, of the Issuer when deciding whether or not to purchase any Securities.

The distribution of the Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Securities may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. Persons into whose possession the Base Prospectus or any Securities come must inform themselves about any such restrictions. In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of the Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Securities in the United States of America and on the offer or sale of the Securities in the European Economic Area (see section "General Information", sub-section "Selling Restrictions" below). The Securities have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. Subject to certain exceptions, Securities may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States of America or to U.S. persons (see section "General Information", sub-section "Selling Restrictions" below).

RISK FACTORS

With respect to the Base Prospectus I, the following applies:

The risk factors related to HVB as the Issuer are set out on pages 4 to 10 of the Registration Document I.

With respect to the Base Prospectus II, the following applies:

The risk factors related to UniCredit as the Issuer are set out on pages 4 to 26 of the Registration Document II.

With respect to both Base Prospectuses, the following applies:

In addition, prospective Security Holders of the Securities should consider the following risk factors, which are specific to the Securities and which are material for taking an informed investment decision and should make such decision only on the basis of the Base Prospectus as a whole (including the Registration Document), the relevant Final Terms and the Issue Specific Summary.

The following risk factors shall be read in conjunction with the material risks that are specific to the Issuer and that may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Securities, which are set out within the Registration Document.

The Base Prospectus, including the following risk factors and the risk factors set out within the Registration Document, and the relevant Final Terms of the Securities do not replace a professional consultation with a potential investor's house bank or financial adviser. However, potential investors should carefully consider these risk factors before making a decision to purchase any Securities in any case. An investment in the Securities is only suitable for investors, who understand the nature of such Securities and the extent of the incorporated risk and who have sufficient knowledge, experience and access to professional advisors (including their financial, legal and tax advisors) in order to form their own legal, tax and financial opinion upon the existing risks in relation to the Securities.

Potential investors should be aware that the risks described below may arise separately or cumulatively in combination with other risks and may possibly have mutually reinforcing effects.

The risk factors related to the Securities herein are organised into the following three categories below depending on their nature. Unless expressly stated otherwise below, the most material risk factor is mentioned first in each of the following categories:

- 1. Risks related to the Nature of the Securities;*
- 2. Risks related to the Underlying and the Reference Rate;*
- 3. Risks related to the Offer to the Public and/or Admission to Trading.*

Below only the term 'Underlying' is used. As the risks described in this section do, however, affect the Basket Components of Securities with Multi-Underlying in the same way, the risk factors described are to be read to also apply to Basket Components and are therefore relevant for potential investors in all Product Types.

1. RISKS RELATED TO THE NATURE OF THE SECURITIES

1.1. Insolvency risk and risks in relation to resolution measures in relation to the Issuer

The Security Holders bear the risk of the insolvency of the Issuer. Moreover, Security Holders may become subject to resolution measures in relation to the Issuer if the Issuer is failing or likely to fail.

The Issuer, as part of the internationally active UniCredit Group, is subject to a variety of risks (see the risk factors related to HVB as the Issuer as set out in the Registration Document I, and the risk factors related to UniCredit as the Issuer as set out in the Registration Document II). These risks may, individually or combined, lead to the Issuer being unable, or only partially able to fulfil its obligations resulting from the Securities or it is unable to do so when they become due. This may occur when the Issuer becomes insolvent or over indebted.

With respect to the Base Prospectus I, the following applies:

In case insolvency proceedings are opened against the Issuer, Security Holders can only assert their claims pursuant to the German Insolvency Code (Insolvenzordnung). The Security Holders will in that case receive an amount which is determined pursuant to the insolvency ratio (Insolvenzquote). Although the Securities are non-subordinated obligations of the Issuer, this amount will regularly be substantially less than the amount the Security Holder has paid for the purchase of the Securities. An insolvency of the Issuer may even lead to the complete loss of the amount paid by the Security Holder for the purchase of the Securities.

Due to its status as a CRR credit institution¹ legal provisions included in

- the European Regulation (EU) No 806/2014² ("SRM"), and give the competent resolution authority the right to implement, inter alia, the following resolution measures against the Issuer. These measures can be detrimental to the interests of the Security Holders.
- the German Restructuring and Resolution Act (Sanierungs- und Abwicklungsgesetz – "SAG"),

The resolution authority in relation to the Issuer is the German Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht – "BaFin"). BaFin may, in certain cases which are set out in the SAG, convert claims of the Security Holders resulting from the Securities into shares in the Issuer (e.g. stocks). In that case, Security Holders would bear the same risks as any other shareholder of the Issuer. In such a situation, the price of the Issuer's shares will regularly have fallen significantly beforehand.

The face value or outstanding residual amount of the Securities as well as any interest may be completely or partially reduced. In that case, Security Holders will receive a lower or no repayment of the capital amount paid for the purchase of the Securities. It is also possible that Security Holders receive lower or no interest payments.

The resolution authority may also amend the Terms and Conditions of the Securities. It may for example postpone the redemption of the Securities. In that case, the Security Holders will receive payments under the Securities at a later point in time than originally scheduled in the Terms and Conditions.

The prerequisites for a resolution are met under the SAG when the resolution authority determines that the Issuer is failing or likely to fail.

In case the resolution authority exercises any resolution measures, the Security Holders bear the risk of losing their claims resulting from the Securities. This pertains in particular to claims for payment of the Redemption Amount or payment of interest or other payments under the Securities.

If there is a threat regarding the fulfilment of the obligations of the Issuer, BaFin can take certain measures, including a temporary decree which prohibits further payments by the Issuer. For the duration of the prohibition of payments, the Security Holders cannot claim any payments resulting from the Securities from the Issuer.

This means that there is a substantial risk and that Security Holders will most likely risk to lose their claims resulting from the Securities. This includes the risk of total loss.

With respect to the Base Prospectus II, the following applies:

In case insolvency proceedings are opened against the Issuer, you can only assert your claims pursuant to the Legislative Decree No. 14 as implemented on 12 January 2019. You will in that case receive an amount which is determined pursuant to the insolvency ratio.

¹ Within the meaning of section 1 para. 3d sent. 1 of the German Banking Act. "CRR" means the European Capital Requirements Regulation (EU) No 575/2013.

The Issuer is subject to the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive 2014/59/EU as amended from time to time ("BRRD") and the Single Resolution Mechanism ("SRM") as described in the Registration Document II.

The stated aim of the BRRD is to provide the authority designated by each EU Member State (the "Resolution Authority") with a credible set of tools and powers, including the ability to apply the Bail-in Power, to address banking crises pre-emptively in order to safeguard financial stability and minimize taxpayers' exposure to losses. The powers provided to the Resolution Authority under the BRRD and the relevant implementing measures in the relevant Member State and the SRM include statutory write-down and/or conversion power whether relating to the resolution or independent of any resolution action (the "Bail-in Power") to ensure that capital instruments and eligible liabilities (including senior debt instruments) absorb losses of the issuing institution that is subject to resolution in accordance with a set order of priority.

Through the exercise of the Bail-in Power, the Nominal Amount of the Securities as well as any other amount payable under the Securities may be completely or partially reduced. In that case, Security Holders will receive a lower or no repayment of the capital amount of the Securities. It is also possible that Security Holders receive lower or no ongoing payments.

The Resolution Authority may also amend the terms and conditions of the Securities. It may for example postpone the redemption of the Securities. In that case, the Security Holders will receive payments under the Securities at a later point in time than originally scheduled. The aforementioned measures may result in a default of all claims under the Securities and thus to a total loss of the investment of the Security Holder. There may be negative effects in the market value of the Securities even before the execution of such rights. In addition, the Issuer's assets may be affected under these measures, which may further adversely affect the ability of the Issuer to meet its payment obligations under the Securities.

It is generally not or only partly possible to predict future regulatory measures and further legislative projects.

Insolvency of the Issuer or the exercise of any resolution measures or other sovereign interventions against the Issuer is associated with considerable risks for the Security Holder. This means that there is a substantial risk of loss for the Security Holder, including a risk of total loss.

1.2. Risks related to market value-influencing factors

The Security Holders bear the risk that the market price of the Securities may be subject to severe fluctuations during the term of Securities and that the Security Holder is not able to sell the Securities at a specific time or for a specific price. The market value of the Securities will be affected by a number of factors. These are, inter alia, the creditworthiness of the Issuer, the relevant prevailing interest and yield rates, the market for similar securities, the general economic, political and cyclical conditions, the tradability and, if applicable, the remaining term of the Securities as well as additional Underlying-related market value-influencing factors.

The market value of the Securities as well as the amounts distributable under the Securities primarily depend on the price of the Underlying, as the case may be. In general, the value of the Securities falls and the Redemption Amount decreases if the price of the Underlying decreases as well. Conversely, in case of Securities with a Downside feature, a reverse structure applies, i.e. the value of the Securities falls and the Redemption Amount decreases if the price of the Underlying rises. In addition, the potential income from the Securities is limited, because the price of the Underlying can never fall by more than 100%.

It is not possible to predict how the price of the Underlying will develop in the future. The price of the Underlying may also depend on a number of inter-related factors, including cyclical, economic, financial and political events and their general effect on capital markets and on the relevant stock exchanges. The past performance of an Underlying provides no indication of its future performance. The amounts to be distributed under the Securities may therefore be substantially lower than the price of the Underlying may in advance have suggested.

1.3. Risks related to the Redemption Amount

The Securities will be redeemed at their maturity at the Redemption Amount specified in the Final Terms. The Redemption Amount may be less than the Issue Price or the purchase price. This means, the Security Holder only achieves a return (subject to the influence of exchange rate and inflation risk) if the Redemption Amount, including ongoing payments, if specified in the relevant Final Terms (see also sub-section "1.7 Risks arising from missing ongoing payments of this section "Risk Factors"), exceeds the individual purchase price of the Security Holder. The Redemption Amount may also be lower than the Nominal Amount of the Securities or even zero.

If the Final Terms provide for a conditional minimum payment on the Final Payment Date of the Securities, such minimum payment will not be made if (i) the price of the Underlying develops so unfavourably for the Security Holder that a specific event (e.g. a Barrier Event) occurs, or (ii) – even if such a specific event has not yet occurred, i.e. the conditions for the conditional payment are still fulfilled – where the Securities are terminated, called or sold before their Final Payment Date. Then, the actual Redemption Amount (case (i)) or the Termination Amount, Cancellation Amount or selling price of the Securities (case (ii)) may be significantly lower than such conditional minimum payment or may even be zero and the Security Holder may lose all or a substantial portion of the amount invested.

If the Final Terms provide for a maximum redemption payment (e.g. a Maximum Amount) the potential return from the Securities is limited in contrast to a direct investment in the Underlying. A participation in a favourable performance of the Underlying beyond such maximum redemption payment is excluded.

1.4. Inflation Risk

The Security Holder is subject to an Inflation Risk. This is the risk that the purchasing power of the capital invested in an instrument may be affected by an increase in the general level of consumer product prices over the duration of the investment period. In this respect, the 'real return on an investment' is defined as the inflation-adjusted return, i.e. the nominal return (including the change in value of the invested capital) minus the realised inflation rate. It should therefore be noted that the real return on the instrument, i.e. the inflation-adjusted return measured over the life of the investment, may be negative.

1.5. Risks related to a Barrier Event

If a Barrier Event occurs, as specified in the Final Terms, a conditional minimum payment may forfeit, a payment under the Securities may be limited, a more advantageous pay-out formula may be disappplied and/or Physical Settlement may occur (as described in Risks related to Physical Settlement). In any case, the Security Holder may lose his invested capital in total or in part.

In the case of Securities with Additional Conditional Amount with a Barrier Observation, there will be no payment of an Additional Conditional Amount following an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event if a Barrier Event has occurred. In the case of Securities with Early Redemption Amount with a Barrier Observation, there will be no premature redemption following an Early Redemption Event if a Barrier Event has occurred.

The risk that a Barrier Event occurs depends on whether the Final Terms provide for a date-related barrier observation, a daily barrier observation or a continuous barrier observation (intra day) or a final barrier observation. A daily barrier observation and a continuous barrier observation may even increase the risk of an occurrence of a Barrier Event. The risk of the occurrence of a Barrier Event increases as closer the underlying barrier (which may also lie at or above (or, in case of Short Securities, below) the initial price of the Underlying) lies to the current price of the Underlying. The risk also depends on the length of the respective barrier observation period, on the number of dates on which the Barrier Event may occur and on the volatility of the Underlying.

1.6. Risks relating to the impact of linearly accrued costs ("running costs") on the value of the Securities

Investors should be aware that, if so provided in the applicable Final Terms, running costs may be applied by the Issuer during the life of the Securities and, therefore, this will reduce the value of such Securities.

Such running costs (i) will not be affected in any way by the performance of the relevant Underlying; (ii) will be accrued over time on a linear basis from the Issue Date until the maturity of the Securities - consequently, such costs will impact on the Security Holders only for the period during which they hold the Securities; and (iii) will be charged to the Security Holder in an amount equal to the costs cumulatively accrued over its holding period, being embedded in the bid price on the Security in secondary market. Therefore, prospective investors should consider that, if the running costs are applicable, the value of the Securities will be negatively affected by such costs on the secondary markets.

1.7. Risks arising from missing ongoing payments

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Securities do not bear interest or grant any other unconditional rights for ongoing payments which could compensate possible losses of principal.

In case where the conditional payment of amounts is specified in the Final Terms, the payment and/or the extent of such amounts depend on the performance of the Underlying or the relevant Reference Rate, as the case may be. Potential investors should be aware that in case of an unfavourable performance of the Underlying no payment of any conditional amount may occur or that any amount may also be very low or even zero or that the payment of a conditional amount may irretrievably lapse for the remaining term of the Securities.

If specified in the Final Terms, certain amounts only may be payable if certain events have occurred (e.g. an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event or a Final Redemption Event) which depend on having reached a certain threshold or limit (e.g. an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Level or a Final Redemption Level). If the respective threshold or limit, as specified in the Final Terms, has not been reached or if the event has not occurred, the respective Security Holder is not entitled to receive the amount specified in the Final Terms. In addition, thresholds or limits (e.g. a Barrier Level) or the occurrence of certain events (e.g. a Barrier Event) may in particular have a significant influence on the market value of the Securities and amounts to be distributed under the Securities. Investors should only invest their capital into the Securities if they completely understood the mechanism of the applicable pay-out formula.

1.8. Currency and Currency Exchange Rate risk with respect to the Securities

If the Securities are denominated in a currency (the "Specified Currency") other than the currency of the jurisdiction where a Security Holder is domiciled or where the Security Holder seeks to receive funds, there is a Currency Exchange Rate risk. Furthermore, in the case of Compo Securities, there is a Currency Exchange Rate risk, since the Underlying is traded in a currency other than the Specified Currency and the Currency Exchange Rate risk is not excluded.

Exchange rates between currencies (the "Currency Exchange Rates") are determined by factors of supply and demand in the international currency markets and are influenced by macro-economic factors, speculations and interventions by the central banks and governments as well as by political factors (including the imposition of currency controls and restrictions). In addition there are other factors (e.g. psychological factors) which are almost impossible to predict (e.g. a crisis of confidence in the political regime of a country) and which also may have a material impact on a Currency Exchange Rate.

Currencies may be very volatile. There may be an increased risk in connection with currencies of countries whose standard of development is not comparable to the standard of the Eurozone member states or of other industrialized countries. In the case of any irregularities or manipulations in connection with the fixing of Currency Exchange Rates, this may have a material adverse effect on the Securities. Currencies may also be devalued or replaced by a different currency whose development cannot be predicted.

In cases where the conversion of amounts payable under the Securities is not made directly by application of one Currency Exchange Rate but indirectly by application of two different Currency Exchange Rates (so called Cross Rate option), an increased Currency Exchange Rate risk exists. In such cases, the currency of the Underlying will at first be converted into a third currency before it will then be converted into the Specified Currency. Thus, as the amounts to be paid at redemption and, if applicable, at early redemption depend on two different Currency Exchange Rates, investors are exposed to an increased Currency Exchange Rate risk.

An unfavourable development of the respective Currency Exchange Rate may reduce the financial performance of the Securities or lead to financial losses at the Security Holder, even if the respective Underlying of the Securities performs well. In addition, the occurrence of certain events, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, may lead to an adjustment of the Terms and Conditions (see sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or an extraordinary termination of the Securities (see sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

1.9. Risks related to an Automatic Early Redemption

In the case of Securities with Automatic Early Redemption, the Securities will be automatically early redeemed by payment of the Early Redemption Amount, specified in the Final Terms if an Early Redemption Event occurs. The Early Redemption Amount may be below the Issue Price or purchase price in which case the Security Holder would suffer a partial loss of her/his invested capital even if the Securities provide for a conditional minimum payment. The occurrence of an Early Redemption Event depends on the performance of the Underlying. In this case, the Security Holder will neither participate in any future favourable performance of the Underlying nor be entitled to further payments under the Securities after an early redemption.

If the Final Terms provide for the payment of an Additional Conditional Amount or an Additional Unconditional Amount, the occurrence of an Early Redemption Event will also mean that no further additional amounts will be paid after the respective Early Redemption Date.

In addition, the Security Holders are exposed to the risk that they may only reinvest the principal received due to an Automatic Early Redemption of the Securities to less favourable conditions (the "Reinvestment Risk").

1.10. Risks related to the Leverage Factor

If a Leverage Factor is specified in the relevant Final Terms this indicates, that the price of the Underlying (i.e. Leverage Index) tracks the price of another Index or a Share (the "Reference Underlying") in accordance with the Leverage Factor.

Example: The Underlying of the Securities is an Index which tracks the price of another Index as Reference Underlying with a Leverage Factor of five (5). If the level of the Reference Underlying falls by one hundred (100) points, the level of the Underlying will fall by five hundred (500) points.

The Leverage Factor can also be negative. Such an Index is referred to as a "Short Index". In that case, a rising level of the relevant Reference Underlying, will result in a disproportionately falling level of the Underlying.

Security Holders should therefore be aware of the fact, that, in the case of an unfavourable development of the price or level of the Reference Underlying there is a significantly increased risk of loss for the investor.

1.11. Specific Risks related to the Airbag Leverage

In the case of Securities with Airbag Leverage, there may be a disproportionate (leveraged) risk of losing the invested capital due to the Airbag Leverage if the price of the Underlying falls significantly. There may also be an increased risk of total loss.

1.12. Risks related to the Issuer's Regular Call Right and the Redemption Right by the Security Holder

The Issuer may end the term of Tracker Securities and Tracker Basket Securities by exercising its regular call right ("Regular Call Right"). In that case, the Relevant Reference Price is the Reference Price on the applicable Observation Date immediately preceding the respective Call Date. If the Redemption Amount is lower than the capital amount paid for purchase, the Security Holder will suffer a loss. In addition, the Security Holders bear a Reinvestment Risk concerning the Redemption Amount. The "Reinvestment Risk" is the risk that the cash amount received by the Security Holder can be reinvested for a comparable term only on worse market conditions (such as a lower return or an increased risk). As a result, the yield achieved by this new investment over the respective term may be significantly lower than the return expected with the purchase of the Securities. In addition, the likelihood of a loss of the amounts paid in relation to the reinvestment may increase significantly.

The price of the Underlying may fall even after the exercising of the Redemption Right of the Security Holder or the Regular Call Right of the Issuer until the applicable Observation Date. The Observation Date may fall on a day several months or weeks after the exercise of such rights. This may substantially reduce the Redemption Amount and lead to losses of the amount paid by the Security Holders for the purchase of the Securities.

1.13. Risks related to Adjustment Events

In the case of the occurrence of an Adjustment Event as specified in the Final Terms, the Calculation Agent is entitled to carry out adjustments according to the Final Terms in its discretion and/or to replace the Underlying, as the case may be. Although these adjustments aim to preserve the economic situation of the Security Holders to the largest extent possible, it cannot be guaranteed that such an adjustment will result in a minimal economic impact. In fact, this adjustment may also have a negative impact on the value or the future performance of the Securities as well as on the amounts to be distributed under the Securities and can change the structure and/or the risk profile of the Securities. If such adjustments in accordance with the Final Terms are impossible or not reasonable for the Issuer and/or the Security Holders, the Issuer may call the Securities and redeem them at their market value. As a result, the Security Holder is exposed to the risks as described in the sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" below.

1.14. Risks related to Call Events

The Issuer has the right to extraordinarily call the Securities at their market value upon the occurrence of a Call Event, as specified in the Final Terms. A further participation of the securities on a favourable development of the price development of the Underlying will cease. If the market value of the Securities plus accrued interest at the time of the call is less than the Issue Price or the purchase price of the Securities, the respective Security Holder will suffer a partial or total loss of his/her invested capital even if the Securities provide for a conditional minimum payment. Furthermore, the Security Holder bears the risk that his/her expectations for an increase in the market value of the Securities will no longer be met because of such extraordinary early termination. In this case, the Security Holder is also exposed to a Reinvestment Risk.

1.15. Risks related to Market Disruption Events

If a Market Disruption Event, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, occurs the relevant Calculation Agent may defer valuations of the Underlying, as provided in the Final Terms, and, after a certain period of time, determine such valuations in its discretion. These valuations may, to the detriment of the Security Holder, differ substantially from the actual price of the Underlying. In general Market Disruption Events also lead to delayed payments (including deliveries of the Underlying if so specified in the relevant Final Terms) on the Securities. In this case, Security Holders are not entitled to demand interest due to such delayed payment.

1.16. Risks related to the Issuer's right of rescission

In the event of obvious typing or calculation errors or similar obvious errors in the Terms and Conditions, the Issuer is entitled to a rescission in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. As a result of a rescission, the Security Holder may demand the refunding of his Acquisition Price. Following payment of the Acquisition Price, all rights derived from the Securities submitted for refunding will cease to exist. As a result, the Security Holder bears a Reinvestment Risk (see sub-section "1.9 Risks related to an Automatic Early Redemption" of this section "Risk Factors"). The return achieved by the Security Holder over the original term of the Securities may thus be considerably lower than the return expected at the time of purchase of the Securities or the probability of a loss of the amount paid in connection with a new investment may increase considerably.

1.17. Specific risks related to securities with a Fixed Interest Rate

Potential investors in interest-bearing Securities at a Fixed Interest Rate should be aware that the fair market value of the Securities may be very volatile, depending on the volatility of interest rates on the capital market (the "Market Rate of Interest"). The performance of the Market Rate of Interest may depend on a number of interrelated factors, including economic, financial and political events and their general effect on capital markets and on the respective exchanges. It is not possible to predict how the Market Rate of Interest will change over time. While the interest rate of Securities with Fixed Interest Rate is specified in the Final Terms for the term of the Securities, the Market Rate of Interest is subject to daily changes. If the Market Rate of Interest rises, this normally causes the fair market value of the Securities with Fixed Interest Rate to fall. If the Market Rate of Interest falls, the fair market value of the Securities with Fixed Interest Rate normally rises until it is equal to the level of Securities which provide for an interest rate corresponding to the Market Rate of Interest. As a result, rising Market Rates of Interest may lead to financial losses of the Security Holder.

1.18. Specific risks related to Securities with Floating Interest Rate Potential investors in Securities with a Floating Interest Rate bear the risk that the Security Holder will achieve only a small or no current yield at all during the term of his investment if the Reference Rate develops unfavourably for the Security Holder. The fluctuation of the respective Reference Rate makes it impossible to predetermine the return on Securities with Floating Interest Rate in advance.

1.19. Specific risks related to Securities with Digital Interest Rate

In the case of Securities with Digital Interest Rate, the interest rate applicable to the Securities depends on the performance of the relevant Reference Rate. The fluctuation of the respective Reference Rate makes it therefore impossible to predetermine the actual return on Securities with Digital Interest Rate in advance. In the case of Securities with a Digital Interest Rate there is the particular risk that even small fluctuations of the Reference Rate may have a significant adverse effect on the actual return of the Securities. Potential investors should therefore consider that Security Holders might only achieve a small or a negative return during the term of their investment if the relevant Reference Rate develops unfavourably for the Security Holder.

1.20. Specific risks in relation to Securities with Basket Performance Determination

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the redemption and value of the Securities depend on the performance of the Basket, i.e. the sum of the weighted performance of all Basket Components. There is therefore a risk that the negative performance of one Basket Component or of some of the Basket Components may offset the positive performance of other Basket Components, with a negative impact on the redemption or the value of the respective Security. Any possible diversification of risk using the Basket Components is restricted or non-existent in particular if the Basket Components have similar features, e.g. if they are linked to each other in economical or geographical terms.

The weighting of the Basket Components may significantly amplify a negative development of one or more Basket Component and therefore also the negative impact on the value and/or redemption of the Securities. Thus, it cannot be ruled out that Security Holders may incur considerable losses even if one or more Basket Components have developed in a favourable manner.

1.21. Specific Risks related to Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination

The market value and the return of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination depend primarily on the price or the performance of the Basket Component with the Worst Performance (i.e. the Basket Component with the most unfavourable performance for the investor). This means that there is an increased risk of loss for the Security Holder since the (eventually favourable) performance of the other Basket Components is not taken into account when determining the market value or return of the Securities. Thus, the Security Holder may suffer a loss of her/his invested capital, even if some or all other Basket Components perform favourably.

1.22. Risks related to Physical Settlement

For cash settled or physical delivery Securities, the Security Holder may not receive a cash payment at maturity. Instead, the Underlying (a Share or a Fund Share) or a Delivery Item (a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate) specified in the Terms and Conditions will be delivered to the securities account of the Security Holder. The equivalent value of the quantity of the Underlying or a Delivery Item to be delivered depends solely on the performance of the Underlying and may therefore be subject to considerable fluctuations. Under certain circumstances, the equivalent value of the delivered quantity of the Underlying or a Delivery Item may be very low and may even be zero (0).

The risk of price losses of the Underlying or a Delivery Item does not end with its delivery but only with its disposition by the Security Holder. There is no automatic sale of the delivered quantity of the Underlying or a Delivery Item. Rather, the Security Holder must independently sell the delivered quantity of the Underlying or a Delivery Item in order to obtain a cash amount for the Underlying. If the value of the Underlying or a Delivery Item continues to fall between the time of delivery and the sale by the Security Holder, the loss of the Security Holder increases accordingly. In addition, the Security Holder also bears the other risks associated with the Underlying or a Delivery Item beyond the Final Payment Date until the Underlying or a Delivery Item delivered is actually sold.

The holding or sale of the delivered quantity of the Underlying or a Delivery Item may result in fees or other costs which reduce the potential return or increase the loss of the Security Holder. Ongoing costs

(for example, custody fees) have a higher impact the longer the delivered quantity of the Underlying or a Delivery Item is held by the Security Holder after its delivery. As a rule, if the value of the delivered Underlying (less all costs in connection with its holding and disposal) is less than the amount paid, the Security Holder suffers a loss on sale.

If an event beyond the control of the Issuer results in the Issuer being unable to deliver the Underlying or a Delivery Item pursuant to the Terms and Conditions (a "Transaction Disturbance"), the delivery of the Underlying or a Delivery Item may be deferred. In such a case, the Security Holders are not entitled to any interest or other amounts as a result of the Transaction Disturbance. The Issuer may also redeem the Securities by payment of a cash amount. This cash amount will be determined on the basis of stock exchange or market prices and may deviate from the market value of the Underlying at the scheduled time of delivery. Such a deviation may result in a loss of the amounts paid to purchase the Securities by the Security Holder or even increase losses of the Security Holder. In addition, the Security Holder will no longer be able to participate in a price increase of the Underlying or a Delivery Item following a delivery to reduce potential losses incurred.

1.23. Risks in relation to Securities with physical delivery of Index Certificates as Delivery Item

In the case of Securities with physical delivery of an Index Certificate as the Delivery Item, the Security Holder shall bear the same risks after delivery of the Delivery Item as are associated with Securities with an Index as the Underlying (as described in sub-section "2.2. Risks related to Financial Indices" of this section "Risk Factors"). There is the particular risk that the price of the Underlying falls during the term of the Securities.

In addition, the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item calculated by the Calculation Agent on the Final Observation Date may differ from the prices of the Delivery Item quoted by the Issuer in secondary market trading.

If the Calculation Agent, in its function as the Market Maker of the Delivery Item, determines the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item on the basis of a price of the Delivery Item on the Relevant Exchange of the Delivery Item, a conflict of interest may arise. In particular, the Calculation Agent may also act as the Market Maker for the Delivery Item on the Relevant Exchange of the Delivery Item. In this case, the Calculation Agent would set the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item itself without taking into account the interests of the Security Holders. If the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item is higher than the price of the Delivery Item in secondary market trading, the Security Holder can potentially only sell the delivered Index Certificates at a price lower than the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item. Consequently the Security Holder will suffer a significant loss of his invested capital. A total loss is possible.

1.24. Specific Risks related to Hybrid Securities

Payments under Hybrid Securities are linked to two different Underlyings. Therefore, the risks related to both Underlyings will apply (see section "2. Risks related to the Underlying and the Reference Rate"). Prospective investors should take particular care on understanding which feature of the Hybrid Securities is linked to which Underlying. The Security Holder may suffer a loss of his/her invested capital even if only one Underlying develops unfavourably.

1.25. Risks in relation to US withholding taxes

Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") and the related provisions stipulate that for certain financial instruments such as for the Securities a withholding tax may be imposed. This means: The Issuer or the custodian of the Security Holder are entitled to withhold a tax amount from the payment or redemption amount or of the interest payments. The amount withheld is then transferred to the U.S. tax authorities. The tax is levied on all payments made to Security Holders that are triggered or determined by dividends from U.S. sources. The term "payments" is used in a broad sense. It includes all other payments of the Issuer to the Security Holder which are triggered or determined by dividends from U.S. sources.

For Securities which have U.S. shares or U.S. indices as Underlying, the following must be applied:

Payments or performances considered as payments from the Issuer in connection with Securities may be treated as equivalent to dividends ("Dividend Equivalents"). These Dividend Equivalents are subject to U.S. withholding tax of 30%. The tax rate may be lower if the applicable double taxation agreement applies a lower tax rate.

Thus, it is possible that all Securities under the Base Prospectus may be subject to U.S. withholding tax, in case the Underlying is a U.S. share or is a U.S. index.

Important: A withholding may even be necessary in the following situations: Pursuant to the Terms and Conditions of the Securities no payment is made which is triggered or determined by dividends from U.S. sources. The same applies in cases where no adjustment is made to the Terms and Conditions of the Securities when a dividend from a U.S. source or other distribution is paid.

Also, for U.S. withholding tax pursuant to section 871(m) the following is applicable: Interest payments, principal amounts or other payments in connection with the Securities received by the Issuer may be subject to U.S. withholding tax. In that case, payments received by Security Holders will be reduced as a result of that deduction. None of the Issuer, a Paying Agent nor any other person will be obliged to pay compensation amounts to the Security Holders. As a result of the deduction or withholding, Security Holders will receive less interest or principal than expected.

In the worst case, payments to be made in respect of the Securities would be reduced to zero. It might be also the case that the amount of tax due could even exceed the payments to be made in respect of the Securities. If this is the case, Security Holders might have to pay taxes even if they have not received any payments from the Issuer. Security Holders may have to pay taxes even if the Securities expire worthless.

1.26. Risks related to the regulation of benchmarks

An Underlying or the Reference Rate may be a so-called benchmark (the "Benchmark") within the meaning of the Regulation (EU) 2016/1011³ (the "Benchmark Regulation").

The Benchmark Regulation has changed over the years. In particular, Regulation (EU) 2025/914⁴ amended the Benchmark Regulation with respect to, among other things:

- a) the scope of Benchmark Regulation,
- b) the use within the Union of benchmarks provided by an administrator located in a third country, and
- c) certain reporting obligations for benchmark administrators.

These amendments apply from 1 January 2026.

One of the key changes to the regime is that only benchmarks defined as critical or significant (determined based on quantitative or qualitative criteria), EU Paris aligned benchmarks, EU Climate Transition benchmarks and certain commodity benchmarks remain in scope of the mandatory application of the Benchmarks Regulation. An exemption applies for certain spot foreign exchange benchmarks. Other benchmarks fall out of mandatory Benchmarks Regulation scope (other than certain limited provisions in relation to statutory replacement of a benchmark, connected with cessation and/or non-representativeness). However, administrators of benchmarks may request voluntary application of the rules (opt-in) by requesting their competent authority to designate one or more of the benchmarks that they offer, subject to certain conditions specified in the Benchmark Regulation (including a EUR 20 billion eligibility threshold).

According to the Benchmark Regulation, the Issuer may use a Benchmark that fall within the scope of the Benchmark Regulation, as amended from time to time, as the Underlying or Reference Rate of the Securities only if its administrator (the "Benchmark Administrator") or the Benchmark itself is entered in a public register. Further, the Issuer shall not use a significant Benchmark or a combination of such

⁴ Regulation (EU) 2025/914 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 7 May 2025 amending Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as regards the scope of the rules for benchmarks, the use in the Union of benchmarks provided by an administrator located in a third country, and certain reporting requirements.

Benchmarks in the Union where that Benchmark or combination of Benchmarks is the object of a public notice issued by a competent authority or ESMA in accordance with Article 24a(6) of the Benchmark Regulation (without prejudice to the possibility for ESMA or the relevant competent authority, where necessary to avoid serious market disruptions, to allow the use of a benchmark subject to a public notice issued in accordance with Article 24a(6) for a period of between 6 and 24 months following the publication of the public notice).

Exception: certain Benchmarks - that fall within the scope of the Benchmark Regulation (as amended from time to time) - which are provided by a Benchmark Administrator located in a third country that applied to ESMA by 31 December 2025 for recognition or endorsement can continue to be used in the EU unless such application is refused by ESMA. In addition, according to Article 51(4c) of the Benchmark Regulation: (i) administrators of benchmarks that are in the register as at 31 December 2025 as authorised, registered, recognised or endorsing shall retain their status until 30 September 2026 and are not obliged to re-apply in the EU if they fall within the scope of the Benchmark Regulation on or before such date; and (ii) competent authorities or ESMA have until 30 September 2026 to designate as significant a benchmark provided by an administrator that was included in the ESMA register on 31 December 2025.

Benchmarks that fall out of scope of the revised Benchmark Regulation (which have not been opted-in) are no more subject to previously mandatory requirements concerning, for example, regulating governance, conflicts of interest, oversight functions, input data requirements and transparency of the methodology. There is a risk, among other things, that the methodology of such benchmarks may become less robust, resilient or transparent. These developments could significantly affect the value, liquidity and overall return of Securities that are linked to or reference such Benchmarks.

Any changes to a Benchmark as a result of the Benchmark Regulation could have a material adverse effect on the costs of refinancing a Benchmark or the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a Benchmark and complying with the Benchmark Regulation. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute input data to certain Benchmarks, trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used to determine certain Benchmarks, adversely affect the performance of a Benchmark or lead to the disappearance of certain Benchmarks. Potential investors should be aware that they face the risk that any changes to the relevant Benchmark may have a material adverse effect on the value of and the amount payable under the Securities. Furthermore, the methodology of a Benchmark might be changed in order to comply with the terms of the Benchmark Regulation, and such changes could have an adverse effect on the Security Holders, including but not limited to an unfavourable adjustment of the published price or its volatility. Consequently, it might become necessary to also adjust (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or even terminate the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

1.27. Risks related to Securities offered in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines

The Issuer may offer Securities in accordance with the sustainability guidelines⁵ (the "Sustainability Guidelines"), referred to in the Sustainability Guidelines as 'structured securities with sustainability characteristics'). The Sustainability Guidelines define self-binding sustainability criteria with regard to the Issuer and the Underlyings or Basket Components of the Securities. For the avoidance of doubt, the offer of Securities in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines does not involve a specific use of the proceeds for sustainable purposes.

Sustainability Guidelines may change during the term of a Security and may have a negative impact on its respective value. The Issuer's allocation of sustainability criteria to the Sustainability Guidelines may differ from product strategies and rulebooks adopted by other market participants.

The voluntary Sustainability Guidelines are subject to further development over time. Certain sustainability criteria may therefore be adjusted or weighted differently in the Sustainability Guidelines. Sustainability criteria may also change over time and as a result of evolving market practice.

⁵ The sustainability guidelines can be found on the following website: www.onemarkets.eu/ESG-Methodology.

Furthermore, regulatory measures are currently being prepared or implemented at the EU level which, inter alia, may have an impact on the future Securities offered in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines.

Therefore, Security Holders should take into account that any sustainability classification of their Securities may subsequently change due to material changes in the Sustainability Guidelines or formal changes in the context of new regulatory developments.

The sustainability classification may also change if the Issuer loses the status of a sustainable entity in accordance with the requirements in the Sustainability Guidelines or the relevant industry standard, for example the Sustainability Code of the German Structured Securities Association (Bundesverband für strukturierte Wertpapiere e.V., BSW), formerly German Derivatives Association (Deutscher Derivate Verband, DDV), or the Underlying loses its status as a sustainable underlying and the sustainability classification of the Securities changes as a result. This also applies in the case that the sustainability criteria of already issued Securities subsequently weaken against the background of regulatory changes or cease to exist altogether.

The Security Holder's sustainability-related expectations, objectives or obligations to invest into securities with particular sustainability purpose may subsequently no longer be met in such cases. In case a Security Holder wishes or would be required to sell its Securities, a secondary market loss cannot be excluded.

2. RISKS RELATED TO THE UNDERLYING AND THE REFERENCE RATE

Within this risk category the risk factors are organised into the following sub-categories depending on the type of the Underlying or the Reference Rate. Therefore, in this risk category, the most material risk factor with respect to the relevant type of Underlying or the Reference Rate is mentioned first in each of the following sub-categories:

- 2.1. Risks related to Shares*
- 2.2. Risks related to Financial Indices*
- 2.3. Risks related to Inflation Indices*
- 2.4. Risks related to Futures Contracts*
- 2.5. Risks related to Commodities*
- 2.6. Risks related to Exchange Traded Commodities*
- 2.7. Risks related to Fund Shares*
- 2.8. Risks related to Currency Exchange Rates*
- 2.9. Risks related to Debt Securities*
- 2.10. Risks related to Reference Rates*

2.1. Risks related to Shares

2.1.1. Similar risks to a direct investment in shares

The market price and the return of Securities linked to shares (including Depository Receipts, as defined below) (the "Share-linked Securities") primarily depend on the performance of the respective share. The performance of a share may be subject to factors like the dividend or distribution policy, financial prospects, market position, corporate actions, shareholder structure and risk situation of the issuer of the share, short selling activities and low market liquidity as well as to cyclical, macro-economic or political influences. In particular, dividend payments lead to a fall in the share price and, therefore, may have an adverse effect on the Security Holder and its investment in the Securities. Accordingly, an investment in Share-linked Securities may bear similar risks to a direct investment in the respective shares. Corporate actions and other events in relation to the share or the issuer of the share may result in adjustments to the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or in an extraordinary early termination of the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). Disruptions regarding the trading of the shares may lead to Market Disruption Events (as described in sub-section "1.15 Risks related to Market Disruption Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

2.1.2. Risks related to Depository Receipts

Depository receipts (the "Depository Receipts"), e.g. in the form of American Depository Receipts (ADRs) or Regional Depository Receipts (RDRs), may bear additional risks compared with risks related to shares. Depository Receipts are participation certificates in a portfolio of shares normally held in the country of incorporation of the issuer of the underlying shares and represent one or more shares or a fraction of such shares. For Depository Receipts, the legal owner of the underlying share portfolio is the custodian bank, which is at the same time the issuing agent of the Depository Receipts. Depending on the jurisdiction in which the Depository Receipts will be issued and to which jurisdiction the custody agreement is subject, it cannot be ruled out that the respective jurisdiction does not recognise the holder of the Depository Receipts as the actual beneficial owner of the underlying shares. Especially in the event of insolvency of the custodian bank or foreclosure against it, it is possible that shares underlying the Depository Receipts are restricted or that these shares may be sold to realise their value in the case of foreclosure against the custodian bank. If that is the case, the holder of the Depository Receipts loses the rights to the underlying shares certified by the participation certificate and the Depository Receipt becomes worthless.

2.1.3. Risks related to dividend payments

Dividend payments of the Underlying usually lead to a fall in its price and, therefore, may have an adverse effect on the Security Holder and its investment in the Securities. In particular, dividend payments may adversely affect the price of Securities. Furthermore, the Underlying may approach a certain limit or lead to the occurrence of an event relevant for the Securities and, therefore, negatively affect the payments of amounts under the Securities.

2.1.4. Risks related to Group Shares

In case of shares issued by the Issuer or shares issued by another company belonging to the UniCredit Group (the same group as the Issuer of the Securities) (both types of shares referred to as the "Group Shares") as Underlying, there are the following additional risks:

a) Combination of Credit and Market Risk

The Issuer of the Securities and the issuer of the Group Shares may be exposed to the same risks, inter alia, resulting from a group-wide organization, management and business strategy. Risks materialising with the Issuer of the Securities or the issuer of the Underlying or another entity of the group may simultaneously affect both, the Issuer of the Securities as well as the issuer of the Underlying.

If the creditworthiness of the Issuer is reduced, this may result in a simultaneous reduction of the creditworthiness of the issuer of the Underlying as well. Such reduction of the Issuer's rating would likely result in falling prices of the Underlying and, in addition, in a reduction in the market value of the Securities due to a reduced creditworthiness of the Issuer.

b) Sector related risks

If both, the Issuer of the Securities and the issuer of the Group Shares belong to the same economic sector and/or country, a general negative performance of this sector or country might have a cumulated negative impact on the price development of the Securities.

c) Risks arising from special conflicts of interest on group level

The Issuer will not consider the interests of Security Holders in its exercise of control with respect to the issuer of the Group Shares. Since both, the Issuer of the Securities and the issuer of the Group Shares are under joint control, conflicting interests might have negative effects on the overall performance of the Securities.

2.2. Risks related to Financial Indices

2.2.1. Similar risks to a direct investment in index components

The market price and the return of Securities linked to Financial Indices (the "Index-linked Securities") depend on the performance of the respective index. The performance of an index depends primarily on the performance of its components (the "Index Components"). Changes in the price of the Index Components may have an adverse effect on the index and, likewise, changes to the composition of the index or other factors may also have an adverse effect on the index. Accordingly, an investment in an Index-linked Security may bear similar risks to a direct investment in the Index Components. Generally, an index may at any time be altered, terminated or replaced by any successor index. This may result in adjustments to the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or in an extraordinary early termination of the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). Disruptions regarding the trading of the Index Components may lead to Market Disruption Events (as described in sub-section "1.15 Risks related to Market Disruption Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

2.2.2. Risks related to strategy indices

Strategy indices represent hypothetical rule-based investment strategies (i.e., no actual trading or investment activities take place) conducted by an index sponsor. As a general rule, strategy indices entitle the index sponsor to extensively exercise its discretion when calculating the index which may lead under certain circumstances to a negative performance of the index.

2.2.3. Risks related to Reference Strategy Indices

In the case of Reference Strategy Indices, decisions of the reference strategy agent (the "Reference Strategy Agent") with regard to the Investment Strategy may have an adverse effect on the price of the Index for the Security Holder.

The Investment Strategy may be a strategy which is not established in the market or it may even be an unknown or new investment strategy and it may potentially only be partially disclosed to the Security Holders or not at all. The Investment Strategy may turn out to be unsuccessful or may not work due to the prevailing market conditions. Therefore, the Security Holders rely mainly on the ability and reliability of the Reference Strategy Agent with regard to the determination of the Investment Strategy and the management of the Reference Portfolio.

The description of the individual Reference Strategy Index defines the framework, within which the Reference Strategy Agent has a significant degree of discretion. Thus, decisions of the Reference Strategy Agent may have a material adverse effect on the Securities.

The Issuer as well as the Calculation Agent act exclusively with respect to the issue of Securities referencing the respective Reference Strategy Index. There is no assessment or evaluation by the Issuer, the Calculation Agent or an independent third party of the Investment Strategy and the professional suitability and reliability of the Reference Strategy Agent. The Issuer and the Calculation Agent usually have no influence on the Investment Strategy and the management of the Reference Portfolio. This may be the case even if the Issuer or the Calculation Agent act as the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent.

Due to the frequently very extensive degree of discretion of the Reference Strategy Agent and the persons working for the agent in key positions (key persons), the professional suitability and reliability of the Reference Strategy Agent and the key persons are crucial for the performance of the Reference Strategy Index.

It is possible that the Reference Strategy Agent has to suspend its work (e.g. due to regulation), that key persons retire or temporarily or permanently discontinue their work and that thereby the respective expertise of the Reference Strategy Agent in managing the Reference Portfolio within the Investment Strategy is lost. In this case, there is the risk, that the management of the Reference Portfolio and the calculation of the Reference Strategy Index will be terminated prematurely. In general, neither the Issuer, nor the Calculation Agent, nor any person other than the Reference Strategy Agent shall continue the management of the Reference Portfolio.

Changes in the composition of the Reference Portfolio and the weighting of its components by the Reference Strategy Agent may result in losses in value of the Reference Strategy Index, which can be caused by discounts for the dissolution of existing components, premiums for the inclusion of new components or costs and fees, even though the Reference Portfolio is only fictional.

It cannot be excluded that the Securities referencing a Reference Strategy Index and/or the Issuer and/or the Investment Strategy and/or the Reference Strategy Agent may be subject to regulation for investment funds or other forms of collective investments in some way. This can significantly restrict the possibility to issue or to offer the Securities and can have a material adverse effect for the Security Holders with respect to the purchase, the holding and the sale of the Securities as well as the tax treatment of the proceeds from the Securities.

Further risk factors with respect to individual Indices may be published as a supplement to the Base Prospectus.

2.2.4. Risks related to dividend payments or other distributions

In the case of price-return indices, net-return indices or distributing indices, dividends or other distributions paid out with respect to Index Components will not or only partially be considered when calculating the price of the index and consequently have a negative impact on the price of the index, because the Index Components will as a rule be traded with a discount after the pay-out of dividends or distributions. As a result, dividend payments or other distributions of the Index Components may adversely affect the price of the index and, therefore lead to a financial loss at the Certificate Holder.

2.2.5. Risks related to Excess Return Indices

In the case of excess return indices, the investor indirectly invests in futures contracts and thus is exposed to the same risks as described in sub-section "2.4 Risks related to Futures Contracts" of this section "Risk Factors"). The performance of the Index Components is only considered in excess (that means relative) to a benchmark or interest rate. As a result, rising prices of the respective benchmark or interest rate may have a significant adverse effect on the price of the relevant index.

2.2.6. Risks in relation to country or sector related indices

If an index reflects the performance of assets only of certain countries, regions or sectors, this index is affected disproportionately negatively in the case of an unfavourable development in such a country, region or industrial sector.

2.2.7. Risks related to the Index Concept

Each index is based on a specific set of rules (the "Index Concept"). In particular, the Index Concept specifies the rules according to which the constituents of an index are selected and weighted, and how the level of the index is determined. Therefore, the Index Concept has a significant impact on the development of the index level. An Index Concept may be incomplete or include errors. It might also be not suitable to achieve the objective of the relevant index. In addition, an Index Concept may be subject to significant modifications over the time (e.g. an increase of the number of index constituents or the criteria to replace one index constituent by another). All these factors may have a significant adverse impact on the development of the index level. Moreover, an incorrect or incomplete Index Concept may result in the index no longer functioning in exceptional market situations so that the calculation of the index level may be discontinued temporarily or permanently.

2.3.1. Risks related to the basket of goods

Inflation Indices are usually calculated for a variety of different baskets of goods. In particular, certain goods or services may be disregarded (e.g., tobacco, energy or fuel). The performance of these Inflation Indices for the same country, market or region may therefore differ significantly. Investors should therefore pay close attention to the composition of the respective basket of goods when making their investment decision. The basket of goods underlying a specific Inflation Index may be changed. Such change may have a significant adverse impact on the performance of the Securities.

2.3.2. Risks related to hedging strategies

An Inflation Index is simply a statistical measure, which may differ from the actual price development of the goods and services in the basket (e.g., in a particular region). An investment referred to an Inflation Index may therefore not be suitable for compensating or hedging the actual price development in a specific country, market or region.

2.3.3. Risks related to a revision of the Inflation Index

Inflation Indices can also be calculated on the basis of provisional data. If after its publication it turns out that these data were not accurate, a recalculation and publication of the price of the Inflation Index for the relevant period (revision) may be made. These revisions may be substantial. Before purchasing the Securities, investors should therefore take into account whether the Securities in question are calculated on the basis of the revised or unrevised Inflation Index. If the Securities are calculated on the basis of the unrevised Inflation Index, changes in the price of the Underlying after its initial publication will not be taken into account.

2.3.4. Risks related to a delay in the publication of the index level

Generally, an Inflation Index is calculated on a monthly basis, with a significant time delay for publication. Therefore, the calculation of the payments to be made by the Issuer under the Securities for a certain period of time (e.g. an interest period) is usually based on a price of the Inflation Index that has already been published for a period of time in the past. Due to this time lag, there may be significant differences between the inflation rate used for the relevant calculation and the actual inflation rate for the relevant calculation period.

2.4. Risks related to Futures Contracts

In this section the general risks with respect to Futures Contracts are described.

2.4.1. Similar risks to a direct investment in futures contracts

The market price and the return of Securities linked to futures contracts (the "Futures contract-linked Securities") primarily depend on the performance of the respective futures contract. The performance of a futures contract may be subject to factors like the price of the reference asset underlying the futures contract, limited liquidity of the futures contract or the reference asset underlying the futures contract, as the case may be, speculations and cyclical, macro-economic or political influences. Accordingly, an investment in Futures contract-linked Securities may bear similar risks to a direct investment in the respective futures contracts or reference asset underlying the respective futures contract (see also the risks as described in Risks related to commodities). Changes in the contract specification made by the relevant determining futures exchange may result in adjustments to the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or in an extraordinary early termination of the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). Disruptions regarding the trading of the futures contracts may lead to Market Disruption Events (as described in sub-section "1.15 Risks related to Market Disruption Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

It cannot be ruled out that publication of a futures contract will be discontinued. In particular, regulatory requirements (specifically, in respect to the regulation of so-called Benchmarks) may result in a futures contract not being available for the entire term of the Securities (see also sub-section "1.26 Risks related to the regulation of benchmarks" of this section "Risk Factors"). Such an event can entitle the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, in particular, to amend the Terms and Conditions of the Security or to convert the Securities.

2.4.2. No parallel development of spot and futures prices

Prices of futures contracts may differ substantially from the spot prices of the underlying reference assets. The price of a futures contract does not always develop in the same direction or at the same rate as the spot price of the underlying reference asset. As a result, the price of the futures contract may develop substantially unfavourable for Security Holders even if the spot price of the underlying reference asset remains constant or develops favourably for Security Holders.

2.4.3. Risks related to futures contracts with different contract dates

The prices of futures contracts with different contract dates and overlapping terms can differ, even if all other contract specifications are identical. If the prices of longer-term futures contracts are higher than the prices of the shorter-term futures contracts this is called 'contango'. If the prices of shorter-term futures contracts are higher than the prices of the longer-term futures contracts this is called 'backwardation'. If the Final Terms provide for an observation of futures contracts with different contract dates (e.g. in the case of a roll over), these price differences might have negative effects on the value of the Securities and the amounts to be paid under the Securities, since not the most favourable futures contract for the Security Holder might be of relevance.

2.4.4. Risks with respect to a Roll-Over

In order to trade futures contracts on an exchange, they are standardised with respect to their term (e.g. 3, 6, 9 months). This may require a subsequent replacement of the futures contracts by futures contracts (under consideration of transaction costs related thereto), which have a later contract date, but otherwise has identical contract specifications as the initial futures contract (the "Roll-Over"). Such a Roll-Over can be repeated several times, as a result of which the associated transaction costs are incurred several times. Differences in the prices and settlement prices of the futures contract (as described in the sub-section "Risks related to futures contracts with different contract dates" above) together with the related transaction costs may be compensated by a respective adjustment (e.g. of the rate at which the respective Security directly or indirectly participates in the performance of the underlying futures contract). Therefore, over time Securities may participate to a greater extent in an unfavourable underlying future's performance for the respective Security Holder or to a lesser extent in a favourable underlying future's performance for the respective Security Holder.

2.4.5. Risk associated with bonds as Futures Reference Assets

There is a risk in the case of Futures Contracts which have bonds as Futures Reference Assets that a change in the anticipated interest level will have an adverse effect for the Security Holder on the price of the Futures Contract.

Futures Contracts with bonds as Futures Reference Asset are subject to the risk that the expectation with regard to the interest rate level represented by the Futures Reference Asset changes. Falling expectations for interest normally lead to increasing prices, and increasing expectations for interest regularly lead to a decrease in the prices for the relevant Futures Contract. A change in the anticipated interest level thus can have an adverse effect for the Security Holder on the price of the Futures Contract.

Example:

The price for a Futures Contract referencing a government bond (as Futures Reference Asset) can fall if a rise in interest rates is expected. The level of interest is influenced, among other factors, by the prime interest rates, the expected development of the economy, the expected performance of alternative investments (e.g. shares) and the credit standing of the Issuer of the Futures Reference Asset.

2.4.6. Risk associated with EU Emission Allowances as Futures Reference Assets

Emission allowances to emit greenhouse gases (e.g. carbon dioxide (CO₂)) are established and regulated under the Directive 2003/87/EC in its current version ("EU Emission Allowance"). Trading in EU Emission Allowances is only possible within that framework. This means that a limited market with very specific parameters exists.

The framework works on a cap and trade principle in respect of the number of EU Emission Allowances and its trading participants. The EU Emission Allowance market is accordingly limited. A default of just one or few market participants might therefore have material consequences regarding the availability or the trading in EU Emission Allowances. Due to the limited market and its specific conditions any disruption in the system or the settlement of transactions may lead to unforeseen and disproportionate effects. Furthermore, the abovementioned EU framework Directive may at any time be amended or repealed, which in turn may lead to significant changes to the price of carbon, to the system itself or even the abandonment of the system. The price of EU Emission Allowances itself is also affected by very specific market mechanisms and external factors. It is highly dependent on emissions in the EU member states and can vary based on factors such as (global) environmental policies, environmental changes, natural disasters, economic crisis or the ability of economies to reduce the emission of greenhouse gases.

These aspects may lead to negative effects on the price of EU Emission Allowances as well as Futures Contracts on such EU Emission Allowances and therefore on the value and return on the Securities.

2.5. Risks related to Commodities

2.5.1. Similar risks as a direct investment in commodities

The market price and the return of Securities linked to a commodity (the "Commodity-linked Securities") primarily depend on the performance of the respective commodity. The performance of a commodity may be subject to factors like supply and demand, speculations in the financial markets, production bottlenecks, delivery difficulties, hardly any market participants, political turmoil, economic downturns, political risks (exporting restrictions, war, terrorist actions), unfavourable weather conditions, natural disasters or pandemics. Changes in the trading conditions at the relevant reference market or other events, affecting the commodity may result in adjustments to the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or in an extraordinary early termination of the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). Disruptions regarding the trading of a commodity may lead to Market Disruption Events (as described in sub-section "1.15 Risks related to Market Disruption Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

2.5.2. Higher risks than other asset classes

An investment in commodities is associated with higher risks than investments in other asset classes like e.g. debt securities, currencies or stocks; because prices in this asset category are subject to greater fluctuations (volatility) and markets may be less liquid than e.g. stock markets. Changes to bid and offer volumes may have a higher impact on the price and volatility. Commodity markets are also characterised by, among others, the fact that there are only a few active market participants what increases the risk of speculation and pricing inaccuracies.

2.5.3. Risks arising from the trading in various time zones and on different markets

Commodities (e.g. oil, gas, wheat, corn, gold, silver) are traded on a global basis almost non-stop in various time zones on different specialised exchanges or markets or directly among market participants (over the counter). This may lead to a publication of different prices for a commodity in different price sources. The Final Terms specify which exchange or market and which timing apply regarding the specification of the price of the relevant commodity. The prices of a commodity displayed at the same time on different price sources can differ e. g. with the result that a more favourable price, which is displayed on a price source, is not used for the calculations or determinations in respect of the Securities.

2.6. Risks related to Exchange Traded Commodities

2.6.1. Risks related to the issuer of Exchange Traded Commodities

The issuer of an Exchange Traded Commodity ("ETC Issuer") might get into payment difficulties or its assets may deteriorate and insolvency or similar proceedings might be opened against its assets. Any interest in the Exchange Traded Commodities ("ETC Interest") may be collateralised by certain assets of the ETC Issuer backing the redemption of the ETC Interest. Any decrease in value of the collateral assets might impact the potential proceeds from a collateral liquidation. In any such case, there is a considerable risk that the price of the relevant Exchange Traded Commodity will fall sharply or that the Exchange Traded Commodity will become worthless.

2.6.2. Risks related to extraordinary events affecting an Exchange Traded Commodity

Exchange Traded Commodities can be subject to certain extraordinary events. These include, for example, changes made to the structure or terms of the ETC Interest or its risk profile by the ETC Issuer, changes made to the ETC Issuer, regulatory restrictions with respect to the use or distribution of Exchange Traded Commodities, any additional fees, costs, charges or taxes levied for the redemption of the ETC Interest, any early redemption of the ETC Interest by the ETC Issuer or the cessation of the trading in the Exchange Traded Commodities. The occurrence of any such event may significantly affect the risk profile and the price of Exchange Traded Commodities.

2.6.3. Risk related to the development of the price for Exchange Traded Commodities

The price of Exchange Traded Commodities can be subject to great fluctuations resulting from the market price of the underlying commodity and the markets for Exchange Traded Commodities as such. ETCs are generally not actively managed. The following accordingly applies: An adverse development in the ETC Interest is passed on without any reduction and leads to a decrease in the trading price determined on the respective exchange. Moreover, the market for Exchange Traded Commodities might show low or no trading activities or a high volatility. Changes in supply and demand of the underlying commodity and a limited tradability or available market prices for the ETC Interest might adversely affect the price of Exchange Traded Commodities.

2.6.4. Risks related to the early redemption of Exchange Traded Commodities

The ETC Issuer may, depending on the relevant terms and conditions applicable to the ETC Interest, decide to redeem some or all the ETC Interest early. The redemption price determined for such ETC Interest may be substantially lower than the market price of the underlying commodity, for example, due to losses and costs from the liquidation of the underlying commodity or hedging transactions. This may result in losses from an investment in an Exchange Traded Commodity.

2.7. Risks related to Fund Shares

2.7.1. Similar risks to a direct investment in Fund Shares

The market price and the return of Securities linked to a Fund Share, in principle, depend on the performance of the relevant Fund Share or the relevant Fund Shares. The performance of a Fund Share is decisively dependent on the success of the relevant investment fund's investment activities. The latter are affected in turn to a very great extent by the choice of assets acquired by the investment fund and the extent to which the investment risks associated with the acquisition of assets for the investment fund materialise. Therefore, an investment in a Security can be subject to a similar risk to a direct investment in Fund Shares. If an investment fund invests directly or indirectly in assets with a low credit rating (such as, for example, in securities with a rating below investment grade or distressed securities or loans), this will entail significant risks of loss for the relevant investment fund. Investments of this nature may be negatively affected by statutory provisions and other applicable regulations relating, for example, to insolvency proceedings, fraudulent transfers and other voidable transfers or payments, lender liability and the forfeiture of certain rights. In addition, the market prices of these assets are subject to abrupt and unpredictable market movements and above-average price volatility, while the spread between the bid and offer price of such securities may be larger than is usual in other securities markets.

Events affecting the Fund Share may result in adjustments to the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or in an extraordinary early termination of the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). Disruptions regarding the trading of a commodity may lead to Market Disruption Events (as described in sub-section "1.15 Risks related to Market Disruption Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

2.7.2. Legal and tax risk

The legal environment and the publication, accounting, auditing and reporting requirements applying to an investment fund, as well as the tax treatment applying to its members, may change at any time in a way that can neither be predicted nor influenced. In addition, any change may have a negative impact on the value of the investment fund used as the Underlying for the Securities.

In this context, investment funds operating in accordance with the requirements of Directive 2009/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities ("UCITS") are normally subject to stricter requirements relating to risk diversification and the type of permitted assets than investment funds operating in accordance with the requirements of Directive 2011/61/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2011 on managers of alternative investment funds ("AIFs"). However, this does not entail a guarantee that the investments made will be safer or that the investment activities will be financially successful.

In contrast to UCITS, AIFs are permitted to concentrate their fund investments on a single asset or a few assets, and to invest in complex assets and assets for which there are no properly functioning and transparent markets on which credible prices are quoted at which those assets can be sold at any time or at least on particular dates. This may be associated with substantial risks, which may have adverse effects on the value of the investment assets and thus on the payments under the Securities.

The distribution of Fund Shares may be subject to restrictions in the respective jurisdiction, which may also apply to the Securities linked to Fund Shares. As a result, a delivery of Fund Shares (as Underlying) at the maturity of the Securities may not be admissible or an investment into the Securities must even be reversed. A Security Holder may be exposed to the risk of not participating in a favourable development of the Underlying, an additional cost burden and a loss of the invested capital.

2.7.3. Risks resulting from commissions and fees

Investment funds usually have to bear certain management and custody fees and further fees and expenses regardless of their performance. These fees usually accrue even if an investment fund's assets decrease in value. Moreover, the regulations of an investment fund typically provides for a performance fee or allocation to its general partner, manager or person serving in an equivalent capacity over and above a basic asset-based management fee. Performance fees or allocations could create an incentive for a manager to choose riskier or more speculative investments than would otherwise be the case. In addition, because performance-based fees or allocations are generally calculated on a basis that includes unrealised appreciation as well as realised gains, an investment fund may pay performance-based compensation to a manager on gains that will never be realised. Certain fund managers may invest on the basis of short-term market considerations. Their turnover rate is expected to be significant, potentially involving substantial brokerage commissions and fees.

In addition, some investment funds may charge fees in relation to the issuance or redemption of their Fund Shares. Prospective Security Holders should be aware that any of these fees may have a negative impact on payments, if any, under the Securities.

2.7.4. Risks relating to valuations of the net asset value and estimates

The Issuer or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be, must rely on the valuation of the relevant assets by the respective investment fund or its contracted service providers. Such valuations are revised from time to time, sometimes materially, and may not be indicative of what the actual fair market value would be in an active, liquid or established market and subject the fund managers to a conflict of interest where their fees are based on such valuations. The valuations provided by investment funds with respect to their illiquid investments and by less liquid sub funds of their overall net asset values may be particularly uncertain. The investment funds' management fees and incentive fees, as well as the amounts due to investors upon share redemption and other financial calculations, may be determined on the basis of estimates. The manager or advisor of an investment fund is usually under no or only limited obligation to revise such estimates.

2.7.5. Risks resulting from the possible effects of redemptions of Fund Shares

Substantial redemption requests could require a fund to liquidate its assets more rapidly than otherwise intended pursuant to its investment program to raise liquidity for making payments to holders of Fund Shares in connection with a redemption request. As result, and due to a reduction of the fund's asset portfolio, the fund may be less diversified. In addition, costs (e.g. transaction costs) have a more significant impact on the value of the fund.

Substantial redemption requests may, in certain circumstances, even lead to a premature dissolution of the fund. In addition, the redemption of Fund Shares could be contemporarily suspended by the fund.

2.7.6. Risks due to possible changes of investment strategies

The investment strategy of an investment fund may change over time. The fund managers may therefore no longer follow the same investment strategy in the future that they applied in the past. In addition, in some cases the specific details of the particular investment strategy may be proprietary, and consequently investors in the investment fund will not have access to the full details of those methods or be able to check whether those methods are being followed. In particular, an investment fund may seek to engage in increasingly less liquid investments in an effort to achieve above-average risk-adjusted returns.

2.7.7. Risks arising from misconduct by the fund managers

Misconduct on the part of its fund managers may result in the respective investment fund being exposed to claims for damages by third parties or suffering substantial losses up to and including the total loss of the assets under management. This includes, for example, failure to observe the agreed investment strategies, misappropriation of fund assets, issuing false reports about the investment activities or the discovery of other forms of misconduct. There is also the possibility of breaches of securities laws due to the improper use of confidential information or the falsification of information that is significant for valuation purposes, which could result in some circumstances in substantial liability for damages to third parties or liabilities in connection with payments out of realised income or penalties imposed on the investment fund itself.

2.7.8. Specific risks involved with investments in volatile and illiquid markets

If an investment fund invests in markets that are volatile or whose liquidity cannot be guaranteed, it may be impossible or expensive (especially in the event that trading is suspended or in the event of or daily price fluctuation limits in the trading markets or in other cases) for that investment fund to liquidate its positions with a contrary market movement. Alternatively, it may not be possible in certain circumstances for a position to be opened or liquidated immediately (in the event that there is insufficient trading volume in the respective market or in other cases). Moreover, the market prices, if available, of investments subject to statutory or other restrictions on transfer or for which there is no liquid market generally display higher volatility, and in some circumstances it may be impossible to sell the investments at the desired time or to realise their fair value in the event of sale. Investments in securities that are not quoted on a securities exchange or are traded in the over-the-counter market may be less liquid than publicly traded securities due to the absence of a public market for such securities. Furthermore, it may only be possible to sell non-publicly traded securities at a much later time than intended and/or, even though it is possible to resell such securities by means of privately negotiated transactions, the price realised from the sale may be less than the price originally paid. In addition, companies whose securities are not registered or publicly traded are not subject to the same disclosure and other investor protection requirements as companies whose securities are registered or publicly traded.

2.7.9. Specific risks involved with investments in other investment funds (Fund of Funds)

Where an investment fund ("Fund of Funds") invests in other investment funds ("Target Funds"), specific risks apply. The Target Funds in a Fund of Funds portfolio generally invest independently from each other and may from time to time hold economically converse positions. Moreover, the Target Funds may compete with each other for the same positions in certain markets. There can be no guarantee that the selection of a number of Target Funds will be more successful than the selection of only a single Target Fund. The portfolio of a Fund of Funds may also be composed of only a few Target Funds and/or may be focused on particular strategies. Such a concentration on only a few investment managers and/or investment strategies involves particularly high risks and may lead to larger losses than in the case of a broad diversification of assets.

The fund managers of the respective Target Funds act independently from each other. It may therefore happen that different investment funds may pursue the same or opposite investment strategies. This can lead to an accumulation of existing risks and to the neutralisation of potential opportunities to generate profits. In general, the investment manager of a Fund of Funds is not in a position to control the management of the Target Funds.

The Fund of Funds must bear not only its own administration and management fees but also the administration and management fees of the Target Fund. There is therefore generally a doubling of the fees borne by the fund. A Fund of Funds normally pays substantial charges (including the Target Fund managers' fees based on assets under management and performance-related allocations or fees) which, if incurred, are payable irrespective of the overall profitability of the Fund of Funds (as opposed to the profitability of the individual Target Fund). The fees and expenses incurred by a Fund of Funds reduce the net asset value and therefore the performance of such a Fund of Funds. Consequently, the value of a Fund of Funds does not fully reflect the total performance of the Target Funds it is invested in.

Target Funds and their respective fund managers may be subject to varying levels of regulation. Certain investments in funds and accounts opened and maintained may not be subject to comprehensive government regulation.

2.7.10. Specific risks involved with investing exclusively in another investment fund (Feeder Fund)

Where an investment fund ("Feeder Fund") invests its assets more or less exclusively in another investment fund ("Master Fund"), the value of the investment may, if the Feeder Fund has a relatively small share in the Master Fund, be dependent on the actions of the other investors holding a larger share in the Master Fund, since they have a majority of the votes. Multiple Feeder Funds investing in the same Master Fund can result in an increased risk of conflicts of interest, especially for tax reasons. If a large shareholder redeems its shares in the Master Fund, the expense ratio for the remaining investors will increase. Furthermore, as the redemption of shares will lead to the sale of a significant portion of the Master Fund's assets, the remaining portfolio will be less diversified.

2.7.11. Specific risks associated with exchange traded funds

Exchange traded funds ("ETFs") generally aim to replicate the performance of a particular index, basket or individual asset ("ETF-Benchmark"). However, the constitutional documents or the investment program of an ETF allow the ETF-Benchmark to be replaced in certain circumstances. As a result, the ETF might not continuously replicate the performance of the original ETF-Benchmark. ETFs may either replicate the performance of an ETF-Benchmark fully by investing directly in the assets included in the relevant ETF-Benchmark or use synthetic replication techniques like swaps or other sampling techniques. The value of ETFs is therefore particularly dependent on the value and performance of the assets and securities used to replicate the ETF-Benchmark. Nevertheless, differences between the unit price of the ETF and the actual value of the ETF-Benchmark cannot be ruled out.

In contrast to other funds ETFs are generally not actively managed. Instead, investment decisions are predetermined by the relevant ETF-Benchmark and its constituent assets. A negative performance of the ETF-Benchmark usually results in a decline of the ETF's net asset value and the unit price determined on the relevant exchange. Moreover, the replication of an ETF-Benchmark typically entails additional risks such as the risk that some ETF-Benchmark constituents may be illiquid or the credit risk relating to swap counterparties; in particular, ETFs using derivatives to replicate or hedge positions may incur disproportionately high losses in the case of an unexpected negative performance by the ETF-Benchmark due to the leverage effect.

There can be no guarantee in the case of ETFs that an admission to trading or quotation can be maintained at all times. The unit price of an ETF is composed of the total value of all the securities in its portfolio, less any liabilities, i.e. the net asset value. A decline in the unit price or value of the fund's securities or other investments while replicating the performance of an ETF-Benchmark will result in losses for the fund and the fund units. Even a wide spread of investments and broad diversification cannot exclude the risk of a decline in the unit prices due to the negative development of particular markets. The unit price of an ETF is determined on the basis of supply and demand. This unit price may differ from the final net asset value published by the investment fund. Divergences may therefore arise between the unit price and the actual net asset value during trading hours.

2.8. Risks related to Currency Exchange Rates

For all Securities with a Currency Exchange Rate as Underlying (the "Currency-Exchange-Rate-linked Securities") the same risks apply as described in sub-section "1.8 Currency and Currency Exchange Rate risk with respect to the Securities" of this section "Risk Factors". In addition, potential investors should also consider the following risk factors with respect to Currency Exchange Rates as Underlying:

2.8.1. Similar risks as a direct investment in currencies

Currency-Exchange-Rate-linked Securities are linked to one or more specified currencies. The market price and the return depend on the performance of the underlying currency/ies and may be substantially lower than the amount the Security Holder has initially invested. An investment in Currency-Exchange-Rate-linked Securities may bear similar market risks as a direct investment in the respective underlying currency/ies. This might especially be the case if the underlying currency is the currency of an emerging market. Such risk may in particular result from a high volatility (exchange rate fluctuations). Therefore, potential investors should be familiar with foreign currencies as investment asset class.

If the currency exchange rate is no longer determined and published, this may result in adjustments to the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors") or in an extraordinary early termination of the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). Disruptions regarding the publication of currency exchange rates may lead to Market Disruption Events (as described in "1.15 Risks related to Market Disruption Events" of this section "Risk Factors").

It cannot be ruled out that publication of a currency exchange rate will be discontinued. In particular, regulatory requirements (specifically, in respect to the regulation of so-called Benchmarks) may result in a currency exchange rate not being available for the entire term of the Securities (see also sub-section "1.26 Risks related to the regulation of benchmarks" of this section "Risk Factors"). Such an event can entitle the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, in particular, to amend the Terms and Conditions of the Security or to convert the Securities.

2.8.2. Risk arising from an indirect determination of the relevant Currency Exchange Rate

Potential investors should consider that the relevant Final Terms may specify that the reference price relevant for the calculation or specification of the Redemption Amount is not determined directly from the Currency Exchange Rate defined as Underlying, but indirectly via a computation of two Currency Exchange Rates (e.g. AUD/EUR and EUR/GBP) ("Cross Currency Exchange Rate"). This Cross Currency Exchange Rate may differ materially from the reference price used for the calculation or specification of the Redemption Amount published by a recognized financial information provider or by a central bank. This may have a negative effect on the Securities.

In case of Currency-Exchange-Rate-Linked Securities, Security Holders may be subject to an increased risk of substantial loss of the capital invested.

2.9. Risks related to Debt Securities

2.9.1. Credit risk

In addition to the solvency of the Issuer, payments under a Security linked to a debt security (the "Bond-linked Securities") are subject to the ability of the issuer of the respective debt security to fulfil its financial obligations. If the issuer of a debt security is not willing or not able to pay its financial obligations (e.g. in the case of an over indebtedness or insolvency), this might result in falling prices of the debt security and a partial or total default of the interest and/or redemption payments under it.

Even the believe of market participants that the creditworthiness of the issuer of a debt security deteriorates can be sufficient to have a negative impact on the market value. Hence, factors specific to the issuer of a debt security like weaker earnings, market position or a higher distribution policy can negatively impact the debt security's market value.

This may also have a negative impact on the market value and the payments under the Securities.

2.9.2. Interest rate risk

The value of a debt security depends primarily on the prevailing market interest rates for similar securities. This means that a change in the market interest rates or even a change in the expectations of the market participants, may cause the price of the Underlying to fall. Market interest rates are not only determined on the basis of supply and demand in the financial markets but are also strongly influenced by other factors that cannot be predicted, in particular the monetary or fiscal policy decisions of a central bank or a government. In times of rising inflation rates, market interest rates will normally rise which may adversely affect the value of the Underlying and therefore the value of and amounts payable under the Securities. The Security Holders are not entitled to receive any interest payments from the Underlying, which could compensate potential losses in the market value of a debt security.

2.9.3. Liquidity risk

There is a risk that the debt securities may not be widely distributed and no active trading market may exist or develop. There may also be no market maker providing ongoing prices and/or liquidity in the respective debt securities. Thus, there is no assurance that the Calculation Agent may determine an adequate price for the debt securities at any time which might have a negative effect on the market value and the amounts payable under the Securities.

2.9.4. Risks related to the price determination

Due to the structure of the bond markets, the determination of the prices for the Underlying may require a greater degree of discretion by the Calculation Agent than for other assets (e.g. funds or stocks). This may result in a determination to the detriment of the Security Holder and may adversely affect on the value of and payments under the Securities.

2.9.5. Risks related to an indirect investment in debt securities

The Security Holder has no direct claim or recourse against the issuer of the Underlying or any right to receive information that the issuer of the Underlying provides to holders of the Underlying. In addition, the issuer of the Underlying does not need to consider the consequences of its actions vis-à-vis the Security Holders.

Furthermore, the rights of the Security Holders are strictly limited to the rights under the Securities and do not extend to any rights to receive payments under the Underlying. Therefore, any payments made under the Underlying will remain with the Issuer and, therefore, the return for the Security Holder under the Securities may be significantly lower than if the Security Holder had invested directly in the Underlying.

2.9.6. Risks related to the market price of debt securities

The development of the market price of a debt security primarily depends on the structure of its coupon payment. For instance, the market price of debt securities with a fixed interest rate or with a zero coupon regularly falls, if market interest rates rise. For debt securities with floating or more complex coupon payments, this may be different. Therefore, Security Holders should make themselves well familiar with the effect of changing market interest rates on the market price of the respective debt securities used as Underlying before investing in the Securities.

2.9.7. Risks related to High Yield Bonds

If the Underlying is a debt security with a rating below investment grade or that is unrated or subordinated to other liabilities of the issuer of the respective debt security, there is an increased risk of loss of capital due to a potentially higher price volatility, lower liquidity and increased insolvency risk.

2.10. Risks related to Reference Rates

2.10.1. Price risk related to Reference Rates

The market price and the return of Securities linked to Reference Rates depend on the performance of the respective Reference Rate. Reference Rates may be subject to significant fluctuations due to multiple factors such as changes in market interest rates, measures taken by central banks, fiscal inventions, as well as macro-economic or political influences. If the relevant Reference Rate in relation to a Security develops in a manner unfavourable to the Security Holder, this may have a significant adverse effect on the market price and the actual return of the Securities.

2.10.2. Risks related to the cessation of publication of the Reference Rate

The final cessation of the publication of the Reference Rate may lead to an adjustment of the Terms and Conditions of the Securities (as described in sub-section "1.13 Risks related to Adjustment Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). The Securities can also be terminated (as described in sub-section "1.14 Risks related to Call Events" of this section "Risk Factors"). It cannot be ruled out that publication of a Reference Rate will be discontinued. In particular, regulatory requirements (specifically, in respect to the regulation of so-called Benchmarks) may result in a Reference Rate not being available for the entire term of the Securities (see also sub-section "1.26 Risks related to the regulation of benchmarks" of this section "Risk Factors"). Such an event can entitle the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, in particular, to amend the Terms and Conditions of the Security or to terminate the Securities.

2.10.3. Risks related to the calculation of the Reference Rate

Changes, errors or manipulation in the calculation of a Reference Rate may have a material adverse effect for the Security Holder on the Reference Rate. The rules for a Reference Rate can be subject to changes from time to time. This may be the case, for example, due to regulatory requirements. In particular, such changes may result in the method by which the Reference Rate is determined no longer being comparable to the method used before the adjustment. Such a change could, for example, affect the source of so-called input data. A change to the rules for a Reference Rate may have a material adverse effect for the Security Holder on the Reference Rate. Moreover, it cannot be excluded that the determination or disclosure of Reference Rates may be subject to inaccuracies or even manipulation by the persons responsible for their determination and/or disclosure or by other market participants. Such inaccuracies or manipulations are difficult or impossible to detect for third parties and may have a material adverse effect on the price of the Reference Rate for the Security Holder.

2.10.4. Risks related to Risk Free Rates

Securities for which the Reference Rate is based on an overnight risk free rate (also "Risk Free Rate" or "RFR") are subject to further specific risks, in addition to the risks set out under "2.10.1 Price risk related to Reference Rates" to "2.10.3 Risks related to the calculation of the Reference Rate" above which apply accordingly to an RFR as such.

The Reference Rate of the Securities can either directly reference an RFR or indirectly by means of a calculation method for a specific period measuring the return of a compounded interest investment ("RFR-Compounded Method"). The Reference Rate can also be based on an RFR-Index which represents a specific RFR-Compounded-Method ("RFR-Index").

Interest for such Securities is regularly determined by the Calculation Agent only in arrears at the end of the Interest Period. The RFR-Compounded-Method and the RFR-Index incorporate the value of the underlying RFR on the relevant days. If the RFR is negative, the value of the Interest Rate will be reduced accordingly.

Risk Free Rates have only been available since 2018 and 2019. Therefore, these Risk Free Rates have a limited history. The first RFR-Indices were calculated for the first time in 2020. This has the consequence that:

- it is difficult to predict the future performance of the Risk Free Rates,

- they are currently not yet widely established in the market, so that little experience is available with regard to their development and integration in financial transactions, and uncertainties exist as to whether market participants regard the RFRs or RFR-Indices and specific calculation methods as a suitable substitute for all purposes for which EURIBOR (Euro Interbank Offered Rate) and LIBOR (London Interbank Offered Rate) have been commonly used in the past. It cannot be ruled out that the determination of interest rates for interest-bearing debt securities of the Issuer and other issuers will be based in the future on different calculation methods related to RFRs or on completely different Reference Rates and that a completely different market trend will thus develop. It is also possible that there will be a transition to the use of a not yet developed term RFR for interest-bearing debt securities that can be determined in advance. This may have a negative impact on the market acceptance of RFRs and may also result in the RFR, RFR-Indices or a certain calculation method related to RFR not being widely used,
- since the initial publication of the RFRs, daily changes in the RFRs have for example, on occasion, been more volatile than daily changes in other market rates, such as EURIBOR or LIBOR, within the same time periods. It is not possible to estimate how this will continue to develop in future,
- there is a possibility that the administrators of the RFRs will make changes to the methodology or other changes that cause a change in the value of the RFRs, including changes to the method by which the RFRs and RFR-Indices are calculated, the selection criteria for transactions used to calculate the RFRs, or the timing of publication of the RFRs, in order to achieve broad market acceptance and
- the securities or investments available on the market with reference to RFR and RFR-Indices may differ substantially, as there is no established market standard. The methods used to determine the interest rates can therefore vary considerably. The various securities or investments may therefore show completely different performances and may not be comparable.

As it is difficult for investors in the Securities to estimate reliably the interest payments, it remains unclear whether in certain circumstances investors are willing and able to trade the Securities.

Any of these factors can potentially have a significantly negative impact on the market value and interest payments on the Securities. In addition, the trading in the Securities can be significantly adversely affected.

3. RISKS RELATED TO THE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC AND/OR ADMISSION TO TRADING

3.1. Risks related to potential conflicts of interests

Conflicts of interest in relation to the relevant Issuer or the persons entrusted with the offer may arise, which may result in a decision to the Security Holder's disadvantage. The Issuer and its affiliates may in the context of interests pursued in their normal course of business enter into transactions or do business that are adverse to or do not take into account the interests of the Security Holders.

3.2. Liquidity risk

There is a risk that the Securities may not be widely distributed and no active trading market (the "Secondary Market") may exist and may develop for the Securities.

The Issuer is not obliged to make applications for the Securities to be admitted to the regulated market of any stock exchange or to be listed on any other exchange, market or trading system within the European Economic Area. Even if the Issuer makes such application, there is no assurance that such applications will be accepted or that an active trading will develop or be maintained. If the Securities are not traded on any stock exchange or any other market or trading system, pricing information for the Securities may in addition be more difficult to obtain.

Neither the Issuer nor any Distributor or any of its affiliates is obliged to undertake any Market Making activities. There is also no obligation to appoint a Market Maker or to continue a Market Making during the whole term of the Securities. If there is no Market Maker, or Market Making is only made to a limited extent, the Secondary Market in the Securities may be very limited.

The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, purchase Securities at any time and at any price in the open market, by tender offer or private agreement. Any Securities purchased in this way by the Issuer may be held, resold or cancelled. A repurchase of Securities by the Issuer may adversely affect the liquidity of the Securities.

Neither the Issuer nor any Distributor can therefore assure that a Security Holder will be able to sell her/his Securities at an adequate price prior to their redemption. Even in the case of an existing Secondary Market it cannot be excluded that the Security Holder may not be in a position to dispose of the Securities in the case of an unfavourable development of the Underlying, the Reference Rate or of a Currency Exchange Rate, e.g. if such development occurs outside of the trading hours of the Securities.

The issue volume described in the Final Terms does not allow any conclusion on the volume of the Securities actually issued or outstanding at any time and thus on the liquidity of a potential Secondary Market.

3.3. Risks related to a sale of the Securities

Prior to the redemption of the Securities, the Security Holders may only be able to realise the value, represented by the Securities, through a sale of the Securities in the Secondary Market. The price at which a Security Holder may be able to sell her/his Securities may be substantially lower than the purchase price. In the case of a sale of the Securities at a certain point of time at which the market value of the Securities is below the purchase price paid, the respective Security Holder will be suffering a loss. Costs associated with the sale of the Securities in the Secondary Market (e.g. order fees or trading venue fees) may in addition increase the loss.

3.4. Risks related to the spread between bid and offer prices

During extraordinary market situations or the occurrence of technical disruptions, the Market Maker for the Securities may temporarily suspend the quotation of bid and offer prices for the Securities or increase the spread between bid and offer prices. Should the Market Maker in special market situations be unable to conclude transactions to hedge against price risks resulting from the Securities, or when such transactions are very difficult to conclude, the spread between the bid and offer prices may be expanded in order to limit its economic risk.

3.5. Risks related to Incidental Costs

In connection with the purchase, holding and disposal of the Securities, incidental costs (the "Incidental Costs") may be incurred beside the purchase or sale price of the Securities.

If the purchase or sale of the Securities is not agreed between the purchaser and the Issuer or the Distributor, as the case may be, at a fixed price (the "Fixed Price"), commissions which are either fixed minimum commissions or pro-rata commissions, depending on the order value, will be charged upon the purchase and sale of the Securities. To the extent that additional – domestic or foreign – parties are involved in the execution of an order, for example domestic dealers or brokers in foreign markets, potential investors may also be charged for the brokerage fees, commissions and other fees and expenses of such parties (third-party costs).

In addition to such Fixed Price and the costs directly related to the purchase of the Securities (direct costs), potential investors must also take into account any other costs in connection with the holding of the Securities. These include for example custody fees and additional costs if other foreign or domestic entities are involved in the custody.

These Incidental Costs may significantly reduce or even eliminate any profit from the Securities.

3.6. Risks in connection with a later determination of features

The Final Terms may provide that either the Issue Price or other features of the Securities may be determined by the Issuer or published at any point of time after the production of the Final Terms. Depending on the time and manner of any such determination, investors in the relevant Securities bear the risk that the potential return which is achievable from an investment in the relevant Securities do not match the expectations of the investor at the time of purchase or the risk profile does not match the risk expectations of the investor.

Securities governed by German law:

In case the Securities are issued under German law, the following applies:

The Securities are bearer debt instruments (Inhaberschuldverschreibungen) pursuant to § 793 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, "BGB").

The Securities, as to form and content, and all rights and obligations of the Issuer and the Security Holder shall be governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.

The Clearing System will be specified in the Final Terms. The right to receive Securities in definitive form is excluded. The rights of the Security Holders – including any claims for interest – result from the Global Note. The Securities are transferrable as co-ownership interest in the Global Note pursuant to the relevant regulations of the respective Clearing System. The Issuer may obtain a right in the Terms and Conditions to replace the global note by electronic registration of the Securities pursuant to § 6 (3) of the German Act on Electronic Securities (Gesetz über elektronische Wertpapiere – eWpG) without the consent of the Security Holders.

Option: Electronic Securities in the form of Central Register Securities

The transfer of the Securities operates by registration on the relevant accounts opened in the Clearing System. The Security Holders are not entitled to receive definitive Securities.

Securities governed by French law:

In case the Securities are issued under French law, the following applies:

The Securities, as to form and content, and all rights and obligations thereunder shall be governed by the laws of the Republic of France. The Securities will be represented by book entry and registered in the books of the Clearing System. The transfer of the Securities operates by registration on the relevant accounts opened in the Clearing System.

Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands:

The Securities will be registered in uncertificated book entry form with the Clearing System. Transfer and delivery of denominations of Securities shall take place solely between or through the intermediary of admitted institutions at the Clearing System. Security Holders shall each hold a co-ownership right in respect of the community of denominations.

Currency

The Securities may be issued in different currencies (the "Specified Currency"), such as Euro or US-Dollar. That means that all payments out of and under the Securities will be made in the Specified Currency. The Specified Currency will be specified in the Final Terms.

ISIN

An International Security Identification Number (the "ISIN") will be assigned to the Securities. The ISIN will be specified in the relevant Final Terms. Additionally, the Final Terms may specify further identifiers or codes for the Securities (such as the German Securities Identification Number (Wertpapierkennnummer) "WKN").

Underlying

The Underlying of the Securities may either be Single-Underlying or a Multi-Underlying:

Single-Underlying

In the case of Securities with Single-Underlying, the Underlying may either be a Share, a Fund Share, a Financial Index, a Commodity, an Exchange Traded Commodity, a Debt Security or a Currency Exchange Rate.

In the case of Tracker Securities, the Underlying may also be a Futures Contract.

The term "Share" also comprises shares of UniCredit S.p.A. or shares of other entities belonging to the UniCredit Group (the "Group Shares"), provided that such shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market, and securities with the form of depository receipts (e.g. American Depository Receipts (ADRs) or Regional Depository Receipts (RDRs) (respectively "Depository Receipts"). "UniCredit Group" means the UniCredit Group, to which UniCredit S.p.A. is the holding company (the "Holding Company"). The UniCredit Group and the Holding Company are further described in the Registration Document. Shares in an investment fund are not comprised by the term. The name of the issuer of the Share that forms the Underlying for the Securities, its ISIN and potentially further information will be specified in the Final Terms.

The term "Fund Share" may refer to a unit or a share in an investment fund, including exchange traded funds (the "ETF"). Investment funds in the form of ETFs generally replicate the development of a certain index, basket or specified single asset (the "ETF Underlying"). Investment funds in the form of ETF in particular are, usually, not actively managed. The name of the Fund Share that forms the Underlying for the Securities, its ISIN (or a similar reference) and potentially further information will be specified in the Final Terms.

A "Financial Index" is an index which refers to assets or financial instruments of a certain category (e.g. shares, indices, debt securities, commodities, futures contracts or currency exchange rates). A Financial Index may also be composed by HVB, a legal entity belonging to the UniCredit Group. For this purpose, HVB has been registered as a Benchmark Administrator in the register kept by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) in accordance with Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation (see sub-section "Information in accordance with Article 29 of the Benchmark Regulation" below).

HVB on 31 December 2025 was included in the ESMA register and, according to Article 51(4c) of the Benchmark Regulation (as amended by Regulation (EU) 2025/914⁶), shall retain that status until 30 September 2026. Indices composed by HVB or any other entity belonging to the UniCredit Group qualify as proprietary indices and may be used as Underlying of the Securities in the relevant Final Terms. In relation to each proprietary index that falls outside the scope of the Benchmark Regulation (as amended by Regulation (EU) 2025/914) and which therefore is not required to be included in the ESMA register pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation:

- (i) the complete set of rules and information on the relevant performance of such proprietary index are freely accessible on the website www.onemarkets.eu (or a successor page); and
- (ii) the rules governing the proprietary index, including the methodology of the proprietary index for the selection and rebalancing of the components of the proprietary index, the description of market disruption events and the related adjustment rules, are based on predetermined and objective criteria.

HVB or any other entity belonging to the UniCredit Group is under no obligation to take into account the interests of the Security Holders in composing the proprietary index.

A Financial Index (the "Leverage Index") may also entail a leverage factor (the "Leverage Factor") resulting in a leveraged participation in the performance of the relevant component of the Index (the "Reference Underlying"). The Leverage Factor may either be positive or negative. A negative Leverage Factor leads to an inverse participation of the Leverage Index in the performance of the Reference Underlying. If indicated in the Final Terms a Financial Index may also be an index related to Fund Shares (the "Fund Indices"). The name of the Financial Index that forms the Underlying for a Security, its ISIN and potentially further information on the Financial Index (e.g. the index sponsor or the index calculation agent) will be specified in the Final Terms.

A "Reference Strategy Index" is a Financial Index replicating a Reference Portfolio (the "Reference Portfolio") which is continuously and actively managed by a third party (the "Reference Strategy Agent") within a specified investment strategy (the "Investment Strategy") (e.g. by changing the composition and weighting of the components of the Reference Strategy Index). The Reference Portfolio is purely fictional and exists only in the form of datasets. Actual trading of financial instruments and actual investment activities do not take place with respect to the Reference Portfolio. The Investment Strategy (e.g., investment universe, strategy, allocation, analysis) is developed and defined exclusively by the Reference Strategy Agent. The description of the relevant Reference Strategy Index (the "Index Description") sets out the method for calculating, fixing and publishing the price of the Reference Strategy Index (the "Index Concept") and defines the framework, within which the Reference Strategy Agent has a significant degree of discretion, i.e. the Reference Strategy Agent is solely responsible for deciding upon the composition of the Reference Portfolio and the weighting of its components. As the legal basis for the use of the Reference Strategy Index as the Underlying for the Securities, the Index Sponsor, the Reference Strategy Agent, the Issuer, the Calculation Agent and/or the Index Calculation Agent will enter into an index sponsorship agreement.

A Reference Strategy Index may include, among other things, the following components:

- shares (including securities representing shares),
- indices,
- commodities,
- futures contracts,
- fund shares (including ETFs) and

- structured securities.

The Reference Strategy Index can implement both a buy position (long) and a sell position (short) in the respective components.

A Reference Strategy Index may include, among other things, the following features:

- components denominated in foreign currency,
- a participation factor (leverage),
- a periodic (re-)allocation or weighting,
- events or barriers which trigger a (re-)allocation or weighting,
- adjustments for dividends from the components,
- adjustments for specific events,
- events (e.g. trigger event) that lead to a suspension of the index calculation or to a liquidation of the Reference Portfolio, and
- a deduction of fees or commissions (fixed or variable).

The name of the Reference Strategy Index that forms the Underlying for a Security, its ISIN and potentially further information on the Reference Strategy Index will be specified in the Final Terms.

If the Financial Index is a proprietary index of the Issuer or any other entity belonging to the UniCredit Group, further significant new factors relating to the information already included in the Base Prospectus and the respective Index may be included in the form of a supplement in accordance with Article 23 of the PR. This includes in particular information concerning specific risk factors to be included in section "Risk Factors".

The term "Commodity" refers in particular to precious metals, such as gold, silver, platinum and palladium. The term commodity comprises also other primary products, e.g. oil and copper, in relation to which prices (e.g. spot prices) are published frequently by a market or exchange. Commodities may also be represented by way of Indices. The name of the Commodity that forms the Underlying for a Securities, its ISIN (or a similar reference) and potentially further information (e.g. the reference market) will be specified in the Final Terms.

The term "Exchange Traded Commodity" ("ETC") refers in particular to a security issued by a special purposes issuer or a structured notes issuer ("ETC Issuer") tracking the market value of a specific commodity or a futures contract referencing a specific commodity. The interest in such securities ("ETC Interest") is intended to be traded on an exchange enabling an indirect investment in the underlying commodity. ETC Interest may have a limited or unlimited term. The redemption of the ETC Interest may be collateralised by the underlying commodity or other assets or hedging arrangements established by the ETC Issuer. The name of the ETC that forms the Underlying for the Securities, its ISIN (or a similar reference) and potentially further information (e.g. the ETC Issuer) will be specified in the Final Terms.

The term "Futures Contract" is a standardised forward transaction, which references a future right on a specifically determined asset (the "Futures Reference Asset"). Futures Reference Assets may for example reference to the following assets:

- commodities or other commercial assets (e.g. oil, wheat or sugar) – as so-called commodity futures contracts; or
- bonds (e.g. sovereign bonds) – as so-called financial futures contracts; or
- EU Emission Allowances (in the case of so-called EU Emission Allowances Futures Contracts). "EU Emission Allowances" are allowances to emit greenhouse gases (e.g. carbon dioxide (CO₂)) issued by a competent authority pursuant to the trading system of the European Union in accordance with Directive 2003/87/EC in its current version; or
- other reference assets.

To achieve tradability of Futures Contracts on an exchange, its terms are standardised (e.g. 3, 6 or 9 months). In the case of longer term Securities this may require a continued substitution by successor Futures Contracts ("Roll Over"). If the Underlying is a Futures Contract, the Final Terms may therefore specify that it will be substituted before the end of its term by the same Futures Contract with a longer remaining term, which will from that point on be the Underlying. Such Roll Over may be repeated multiple times. The name of the Futures Contract that forms the Underlying for a Securities, its ISIN (or a similar reference) and potentially further information (e.g. the referenced market) will be specified in the Final Terms. The prices of Futures Contracts may be published as a percentage of the Nominal Amount. For the amounts paid under the Securities the Final Terms may specify that one percentage point of the price published by the Reference Market shall equate to one unit in the Base Currency (e.g. one US Dollar or one Euro).

The term "Debt Security" refers to a debt security issued by a public issuer, supranational, agency or company in registered or in bearer form and represented by a certificate or issued in electronic form.

The term "Currency Exchange Rate" may refer to an exchange rate between two currencies. The name of the Currency Exchange Rate (FX) that forms the Underlying for the Securities and potentially further information will be specified in the Final Terms.

For all types of Underlyings, the Final Terms will also contain a reference to a website on which further information regarding the past and future performance of the Underlying and its volatility may be obtained free of charge, unless stated otherwise in the relevant Final Terms.

Multi-Underlying

In the case of Securities with Multi-Underlying, the Securities may either be issued as Basket-linked Securities or as Hybrid Securities.

In the case of "Basket-linked Securities", the Underlying is a basket consisting of several Basket Components. Basket Components may either be Shares (see definition of "Share" above), Indices (see definition of "Financial Index" above), Fund Shares (see definition of "Fund Share" above), Commodities (see definition of "Commodity" above), Debt Securities (see definition of "Debt Security" above) or Currency Exchange Rates (see definition of "Currency Exchange Rate" above).

The term "Debt Security" refers to a debt security issued by a public issuer, supranational, agency or company in registered or in bearer form and represented by a certificate or issued in electronic form.

In the case of "Hybrid Securities", the Securities are linked to two Underlyings. Each Underlying may either be a Financial Index, an Inflation Index, a Reference Rate or a Share.

In the case of "Basket-linked Hybrid Securities", the Securities are linked to two Underlyings. One Underlying is a basket consisting of several Basket Components. Basket Components may either be Financial Indices or Shares. The other Underlying is an Inflation Index.

An "Inflation Index" is a statistical value which measures how average prices of consumer goods and services, purchased by private households, (the "Inflation Rate") change over the time in a particular country, market or region. The Inflation Rate is regularly calculated on the basis of the value of a specified basket of goods. Changes in the prices of various consumer goods and services in the basket have a direct influence on the relevant Inflation Rate and, as such, on the level of the Inflation Index. Although central banks generally try to achieve a slightly positive Inflation Rate by means of certain interventions (e.g. changes in the key interest rate) (in which case the level of the relevant Inflation Index usually rises), the Inflation Rate (and as such the Level of the Inflation Index) may also fall. The name of the Inflation Index that forms the Underlying for the Securities, its ISIN and potentially further information on the Inflation Index (e.g. the index sponsor or the index calculation agent) will be specified in the Final Terms.

For all types of Basket Components, the Final Terms will also contain a reference to a website on which further information regarding the past and future performance of the Basket Components and their volatility may be obtained free of charge, unless stated otherwise in the relevant Final Terms.

Unless the context requires otherwise, the term "Underlying" throughout this Securities Note, shall refer both to an individual Underlying and to a basket consisting of several Basket Components.

The Underlying(s) and the Basket Components are the main influencing factor on the value of the Securities. The influence of the value of the Underlying(s) or of the Basket Components on the value of the Securities is described in the section "Description Of The Securities" for each Product Type.

The deduction of any fees or other price-influencing factors may also influence the actual performance of the Securities.

Neither the Issuer nor any affiliated entity is in any way obliged to buy or hold the Underlying (or its components) or the Basket Components (or its components). The issuance of the Securities does neither limit the Issuer nor its affiliated entities to dispose of, encumber or transfer any rights, claims or assets with regard to the Underlying(s) (or its components) or the Basket Components (or its components) or with regard to derivative contracts linked thereto.

Reference Rate

The Reference Rate may be the Euro Interbank Offered Rate (EURIBOR) or a Constant Maturity Swap (CMS) Rate, as further specified in the relevant Final Terms.

The relevant Final Terms will specify where Information on the Reference Rate may be obtained, including information on where electronic information on past and future developments of the Reference Rate and its volatility may be found and if such Information is available free of charge or not.

Risk Free Rates ("RFR") are daily interest rates and are based on transactions that have taken place. RFRs include the Euro Short-Term Rate ("€STR" or "ESTR"), the Secured Overnight Financing Rate for U.S. Dollar Financing ("SOFR"), Overnight Index Average ("SONIA") and Swiss Average Rate OverNight ("SARON").

The RFR specified in the relevant Final Terms may not be covered by the scope of the Benchmark Regulation or subject to a transition period and are therefore not registered in the public register under Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation.

RFRs can be used as interest reference under the Securities as follows:

- directly as daily published rate,
- indirectly by means of a calculation method for a specific period measuring the return of a compounded interest investment ("RFR-Compounded Method"),
- indirectly on the basis of an RFR index which represents a specific RFR-Compounded-Method ("RFR-Index").

The Reference Rate calculated on an RFR and RFR-Index is determined by the Calculation Agent in arrears, i.e. the determination takes place retrospectively at the end of an Interest Period.

The following conventions may be used to determine the Reference Rate:

- Calculation based on a backward shifted observation period (so-called Observation Period Shift): the relevant period for the observation of the values of the respective RFR to be taken into account in the formula for the Reference Rate of an Interest Period starts and ends by a certain number of days ahead the respective Interest Period. If a day within the Observation Period RFR is not an applicable banking day, the value of the RFR determined for the previous banking day of the Observation Period RFR will be correspondingly weighted higher, as all calendar days in the Observation Period a RFR re relevant.
- Fixed previous banking day (so-called Lookback): the values of the respective RFR to be taken into account in the formula for the Reference Rate of an Interest Period do not correspond to the value of the RFR of the current day of the Interest Period, but in each case to the value of a specified number of a preceding banking day. If a day within the Interest Period is not an applicable banking day, the value of the RFR determined for the previous banking day of the Interest Period will be correspondingly weighted higher, as all calendar days in the Interest Period are relevant.
- Current day interest determination with locked in values at the end of the Interest Period (so-called Lockout): the values of the respective RFR to be taken into account in the formula for the Reference Rate of an Interest Period correspond to the RFR of the current day of the Interest Period, but for a specified number of days before the end of the Interest Period, a uniform value of the respective RFR for a specified day before the end of the Interest Period is lock in and used for the reminder of the following applicable banking days, so that interest payment can be made on the Interest Payment Date.

- Payment Delay: the values of the respective RFR to be taken into account in the formula for the Reference Rate of an Interest Period correspond to the RFR of the current day of the Interest Period but the interest payments are delayed by a certain number of days and are thus due a couple of days after the end of an Interest Period. As for the last interest period, the lockout convention (s. above) is applicable i.e. the values of the respective RFR to be taken into account in the formula for the Reference Rate of the last Interest Period correspond to the RFR of the current day, but for a specified number of days before the end of the last Interest Period, a uniform value of the respective RFR for a specified day before the end of the Interest Period is locked in and used for the remaining days of the Interest Period.

For the days within the period relevant for the observation of the relevant RFR that are not calculation days, usually the value of the RFR of the immediately preceding applicable banking day is used. In the case of a temporary unavailability of the RFR, the terms and conditions specify how the replacement value of the RFR is to be determined (e.g. the last published value).

In the case of a Reference Rate determined by reference to an RFR-Index, the start value and end value of the RFR-Index determined on the specified days are used in the interest calculation for an Interest Period. If no publication is available for determining the start value or the end value of the RFR-Index, the Terms and Conditions specify how the substitute value is to be determined for such a temporary market disruption.

Information in accordance with Article 29 of the Benchmark Regulation

The relevant Final Terms of the Securities may make reference to one or more Benchmark(s), in relation to which Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure the performance of investment funds and amending Directives 2008/48/EC and 2014/17/EU and Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 ("Benchmark Regulation") applies.

A "Benchmark" is a published figure which is referenced to determine payments under a financial instrument (e.g. the Securities). For example, the Underlyings and Basket Components may be Benchmarks. In connection with the Securities, Benchmarks can include:

- a Financial Index,
- a Commodity (with respect to the market price used as a reference),
- a Reference Rate or
- a Currency Exchange Rate.

The Benchmark Regulation sets out the tasks and obligations of all parties contributing to the Benchmark that falls within its scope. This includes the so-called "Benchmark Administrators" who control the provision of the Benchmarks. In addition, it includes provisions for certain companies that use Benchmarks (for example by issuing Securities which reference a Benchmark as Underlying). The Issuer can act as a company using a Benchmark. Without prejudice to the provisions set out in the above paragraph "Underlying", HVB or any third person can act as Benchmark Administrator.

However, Benchmark Regulation has been amended by Regulation (EU) 2025/914⁷, which changes apply from 1 January 2026. One of the key changes to the regime is that only benchmarks defined as critical or significant (determined based on quantitative or qualitative criteria), EU Paris aligned benchmarks, EU Climate Transition benchmarks and certain commodity benchmarks remain in scope of the mandatory application of the Benchmarks Regulation. An exemption applies for certain spot foreign exchange benchmarks. Other benchmarks fall out of mandatory Benchmarks Regulation scope (other than certain limited provisions in relation to statutory replacement of a benchmark, connected with cessation and/or non-representativeness). However, administrators of benchmarks may request voluntary application of the rules (opt-in) by requesting their competent authority to designate one or more of the benchmarks that they offer, subject to certain conditions specified in the Benchmark Regulation (including a EUR 20 billion eligibility threshold). HVB is a Benchmark Administrator of benchmarks that on 31 December 2025 was included in the ESMA register and, according to Article 51(4c) of the Benchmark Regulation, shall retain that status until 30 September 2026. In addition, certain Benchmarks - that fall within the scope of the Benchmark Regulation (as amended from time to time) - which are provided by a Benchmark Administrator located in a third country that applied to ESMA by 31 December 2025 for recognition or endorsement can continue to be used in the EU unless such application is refused by ESMA. In any case, investors, when making any investment decision in relation to a Security linked to a benchmark, are advised to consult their independent advisors in order to assess the potential risks arising from the Benchmark Regulation or from any reform of European or national legislation.

⁷ REGULATION (EU) 2025/914 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 7 May 2025 amending Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as regards the scope of the rules for benchmarks, the use in the Union of benchmarks provided by an administrator located in a third country, and certain reporting requirements.

Furthermore, according to the Benchmark Regulation the Issuer is subject to special information duties with regard to the Base Prospectus. This includes the information whether the benchmark that falls within the scope of the Benchmark Regulation is provided by a Benchmark Administrator who is registered in the register accordance with Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation (a "Registered Benchmark Administrator").

In case the relevant Securities reference a Benchmark, the Final Terms will specify whether this is the case as the relevant Benchmark that is the underlying for the respective issuance of Securities and the respective Benchmark Administrator are not known as of the date of this Securities Note.

If the Final Terms specifies that the Benchmark is:

- administered by a Registered Benchmark Administrator, it means that the Benchmark (as far as the Issuer is aware and as at the date of the relevant Final Terms) is administered by an administrator who is registered in a register pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation for the purposes of that Benchmark as underlying for the relevant issuance of Securities;
- not administered by a Registered Benchmark Administrator, it means that as far as the Issuer is aware and as at the date of the relevant Final Terms, the relevant Benchmark, as underlying for the relevant issuance of Securities, is not within scope of the Benchmarks Regulation and/or the Benchmark Administrator, as administrator of the relevant Benchmark, is not required, in respect of such Benchmark, to be registered on the register established and maintained by ESMA pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation.

In addition, the Issuer shall not use a significant Benchmark or a combination of such Benchmarks in the Union where that Benchmark or combination of Benchmarks is the object of a public notice issued by a competent authority or ESMA in accordance with Article 24a(6) of the Benchmark Regulation (without prejudice to the possibility for ESMA or the relevant competent authority, where necessary to avoid serious market disruptions, to allow the use of a benchmark subject to a public notice issued in accordance with Article 24a(6) for a period of between 6 and 24 months following the publication of the public notice).

The Securities have a fixed term, which may be reduced in the following circumstances:

1. A Call Event occurs (see section "Description of the rights arising from the Securities (including their limitation) – Extraordinary Termination of the Securities by the Issuer" below);

The Additional Conditional Amounts are always conditional and may depend on the performance of the relevant Underlying, the relevant Basket Components or the relevant Reference Rate, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

In accordance with section "Description Of The Securities" below, it may be specified in the relevant Final Terms that one or more Additional Unconditional Amounts shall be paid on the Securities. Automatic Early Redemption of the Securities

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, and in accordance with the section "Description Of The Securities" below, the Securities may be redeemed early by payment of the Early Redemption Amount on an Early Payment Date, if an Early Redemption Event occurs. The "Early Payment Date(s)" of the Securities will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Redemption of the Securities

The Securities can be issued either as Securities with cash settlement or as Securities with cash settlement or physical delivery.

In case the Final Terms specify that the Securities will be issued as Securities with cash settlement, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount on the Final Payment Date.

In case the Final Terms specify that the Securities will be issued as Securities with cash settlement or physical delivery, the Securities will be redeemed in accordance with the Terms and Conditions either by payment of the Redemption Amount on the Final Payment Date or by delivery of the Underlying. The quantity of the Underlying to be delivered is expressed by the Ratio. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of the not delivered fraction of the Underlying (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

If the Final Terms state that the Securities are issued as Securities with physical delivery of a Delivery Item, the Securities shall be redeemed on the Redemption Date by delivery of the Delivery Item and, if applicable, by payment of a Supplemental Cash Amount.

The "Delivery Item" may be either a Share, a Fund Share, or an Index Certificate.

"Index Certificate" means a Tracker Security issued by the Issuer with an Index as Underlying. In addition, an Index Certificate as a Delivery Item is a Security:

- which tracks the price development of the Underlying,
- which is traded on a regulated market, another third country market, a Multilateral Trading System and/or on another stock exchange or another market and/or trading system

- for which the Issuer or a third party commissioned by the Issuer continuously quotes buying and selling prices under normal market conditions over the entire term of the Index Certificate (Market Making), and
- for which all legal requirements for the distribution and a Public Offer to all potential investors in all relevant Offering Countries are complied with over the entire term of the Securities.

The delivery of the Underlying or the Delivery Item and the payment of a Supplemental Cash Amount will be made within five Banking Days after the Final Payment Date (the "Delivery Period"). This does not apply if a Transaction Disturbance has occurred (see description in section "Settlement Disruption"). The delivery is to be made to the Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the relevant depository banks of the Security Holders. All costs, incl. possible custody fees, exchange turnover taxes, stamp taxes, transaction fees, other taxes or levies (together the "Delivery Costs"), incurred as a result of the delivery of the Underlying or Delivery Item, shall be borne by the respective Security Holder. Subject to the provisions of these Terms and Conditions, the Underlying or Delivery Item shall be delivered at the Security Holder's own risk. The delivery to the Clearing System will discharge the Issuer's obligations arising under the Securities with respect to the delivered Underlyings or Delivery Items.

If the Final Payment Date is not a Banking Day, then the first day of delivery will be postponed to the next following Banking Day. Such delay will not give rise to an entitlement to interest or other amounts.

The "Final Payment Date" of the Securities will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Market Disruptions

During the term of the Securities, Market Disruption Events may occur that affect the Securities.

As a consequence of the occurrence of a Market Disruption Event the Calculation Agent may, for example, postpone an Observation Date specified in the relevant Final Terms or the determination of a Reference Price of the Underlying or a Basket Component. Under certain circumstances, the subsequent payment dates may be postponed accordingly.

The Calculation Agent determines the materiality in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands).

Adjustments to the Terms and Conditions

The Calculation Agent may adjust the Terms and Conditions of the Securities if a certain adjustment or replacement event occurs. Adjustment or replacement events may have a significant impact on the Securities.

Adjustments with regard to Shares:

In respect of Shares, the Terms and Conditions may be adjusted in case of an Adjustment Event.

An "Adjustment Event" in respect of a Share is, for example, each of the following events:

Adjustment Event with regard to Shares as Underlying or Basket Component:

- Each measure taken by the company that has issued the Share or by a third party which, as a result of a change in the legal and financial position, affects the Share, for example, share splits, mergers, spin-offs of a business unit to another legally separate entity.

An "Inflation Replacement Event" is for example:

- A certain change to the relevant methodology.

- A split or spin-off with respect to the Fund.

A "Fund Replacement Event" is, for example, each of the following events:

- A material change with respect to the risk profile of the Fund Shares or the Fund.

- A material breach by the Fund or the respective Management Company of statutory or regulatory publication requirements.

Adjustments with regard to Currency Exchange Rates:

- A not only immaterial modification in the method of determination and/or publication of the relevant Currency Exchange Rates by the respective Fixing Sponsor.

Adjustments with regard to Debt Securities

In respect of Debt Securities, the Terms and Conditions may be adjusted in case of an Adjustment Event. An "Adjustment Event" in respect of a Debt Security is for example a Debt Security Replacement Event and any event which is economically equivalent to one of the above-mentioned events with regard to its consequences on the Debt Security.

A "Debt Security Replacement Event" is, for example, each of the following events:

- The termination of the Debt Security.
- The issuer of the Debt Security irreversibly converts the Debt Security into other securities.

Depending on the type of Underlying or Basket Component, the Terms and Conditions may provide for further adjustment or replacement related events. The Final Terms will specify the adjustment and/or replacement events applicable to the relevant Securities.

If the Calculation Agent determines an adjustment and/or replacement event, the Calculation Agent may adjust the Terms and Conditions (in particular, may adjust the Adjustable Product Data based on an adjustment factor specified in the Final Terms, for example the Ratio).

In addition, the Calculation Agent may make the following further adjustments depending on the respective type of Underlying or Basket Component and the applicable adjustment or replacement related event in accordance with the Terms and Conditions:

- The Calculation Agent may determine a Replacement Underlying or Basket Component and, if necessary, make further adjustments to the Terms and Conditions.
- The Calculation Agent may designate a Replacement Reference Market and, if necessary, make further adjustments to the Terms and Conditions.
- The Calculation Agent may redetermine a published NAV, Reference Price, or price of the Underlying or Basket Component if it is subsequently corrected (Replacement Specification).

The relevant Final Terms will specify which of the above measures may be performed by the Calculation Agent with respect to the relevant Securities. The Calculation Agent performs adjustments in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands). The Calculation Agent shall, if possible, ensure that the economic situation of the Security Holders remains unchanged.

Depending on the type of Underlying or Basket Component, the Terms and Conditions may provide for further adjustment or replacement related events. The Final Terms will specify the adjustment and/or replacement events applicable to the relevant Securities.

If the Calculation Agent determines an adjustment and/or replacement event, the Calculation Agent may adjust the Terms and Conditions (in particular may adjust the Adjustable Product Data based on an adjustment factor specified in the Final Terms, for example the Ratio).

In addition, the Calculation Agent may make the following further adjustments depending on the respective type of Underlying or Basket Component and the applicable adjustment or replacement related event in accordance with the Terms and Conditions:

- The Calculation Agent may determine a Replacement Underlying or Basket Component and, if necessary, make further adjustments to the Terms and Conditions.

- The Calculation Agent may designate a Replacement Reference Market and, if necessary, make further adjustments to the Terms and Conditions.
- The Calculation Agent may redetermine a published NAV, Reference Price, or price of the Underlying or Basket Component if it is subsequently corrected (Replacement Specification).
- The Calculation Agent may determine the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item again if it is subsequently corrected.

The relevant Final Terms will specify which of the above measures may be performed by the Calculation Agent with respect to the relevant Securities. The Calculation Agent performs adjustments in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands). The Calculation Agent shall, if possible, ensure that the economic situation of the Security Holders remains unchanged.

Adjustments with regard to Reference Rates

Adjustments may also occur with respect to Reference Rates (please see sub-section "Replacements relating to Reference Rates" in section "General Information On The Securities – Description of the rights arising from the Securities (including their limitation)" below).

Extraordinary Termination of the Securities by the Issuer

Upon the occurrence of one or more Call Events, the Issuer may extraordinarily terminate the Securities in accordance with the Terms and Conditions by payment of the Cancellation Amount.

The "Cancellation Amount" is the fair market value of the Securities on the tenth Banking Day or any other day specified in the Final Terms prior to the effective date of the extraordinary termination under then prevailing circumstances. The market value is determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands).

Depending on the type of Underlying or Basket Component, the following events may, for example, be considered as "Call Events":

- No suitable substitute for the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is available.
- The Reference Price is below a number of index points specified in the Final Terms.
- The occurrence of a Trigger Event, as defined in the relevant Index Description.
- Changes in the index concept made in accordance with the Index Description result in an application of the Underlying, as basis for calculations and determinations under the Terms and Conditions, being no longer reasonable with regard to the Calculation Agent, the Issuer and/or the Security Holders.
- Due to circumstances for which the Issuer is not responsible, the Issuer is no longer entitled to use the Underlying as basis for the calculations or, respectively, specifications described in the Terms and Conditions (an "Index Usage Event"); an Index Usage Event is also the termination of the license to use the Underlying due to an unacceptable increase in license fees.

- The trading of the Commodity on the respective Reference Market is suspended indefinitely or permanently discontinued and no suitable Replacement Reference Market is available or could be determined
- The quotation of the Commodity no longer occurs in the Underlying Currency or the Currency of the respective Basket Component.

Call Events with regard to the Reference Rate or the Risk Free Rate

- No suitable Replacement Reference Rate or Replacement RFR could be determined or is available.

Depending upon the type of Underlying or Basket Component further possible Call Events may be specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Final Terms will specify which of the above events will apply as Call Events to the respective Securities. The Calculation Agent determines the occurrence of a Call Event in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands).

Replacements relating to Reference Rates

In case of a Reference Rate Cessation Event, the Reference Rate may be replaced by an economically appropriate replacement reference rate determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Securities. In addition, the Calculation Agent may, if necessary, make further adjustments to the Terms and Conditions of the Securities and/or determine an interest rate adjustment factor or spread for the purpose of determining or calculating the Interest Rate or the Interest Amount.

"Reference Rate Cessation Event" means each of the following events:

- It becomes unlawful for the Issuer to use the Reference Rate or Risk Free Rate as the reference rate for the Securities.
- The Reference Rate-Administrator ceases to calculate and publish the Reference Rate on a permanent basis or for an indefinite period of time.

- The Reference Rate-Administrator becomes illiquid or an insolvency, bankruptcy, restructuring or similar procedure (regarding the administrator) has been set up by the administrator or the relevant supervisory authority.
- The Reference Rate or Risk Free Rate otherwise ceases to exist.
- The relevant central bank or a supervisory authority determines and publishes a statement that the relevant central bank or supervisory authority has determined that such Reference Rate or Risk Free Rate no longer represents the underlying market and economic reality that such Reference Rate or Risk Free Rate is intended to measure and that representativeness will not be restored.

Whether a Reference Rate Cessation Event occurs shall be determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands).

A Reference Rate Cessation Event may also result in a extraordinary call of the Securities by the Issuer. For example, a Reference Rate Call Event occurs if no suitable replacement reference rate is available (see sub-section "Extraordinary Termination of the Securities by the Issuer" above).

Security Holder's Redemption Right

In the case of Securities with a Redemption Right of the Security Holder, the Security Holder has the right to exercise the Securities and demand payment of the Redemption Amount on the respective Redemption Date, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Issuer's Regular Call Right

In the case of Securities with a Regular Call Right of the Issuer, the Issuer has the right to exercise the Securities and redeem the Securities on the respective Call Date by payment of the Redemption Amount, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Novation

The Final Terms may provide that in case of a Novation Event the redemption of the Securities shall be effected by payment of the Novation Amount instead of delivery of the Delivery Item (the "Novation").

The following events, for example, may be considered as "Novation Events":

Novation Event with regard to Shares as Delivery Item:

- Each measure taken by the company that has issued the Delivery Item or by a third party, which would – due to a change in the legal and financial position, in particular a change in the company's fixed assets and capital – affect the Delivery Item not only immaterially (in particular merger, liquidation, nationalisation).
- The quotation of the Delivery Item at the Relevant Exchange of the Delivery Item is finally ceased and no Substitute Exchange of the Delivery Item could be determined.
- The quotation of the Delivery Item at the Relevant Exchange of the Delivery Item no longer occurs in the Delivery Item Currency.

Novation Event with regard to Fund Shares as Delivery Item:

- Changes are made in any of the Fund Documents without the consent of the Calculation Agent which affect the ability of the Issuer to hedge its obligations under the Securities.
- Applications for the issuance, redemption or transfer of Fund Shares will not or only partially be executed.
- The issuance or redemption of Fund Shares is subject to fees, surcharges, discounts, levies, commissions, taxes or similar charges.

Novation Event with regard to Index Certificates as Delivery Item:

- For the delivery of the Delivery Item, additional fees, surcharges, discounts, levies, commissions, taxes or similar charges are charged compared to the First Trade Date.
- The Delivery Item has been terminated in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Delivery Item.

The Terms and Conditions of the Securities provide for other possible Novation Events. The events which are deemed to be Novation Events with respect to the respective Securities shall be specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Calculation Agent shall decide whether a Novation Event has occurred at its reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands).

Rescission by the Issuer / Corrections

Obvious typing and calculation errors or similar obvious errors in the Terms and Conditions of German law Securities entitle the Issuer to rescission vis-à-vis the Security Holders. The Issuer may combine the declaration of rescission with an offer to continue the Securities under amended Terms and Conditions.

Furthermore, the Issuer is entitled to correct or amend incomplete or inconsistent provisions in the Terms and Conditions in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB) (in case of German law Securities) or acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith (in case of Italian law Securities) or by using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith (in case of French law Securities) or, respectively, acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner (in case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands).

If in such case a Public Offer has not yet been closed or admission of the Securities for trading is planned, the Issuer will publish a corrected version of the Final Terms of the respective Securities and, if the legal requirements are fulfilled (in particular, a material inaccuracy of the Base Prospectus), publish in advance a supplement to the Registration Document and/or the Base Prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

Settlement Disruption

If a Fund Delivery Disturbance Event or any other event beyond the control of the Issuer results in the Issuer being unable to deliver the Underlying or Delivery Item pursuant to the Terms and Conditions (a "Transaction Disturbance"), the Calculation Agent may defer the delivery of the Underlying or Delivery Item. In such a case, the Security Holders are not entitled to any interest or other amounts. The Issuer may also redeem the Securities by payment of a cash amount. This cash amount will be determined on the basis of stock exchange or market prices and may deviate from the market value of the Underlying at the scheduled time of delivery.

Tax

Payments under the Securities will be made only after deduction and withholding of present or future taxes, to the extent that such deduction or withholding is required by law.

In this context, the term "Tax" includes taxes, levies and state fees of any kind that are levied under any applicable legal system or in any country claiming tax jurisdiction, by or on behalf of a territorial authority or authority of the country responsible for collecting the tax is authorized, imposed, collected or collected, including a withholding tax under Section 871 (m) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("871(m) Withholding Tax").

In any case, the Issuer is entitled to use the maximum applicable tax rate (plus value added tax if applicable) in respect of 871(m) Withholding Tax in connection with the Terms and Conditions. Under no circumstances will the Issuer be required to make any compensation in respect of any taxes deducted, withheld or otherwise claimed.

Presentation Period

The presentation period for German law securities provided for in § 801 (1) sentence 1 BGB (i.e. the extinction of a claim under the Securities) is reduced to ten years for the Securities.

In case of Italian law securities, the Securities will become void unless presented for payment within a period of ten years with respect to principal amounts and five years with respect to interest and/or any other remuneration payable under the Securities after the Relevant Date.

"Relevant Date" means the date on which such payment first becomes due, except that, if the full amount of the moneys payable has not been duly received by the Principal Paying Agent, as the case may be, on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which, the full amount of such moneys having been so received, notice to that effect is duly given to the Security Holders in accordance with Condition § 6 (Notices).

On-going costs and running costs

The Security Holder may also be subjected to linearly accrued costs ("running costs") and, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, such time-amortized costs may be applied either in substitution for, or in addition to, any one off costs or recurring costs which follow non-linear application profiles over the life of the Securities. In particular, these running costs (i) will be applied by the Issuer during the life of the Securities; (ii) will not be affected in any way by the performance of the relevant underlying; (iii) will accrue over time on a linear basis from the Issue Date until the maturity of the Securities - consequently, such costs will impact on the Security Holders only for the period during which they hold the Securities and (iv) will be charged to the relevant Security Holder in an amount equal to the costs cumulatively accrued over its holding period, being embedded in the bid price on the Security in secondary market.

Waiver Right

If specified in the relevant Final Terms, each Security Holder has the right to waive the automatic exercise of the exercise right of the Securities held by it by submission of a duly completed waiver notice.

Governing law of the Securities

The Securities, as to form and content, and all rights and obligations of the Issuer and the Security Holder may either be governed by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany, by the laws of the Republic of Italy, French law or the laws of the Netherlands, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Status of the Securities, Ranking in case of a resolution of the Issuer

Status

In the case of the Base Prospectus I, the following applies:

The Securities constitute direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer. The Securities rank pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated present and future obligations of the Issuer. Exception: Obligations which have a preference or subordination under the law.

In the case of the Base Prospectus II, the following applies:

The obligations of the Issuer under the Securities constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer, ranking (subject to any obligations preferred by any applicable law (also subject to the bail-in instruments as implemented under Italian law)) pari passu with all other unsecured obligations (other than obligations ranking junior to the senior notes from time to time (including non-preferred senior notes and any further obligations permitted by law to rank junior to the senior notes following the Issue Date), if any) of the Issuer, present and future and, in the case of the senior notes, pari passu and rateably without any preference among themselves.

Ranking in case of a resolution of an Issuer

With respect to the Base Prospectus I, the following applies:

The recovery and resolution laws applicable to the Issuer comprising the

- Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 ("SRM") and Directive 2014/59/EU of 15 May 2014 ("BRRD"),
- the Restructuring and Resolution Act (Sanierungs- und Abwicklungsgesetz – "SAG") implementing the BRRD, and
- the German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz – "KWG")

(the "Recovery and Resolution Laws") provide for regulatory requirements and administrative powers for the restructuring and resolution of a credit institution and their groups (the "Institutions").

According to the SRM and the SAG, shareholders and creditors, which have purchased financial instruments issued by those Institutions, may participate in an Institution's losses and the costs of the resolution; so-called instruments of creditor participation (Gläubigerbeteiligung).

This means, that the Securities of the Issuer, as an Institution, are also subject to the instrument of creditor participation.

The prerequisites for a resolution are met under the Recovery and Resolution Laws, when the relevant resolution authority (for example, BaFin in Germany) makes the following determinations:

- that the Issuer is failing or likely to fail,
- that in order to achieve one or more resolution objectives, exercising a resolution measure is necessary and proportionate,
- that the failure of the Issuer cannot be remedied within the given timeframe with any other measure.

If, according to the determinations of the relevant resolution authority, these prerequisites are met with regard to an Institution, the resolution authority can – even before the insolvency of the Institution – undertake comprehensive measures, which can be detrimental to creditors (such as the Security Holders). The resolution authority can, for example, transfer shares in the Institution or parts or the entirety of the assets of the Institution, including its liabilities, to a bridge institution, an asset management company or another suitable third party and thereby compromise the Institution's ability to honour its payment and delivery obligations towards the creditors of the financial instruments it has issued – and therefore towards the Security Holders of the Securities issued by the Issuer.

Furthermore, in accordance with the Recovery and Resolution Laws the resolution authority is entitled to write down the claims of holders of unsecured Securities of the Issuer described in this Securities Note partially or completely or to convert them into equity (stock or other forms of shares) in the Issuer (so-called bail-in) in order to stabilise the Issuer as an Institution.

The resolution authority can also suspend the payment and delivery obligations of the Issuer as an Institution, e.g. resulting from the Terms and Conditions towards the Security Holders. Furthermore, the resolution authority can suspend the option of the Security Holders to exercise any termination or any similar rights (Gestaltungsrechte) according to the Terms and Conditions of the Securities. The suspension takes effect until the end of the banking day following the publication of the resolution order. Under certain circumstances, the resolution authority can also amend contractual provisions regarding the obligations of the Institution. The amendment can in particular include the Terms and Conditions of the Securities issued by the Issuer. The resolution authority can also order the cancellation or suspension of security trading of the Issuer on a regulated market or the listing.

If a resolution authority takes a measure in accordance with the SAG, the Security Holder is not entitled based on this measure alone, to terminate the Securities or to exercise other contractual rights. This restriction applies as long as the Issuer as an Institution is still performing its main obligations resulting from the Terms and Conditions, including its payment and delivery obligations.

For the purposes of a bail-in, the claims of the creditors of the Issuer as an Institution, like the holders of the unsecured Securities of the Issuer described in this Securities Note, will be divided into several groups and will participate according to a fixed ranking (the "Liability Cascade").

As the first in the Liability Cascade, owners of the Issuer as an Institution (i.e. holders of stock and other shares) must be held liable. Then the creditors of Additional Tier 1 instruments or of Tier 2 instruments and creditors of unsecured subordinated liabilities (this includes for example subordinated loans and participation rights) of the Issuer are affected.

The next category consists of unsecured, unsubordinated liabilities which also includes debt liabilities such as bearer bonds and, in respect of Germany, order bonds (Orderschuldverschreibungen), registered bonds (Namensschuldverschreibungen) and Schuldscheindarlehen. Exception: covered deposits or indemnifiable (entschädigungsfähig) deposits.

Within this category, there are non-structured debt instruments which get assigned a lower ranking in case of insolvency proceedings than other unsecured, unsubordinated liabilities. The lower ranking can be based on statutory regulation or an explicit provision by the borrower in the terms. These so-called non-preferred debt instruments rank above the other unsecured, unsubordinated liabilities pursuant to the Liability Cascade.

With respect to the Base Prospectus II, the following applies:

The recovery and resolution laws applicable to the Issuer comprising the

- Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 ("SRM") and Directive 2014/59/EU of 15 May 2014 ("BRRD"), and
- the Legislative Decree No 193 of 8 November 2021 implementing the BRRD

(the "Recovery and Resolution Laws") provide for regulatory requirements and administrative powers for the restructuring and resolution of a credit institution and their groups (the "Institutions").

According to the SRM, shareholders and creditors, which have purchased financial instruments issued by those Institutions, may participate in an Institution's losses and the costs of the resolution; so-called instruments of creditor participation.

This means, that the Securities of the Issuer, as an Institution, are also subject to the instrument of creditor participation.

The prerequisites for a resolution are met under the Recovery and Resolution Laws, when the relevant resolution authority makes the following determinations:

- that the Issuer is failing or likely to fail,
- that in order to achieve one or more resolution objectives, exercising a resolution measure is necessary and proportionate,
- that the failure of the Issuer cannot be remedied within the given timeframe with any other measure.

If, according to the determinations of the relevant resolution authority, these prerequisites are met with regard to an Institution, the resolution authority can – even before the insolvency of the Institution – undertake comprehensive measures, which can be detrimental to creditors (such as the Security Holders). The resolution authority can, for example, transfer shares in the Institution or parts or the entirety of the assets of the Institution, including its liabilities, to a bridge institution, an asset management company or another suitable third party and thereby compromise the Institution's ability to honour its payment and delivery obligations towards the creditors of the financial instruments it has issued – and therefore towards the Security Holders of the Securities issued by the Issuer.

Furthermore, in accordance with the Recovery and Resolution Laws the resolution authority is entitled to write down the claims of holders of unsecured Securities of the respective Issuer described in the Securities Note partially or completely or to convert them into equity (stock or other forms of shares) in the Issuer (so-called bail-in) in order to stabilise the Issuer as an Institution.

The resolution authority can also suspend the payment and delivery obligations of the respective Issuer as an Institution, e.g. resulting from the Terms and Conditions towards the Security Holders. Furthermore, the resolution authority can suspend the option of the Security Holders to exercise any termination or any similar rights according to the Terms and Conditions of the Securities. The suspension takes effect until the end of the banking day following the publication of the resolution order. Under certain circumstances, the resolution authority can also amend contractual provisions regarding the obligations of the Institution. The amendment can in particular include the Terms and Conditions of the Securities issued by the Issuer. The resolution authority can also order the cancellation or suspension of security trading of the Issuer on a regulated market or the listing.

For the purposes of a bail-in, the claims of the creditors of the Issuer as an Institution, like the holders of the unsecured Securities of the Issuer described in the Securities Note, will be divided into several groups and will participate according to a fixed ranking (the "Liability Cascade").

As the first in the Liability Cascade, owners of the Issuer as an Institution (i.e. holders of stock and other shares) must be held liable. Then the creditors of Additional Tier 1 instruments or of Tier 2 instruments and creditors of unsecured subordinated liabilities (this includes for example subordinated loans and participation rights) of the Issuer are affected.

The next category consists of unsecured, unsubordinated liabilities which also includes debt liabilities such as bearer bonds.

Within this category, there are non-structured debt instruments which get assigned a lower ranking in case of insolvency proceedings than other unsecured, unsubordinated liabilities. The lower ranking can be based on statutory regulation or an explicit provision by the borrower in the terms. These so-called non-preferred debt instruments rank above the other unsecured, unsubordinated liabilities pursuant to the Liability Cascade.

With respect to both Base Prospectuses, the following applies:

The Securities described in this Securities Note rank below the non-preferred debt instruments pursuant to the Liability Cascade. Accordingly, in the case of a bail-in, you will be impacted only after the holders of these non-preferred debt instruments.

Quanto and Compo elements

Non-Quanto Securities are Securities where the Underlying Currency or the Currency of the Basket Components is the same as the Specified Currency. Quanto Securities are Securities where the Underlying Currency is not the same as the Specified Currency and where a currency protection element is provided. In the case of Quanto Securities, one unit of the Underlying Currency or the Currency of the Basket Component is equal to one unit of the Specified Currency. In the case of Quanto Securities with cash settlement or physical delivery, the Ratio and, where applicable, the Supplemental Cash Amount will be increased or reduced prior to delivery in accordance with the development of the foreign exchange rates in order to offset any exchange losses or gains during the term of the Securities.

Compo Securities are Securities where the Underlying Currency is not the same as the Specified Currency and no currency protection element is provided. In the case of Compo Securities, the Redemption Amount is converted into the Specified Currency before payment is made using the exchange rate (FX). The Security Holder therefore bears the entire exchange rate risk during the term of the Securities.

Conversion Factor

The price of the Underlying or a Basket Component may be converted by a Conversion Factor (the "Conversion Factor") from the main unit into the fractional unit of the Underlying Currency or Currency of the Basket Component (e.g. conversion from cents to euro or from pence to pound in case of a share as an Underlying or a Basket Component).

Representative of Security Holders

There shall be no representative of the Security Holders.

Payments

Under the Securities, payments of the Issuer to the Security Holders are made as follows: All payments shall be calculated by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. The Issuer then pays the amounts due to the Principal Paying Agent (see sub-section "Agents" in the section "General Information"). The Principal Paying Agent shall pay the amounts due to the Clearing System (see sub-section "Clearing System" in the section "General Information"). The Clearing System credits these payments to the respective accounts of the depository banks. The depository banks then credit the payments to the respective accounts of the Security Holders. The payment to the Clearing System will discharge the Issuer from its obligations under the Securities in the amount of such a payment.

Information regarding certain Sustainability Criteria

1. General Information

As part of its sustainability strategy, HVB has introduced an ESG-Strategy in Structured Investment Products (the "Sustainability Guidelines")⁸. The Sustainability Guidelines define self-binding sustainability criteria with regard to the Issuer and the Underlyings or Basket Components of the Securities. Securities in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines are referred to in the Sustainability Guidelines as 'structured securities with sustainability characteristics'.

Under this Base Prospectus also UniCredit may offer Securities in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines (structured securities with sustainability characteristics) and will in this case apply the Sustainability Guidelines mutatis mutandis.

For the avoidance of doubt, the offer of Securities under this Securities Note as structured securities with sustainability characteristics does not involve a specific use of the proceeds for sustainable purposes.

The structured securities with sustainability characteristics are not classified as securities with sustainability characteristics in accordance with statutory law (e.g. the EU Taxonomy Regulation⁹).

2. Information on the Sustainability Guidelines

The Sustainability Guidelines are internal guidelines of HVB which are not subject to any statutory requirements and are not reviewed or approved by any regulatory authority. However, the Sustainability Guidelines represent internal self-binding guidelines that require consistent observance if Securities are offered in accordance with them.

The Sustainability Guidelines take into account industry standards for securitised derivatives, such as the sustainability concept of various associations of the German banking industry¹⁰ ("Associations Concept") and the Sustainable Finance Code of Conduct ("Sustainability Code") of the German Structured Securities Association (Bundesverband für strukturierte Wertpapiere e.V., BSW ("BSW")), formerly known as German Derivatives Association (Deutscher Derivate Verband, DDV).¹¹

The classification of the Securities on the basis of sustainability criteria is still at an early stage of development and in ongoing coordination between associations and the supervisory authorities. These will be taken into account as part of the adjustments / further developments of the current Associations Concept and HVB's product strategy. In addition, further adjustments may become necessary in the context of current or future legislative procedures. The Sustainability Guidelines are consequently subject to further development and may be subject to future amendments.

The Sustainability Guidelines require that the following sustainability criteria are met with regard to both, the Issuer and the respective Underlying or Basket Component, as the case may be:

a) Sustainability criteria relating to the Issuer

- Consideration of the United Nations Global Compact

The Issuer has to take into account the United Nations Global Compact ("UN Global Compact")¹².

As part of the UniCredit Group, the Issuer has joined the UN Global Compact and, by joining, commits itself to comply with a set of ten core values if within its control.

The ten core values of the UN Global Compact can be categorised as "human rights", "labour standards", "environment" and "prevention of corruption". These include, for example, supporting and respecting the protection of international human rights, advocating for the elimination of all forms of forced labour, taking initiatives to promote greater environmental awareness and working against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

- Consideration of the United Nations Principles for Responsible Banking

In addition, the Issuer has to take into account the United Nations Principles for Responsible Banking ("UN PRB")¹³.

UniCredit Group participated in the launch of the UN PRB in 2019 and became a member of the initial signatories.

The six principles of the UN PRB include: "Alignment", "Impact and Target Setting", "Clients and Consumers", "Stakeholders", "Governance and Culture" and "Transparency and Accountability".

Reporting on UniCredit Group's commitment and progress in implementing the UN PRB takes the form of a specific report ("Principles for Responsible Banking Report") based on the UN Environment Programme Financial Initiative template (UNEP FI template) for reporting and self-assessment. This Principles for Responsible Banking Report is regularly audited by an external auditor and published on the UniCredit Group website.¹⁴

- Status as sustainability company

The Issuer or UniCredit Group shall achieve the status as a sustainable company with at least one recognised rating agency.

UniCredit Group has been rated as a sustainable company by different rating agencies.¹⁵

- Consideration of Principal Adverse Impacts

The Issuer is required to consider the principal adverse impacts ("PAI") on certain sustainability factors at company's level. The consideration of PAIs does not focus on the promotion of a particular environmental goal or social objective, but rather on preventing damages, to the extent possible, in relation to, inter alia, one or more of the following sustainability indicators:

- carbon emissions (broken down by scope 1, 2 and 3 carbon emissions),
- biodiversity and ecosystem preservation practices,
- violations of UN Global Compact principles and OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises,

- exposure to controversial weapons (anti-personnel mines, cluster munitions, chemical weapons and biological weapons).

The PAIs to be considered have been determined in accordance with the Sustainability Code. They are not based on any statutory sustainability requirements (e.g. the EU Taxonomy Regulation).

b) Sustainability criteria relating to the Underlying

Depending on its type (e.g. single share, share basket, index, fund, fund index, interest rate or currency), the respective Underlying or Basket Component, as the case may be, shall meet certain criteria set out in the Sustainability Guidelines. In particular, this means that the corporations eligible as issuer of the respective Underlying or Basket Component stand out from other corporations in a clearly defined way with regard to ESG factors. Certain corporations are excluded as issuer, including:

- companies that exceed a certain threshold regarding the production and / or distribution of defence equipment ($\geq 5\%$ of turnover),
- companies that exceed a certain threshold regarding the production of coal ($> 0\%$ of turnover) or a certain threshold regarding the energy production from coal ($\geq 5\%$ of turnover),
- companies that produce or distribute nuclear or controversial weapons,
- companies that commit serious violations of the UN Global Compact or OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises.

Until a common market standard is established, no commodity (spot, future, future index) qualifies as an underlying for structured securities with sustainability characteristics.

In the event that one or more of these criteria cease to apply in relation to the Issuer or the respective Underlying or Basket Component, the Securities may not be offered in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines. Securities that have already been offered as structured securities with sustainability characteristics in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines will no longer be considered as such.

3. Identification of the Securities

Product-specific information on whether the Securities are offered as structured securities with sustainability characteristics in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines can be found on the relevant website of the Issuer www.onemarkets.de (for investors in the Federal Republic of Germany and Luxembourg), www.onemarkets.at (for investors in Austria), www.onemarkets.bg (for investors in Bulgaria), www.onemarkets.hr (for investors in Croatia), www.onemarkets.cz (for investors in the Czech Republic), www.bourse.unicredit.fr (for investors in France), www.onemarkets.gr (for investors in Greece), www.onemarkets.hu (for investors in Hungary), www.investimenti.unicredit.it (for investors in Italy), www.onemarkets.pl (for investors in Poland), www.bolsa.unicredit.pt (for investors in Portugal), www.onemarkets.ro (for investors in Romania), www.bolsa.unicredit.es (for investors in Spain) and www.onemarkets.sk (for investors in the Slovak Republic) (under the respective product details which can be found by entering the respective ISIN of the Securities in the search function). In this case, the Issuer will specify "C" with respect to the sustainability preferences in the product data on the website.

A classification of the Securities as structured securities with sustainability characteristics in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines is performed in relation to the Issuer as well as in relation to the respective Underlying or Basket Component, as the case may be, based on the sustainability analysis undertaken in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines. Thereby the Issuer may also rely on the sustainability analysis of third parties.

In order to comply with the above-mentioned Sustainability Code, the Issuer focuses on investment products according to the BSW product classification when offering as structured securities with sustainability characteristics. Therefore, leveraged Securities and Securities that profit from a downward movement of the Underlying or Basket Component, as the case may be (also called reverse securities), are excluded from being offered in accordance with the Sustainability Guidelines. Consequently, the following product may not be offered as such:

GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE SECURITIES

- All Securities that are issued as Short Securities pursuant to this Securities Note;
- All Securities with a participation in the performance of the Underlying or a single Basket Component higher than 1:1;
- Twin Win Securities; and
- Twin Win Securities with Multi-Underlying.

INFORMATION ON THE OFFER AND THE ADMISSION TO TRADING

Method and time limits for paying up and for delivery of the Securities

In case of Securities governed by German law and issued in a Global Note form, the Securities are delivered in terms of co-ownership interests in the Global Note which will be kept in custody.

In case of Securities governed by German law and issued as electronic Securities in a Central Register Securities form, the Securities are delivered in terms of co-ownership interests in the electronic security registered with the relevant Registrar as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

In case of Securities governed by Italian law, the Securities are delivered in terms of ownership of an account held with an account holder which is an intermediary opening an account with and adhering to the Clearing System.

Delivery is provided for against payment or free of payment or any other delivery method as specified in the Final Terms.

Any time limits for paying up the Securities will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Issue Price

If the Issue Price per Security is determined prior to the start of the Public Offer, it will be set out in the Final Terms.

If the Issue Price per Security is determined after the start of the Public Offer, the Final Terms will specify that it will be determined by the Issuer on the basis of the product parameters and the current market situation (in particular the price of the Underlying, the implied volatility, interest rates, dividend expectations and lending fees). In this case, the Issue Price will be published after its specification on the website(s) as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Pricing

In case the Securities are offered without a Subscription Period, the Issue Price per Security will regularly be specified in the Final Terms.

In case the Securities are offered during a Subscription Period, the Issue Price determined by the Issuer will apply to all Securities subscribed during the Subscription Period and allocated after the end of the Subscription Period. The Issue Price per Security will be specified in the Final Terms.

In case the Issue Price per Security is not yet determined at the time of the issuance of the Securities or cannot be specified in the Final Terms for any other reason, the Issue Price per Security will be determined by the Issuer on the basis of the product parameters and the current market situation (in particular the price of the Underlying, the implied volatility, interest rates, dividend expectations and lending fees). The Issue Price and the continuous offer price of the Securities will be published by the Issuer after their determination in accordance with the Final Terms.

The Issue Price as well as the bid and offer prices quoted by the Issuer during the term of the Securities are based on internal pricing models of the Issuer. They may contain, beside upfront and placement commissions, an expected margin for the Issuer. Generally, the margin may contain costs, which, e.g., cover the Issuer's costs for structuring the Securities, risk hedging of the Issuer and the distribution.

The placement commissions are indicated in the respective Final Terms as a fixed amount of the Issue Price, or as an amount within a range or as a maximum amount only. The Issuer may also indicate a placement commission equal to one fixed amount referring to a certain number of Securities to be placed, providing that such commission may vary up to a maximum amount, based on prevailing market conditions, in the event that the aggregate number of Securities placed at the end of the Offer Period were higher or less than the amount indicated in the Final Terms.

When the placement commissions are not expressed as a fixed amount, the final amount will be communicated to the public by way of a notice published on the Issuer's website specified in the respective Final Terms at the end of the Offer Period.

Selling concessions or other commissions

Selling concessions or other commissions may be charged as set out in the Final Terms.

In the case of Securities offered to Italian consumers the Final Terms will also state the presumable value at which the Security Holders may liquidate the Securities in the case of divestment the day after the Issue Date.

Placing and Distribution

The Securities may be distributed by the Issuer or through financial intermediaries as agreed between the Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary and as stated in the applicable Final Terms.

Under the Base Prospectus, the Issuer may from time to time issue Securities to one or more financial intermediaries acting as a distributor (each a "Distributor" and together the "Distributors") as set out in the Final Terms. The Distributors may underwrite the Securities with a firm underwriting commitment or place the Securities without a firm underwriting commitment or under a best efforts arrangement as agreed in a subscription agreement.

If applicable, the relevant Final Terms may indicate further details on (i) the name and address of the coordinator(s) of the global offer and of single parts of the offer (the "Manager") and, to the extent known to the Issuer, of the placers in the various countries where the offer takes place (the "Placers") and (ii) the entities agreeing to underwrite the issue on a firm commitment basis, or to place the issue without a firm commitment or under 'best efforts' arrangements.

If applicable, the relevant Final Terms will (i) indicate the material features of the underwriting agreements, including the quotas, (ii) where not all of the issue is underwritten, a statement of the portion not covered and (iii) the date of the relevant underwriting agreement.

In the case of Securities offered to Italian consumers, the Issuer or the Distributor is the intermediary responsible for the placement of the Securities ('Responsabile del Collocamento'), as defined in article 93-bis of the Italian Legislative Decree 24 February 1998, n. 58 (as subsequently amended and supplemented).

In the case of the Base Prospectus II, also the following applies:

HVB, Arabellastraße 12, 81925 Munich, Germany, may operate as the sole Distributor of the Securities (as defined below). Therefore, the Issuer may grant a mandate relating to the Securities by way of transmission of a confirmation prepared for the purposes of the individual offering of the Securities under the Master Agreement for Intragroup Services and Certificate Distribution between UniCredit and HVB dated 31 March 2021 (the "Master Agreement").

Under the terms of the Master Agreement, HVB is authorized to enter into one or more master agreements with third party sub-distributors or underwriting and/or distribution agreements and/or firm commitment agreements relating to the Securities (the "Distribution Agreements"). In this context, HVB may also appoint sub-distributors in accordance with Distribution Agreements existing prior to the date of the Master Agreement. In such event, in relation to each individual offering and in accordance with the terms of the relative Distribution Agreement, any sub-distributors appointed by HVB shall act as sub-distributors of the Securities.

HVB is also authorized to enter into one or more purchase and resale agreements with third party purchasers (the "Purchase and Resale Agreements"). In this case, the relevant third-party purchaser purchases and subscribes the Securities in its own name and for its own account and intends to subsequently offer, distribute or resell the Securities. HVB may also appoint third party purchasers in accordance with Purchase and Resale Agreements existing prior to the date of the Master Agreement.

Admission to Trading and listing of the Securities

Application may be made for the Securities issued under the Programme to be listed on the following regulated markets:

- Regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange;
- Euronext Paris,

or on any other regulated market (as contemplated by Directive 2014/65/EU) specified in the relevant Final Terms. In addition, the relevant Final Terms will specify all the regulated or other equivalent markets, on which, to the knowledge of the Issuer, securities of the same class of securities are already admitted to trading.

Application may be made for the Securities issued under the Programme to be admitted to listing on the official list of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, including the professional segment of the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

The Issuer may also make an application to listing or trading of the Securities on another stock exchange (including any professional segment thereof), another market and/or trading system (including a multi-lateral trading facility). In this case, the Final Terms may indicate the respective other stock exchange, other market and/or other trading system and the earliest date (if known) on which the Securities are or will likely be listed or traded on.

The Securities may also be issued without being admitted to trading, listed or traded on any regulated or other equivalent market, any other stock exchange, any other market and/or trading system.

Even if the Issuer makes such application there is no guarantee that this application will be granted or that an active trading will occur or develop. Furthermore, in case of an Admission to Trading may only be single-sided (bid or ask prices).

The Issuer can engage one of its affiliates or another third party to provide liquidity in secondary trading for the relevant Security (Market Making). The Issuer may also act itself as Market Maker. There is however no obligation to do so. The Market Maker, Liquidity Provider, Specialist, Liquidity Contributor, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will, in accordance with the relevant rules of the respective trading markets, regularly submit bid and ask prices (purchase and selling prices) during the normal trading hours for the Securities under normal market conditions. If the Issuer engages intermediaries in secondary trading, the names and addresses of these institutions will be set out in the Final Terms. This information will only be given if intermediaries engage in secondary trading on the basis of a binding commitment. The publication in the Final Terms then describes the main conditions for the intermediary's commitment.

Potential investors

The Securities may be offered to qualified investors and/or retail investors and/or institutional investors as stated in the Final Terms.

If the offer is being made simultaneously in the markets of two or more countries and if a tranche has been or is being reserved for certain of these, such information will be given in the Final Terms.

Terms and conditions of the offer

If applicable, the following details regarding the terms and conditions of the offer will be indicated in the Final Terms:

- (i) day of the first public offer;
- (ii) start of the new public offer;
- (iii) information about the continuance of a public offer of Securities which have already been issued;
- (iv) information about the increase of Securities which have already been issued;
- (v) information about the manner and date in which results of the offer are to be made public;
- (vi) a subscription period;
- (vii) a minimum subscription amount;
- (viii) a maximum subscription amount;
- (ix) the country(ies) where the offer(s) to the public takes place;
- (x) smallest transferable and/or tradable unit or amount;
- (xi) the conditions for the offer of the Securities;
- (xii) possibility of an early termination or withdrawal of the public offer;
- (xiii) the condition for the offer in relation to an admission for trading prior to the Issue Date;
- (xiv) information on a consumer withdrawal right;
- (xv) MiFID II product governance / target market;

- (xvi) prohibition of sales to EEA retail investors;
- (xvii) information on the prices at which a continuous offer will be made.

Offer during a subscription period

The Securities may be offered to the public during a Subscription Period. For the purpose of acquisition, a potential investor has to make a subscription order to be forwarded to the Issuer during the Subscription Period. If specified in the Final Terms, the Securities may be offered continuously thereafter. The Issuer reserves the right to extend or shorten the subscription period or to withdraw the issue prior to the Issue Date during the Subscription Period for any reason. The Issuer has the right to accept, reject or reduce the subscription orders of potential investors in whole or in part, irrespective of whether or not the intended volume of the Securities to be placed is reached. The Issuer has the right to make allocations at its own discretion; whether and to what extent the Issuer exercises such right is subject to its own discretion. Potential investors who made purchase offers in the form of subscription orders may presumably be informed by the Issuer from the first Banking Day onwards following the end of the Subscription Period on the number of Securities allocated to them. Trading in the Securities may start prior to the notification of the allocation. If applicable, the relevant Final Terms will also contain a description of the manner for refunding amounts paid in excess by applicants.

In the case of Securities being offered to Italian consumers, the Final Terms may specify that subscription orders are subject to revocation rights applicable to the "door to door selling" and the "long distance technique selling" and the conditions of such revocation right.

Method for calculating the yield

MiFID II Product Governance

MiFID II product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Securities may include a legend entitled "MiFID II Product Governance" which may outline the target market assessment in respect of the Securities and which channels for distribution of the Securities are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Securities (a "Distributor") should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a Distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Securities (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the "MiFID Product Governance Rules"), any dealer subscribing for any Securities is a manufacturer in respect of such Securities, but otherwise neither the arranger nor the dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

Prohibition of sales to EEA retail investors

If the Final Terms in respect of any Securities includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors", the Securities are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area ("EEA"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU ("MiFID II"); (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2016/97/EU ("IDD"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as amended (the "PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Securities or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Securities or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

Publications after completed issuance of the Securities

The Issuer will not publish any information about the Securities and the relevant Underlying or the Basket Components, as the case may be, after issuing the Securities. Exemption: The Terms and Conditions provide for the publication of a notice in certain situations. For example, in cases where an Adjustment Event occurs. In these situations, the publication will take place pursuant to § 6 of the General Conditions to the Securities of the websites set forth in the Final Terms. The Issuer is entitled to replace these websites by a corresponding successor website communicated pursuant to § 6 of the General Conditions to the Securities. The Issuer will publish significant new factors, material mistakes or important new circumstances or material inaccuracies with regard to the information contained in the Base Prospectus. The publication will be made in a supplement to the Registration Document and or the Base Prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES

A. SECURITIES WITH SINGLE-UNDERLYING

1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PRODUCT TYPES WITH SINGLE UNDERLYING

1.1. Product Type 1: Protect Securities

General

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subtype 1 – Top Securities

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the price of the Underlying falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls.

Subtype 2 – Bonus Double Participation Securities

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the price of the Underlying falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls.

Subtype 3 – Power Securities

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the price of the Underlying falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Shares, Indices, Fund Shares, Commodities, Debt Securities or Currency Exchange Rates.

Protect Securities linked to Shares or Fund Shares may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery. However, Bonus Double Participation Securities and Securities linked to Group Shares are always issued as Securities with Cash Settlement.

Interest

The Securities do not bear interest.

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

Provided that no Call Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date as follows:

Subtype 1 – Top Securities

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If R (final) is equal to or higher than the Strike, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.
- If R (final) is lower than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

In the case of Securities with Cash Settlement, the following applies:

Option B1:

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. With respect to the determination of the Redemption Amount.

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the Performance of the Underlying (final).

Option B2:

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount corresponding to the value of the fraction of the Underlying.

With respect to the determination of the Performance of the Underlying (final) one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Option 1:

Performance of the Underlying (final) = $R(\text{final}) / R(\text{initial})$

Option 2:

Performance of the Underlying (final) = $R(\text{final}) / \text{Strike}$

Subtype 2 – Bonus Double Participation Securities

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If $R(\text{final})$ is equal to or higher than the Final Redemption Level, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the number one (1). The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor Up with a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing a difference by $R(\text{initial})$. The difference will be calculated by subtracting $R(\text{initial})$ from $R(\text{final})$.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be lower than the Bonus Amount and not higher than the Maximum Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

- If $R(\text{final})$ is lower than the Final Redemption Level, the Redemption Amount will be determined as follows:
 - If $R(\text{final})$ is equal to or higher than the Strike, the Redemption Amount corresponds to Bonus Amount.
 - If $R(\text{final})$ is lower than the Strike, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the number one (1). The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor Down with a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing a difference by $R(\text{initial})$. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the Strike from $R(\text{final})$.

Subtype 3 – Power Securities

With respect to the determination of the Redemption Amount the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- If $R(\text{final})$ is equal to or higher than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

Option A1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the Strike Level. The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor with a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the Strike Level from a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing $R(\text{final})$ by $R(\text{initial})$.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Maximum Amount, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option A2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the Strike Level. The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor Up with a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the Strike Level from a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing R (final) by R (initial).

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Maximum Amount, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option A3:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting a product from 100%. The product will be calculated by multiplying a difference with the Airbag Leverage. The difference is formed by subtracting a quotient from the Airbag Level. The quotient is formed by dividing (i) R (final) by (ii) R (initial).

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Maximum Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

- If R (final) is lower than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:
 - If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Strike.

- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

In the case of Securities with Cash Settlement, the following applies:

Option B1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing R (final) by R (initial).

Option B2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a product. The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor Down with a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing R (final) by R (initial).

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery, the following applies:

Option B3:

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount corresponding to the value of the fraction of the Underlying.

For further information on the Barrier Observation, see section "A.5 Barrier Observation" below.

Automatic Exercise

The Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

- If R (final) is lower than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity of the Delivery Item to be delivered is equal to the Ratio which is calculated by dividing the Redemption Amount (Knock-out) by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item (= Reference Price of the Delivery Item (final)). Expressed with a formula that means:

$$\text{Ratio} = \frac{\text{Redemption Amount (Knock-out)}}{\text{Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item}}$$

The Redemption Amount (Knock-out) is equal to the product of the Nominal Amount or Calculation Amount and a quotient. The quotient is formed by dividing the Final Reference Price by the Strike. Expressed with a formula, that means:

If the Ratio contains a fraction, the Security Holder will additionally receive a Supplemental Cash Amount instead of the not delivered fractions of the Delivery Item.

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum is formed by adding a product to one (1). The product is formed by multiplying the Participation Factor with a quotient. The quotient is formed by dividing a difference by the Initial Reference Price. The difference is formed by subtracting the Strike from the Final Reference Price.

Subtype 2 – Sprint Barrier Securities

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the price of the Underlying falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Shares, Indices, Fund Shares, Commodities, Debt Securities or Currency Exchange Rates.

Sprint Securities linked to Shares or Fund Shares may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery. However, Sprint Barrier Securities and Securities linked to Group Shares are always issued as Securities with Cash Settlement.

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

Provided that no Call Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date as follows:

Subtype 1 – Sprint Securities

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If R (final) is equal to or higher than R (initial), the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

Option A1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to a sum multiplied by the Ratio. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the Strike. The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor with a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the Strike from R (final).

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Maximum Amount, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option A2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the Strike Level. The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor with a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the Strike Level from the Performance of the Underlying (final).

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Maximum Amount, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

- If R (final) is lower than R (initial), Securities will be redeemed as follows:

In the case of Securities with Cash Settlement, the following applies:

Option B1:

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery, the following applies:

Option B3:

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount corresponding to the value of the fraction of the Underlying.

Subtype 2 – Sprint Barrier Securities

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the Performance of the Underlying (final) and the Participation Factor.

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount will be determined as follows:
 - If the Performance of the Underlying (final) is equal to or higher than the Final Strike Level, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the product of (i) the Calculation Amount and (ii) the sum of the Strike Level Up and a product. The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor Up with a difference. Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

Provided that no Call Event or Early Redemption Event if applicable, has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date as follows:

Subtype 1 – Reverse Convertible Securities

- If R (final) is equal to or higher than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.

- If R (final) is lower than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

In the case of Securities with Cash Settlement, the following applies:

Option B1:

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of R (final) divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount.

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of the Underlying, the following applies:

Option B2:

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount corresponding to the value of the fraction of the Underlying.

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of the Delivery Item, the following applies:

Option B3:

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity of the Delivery Item to be delivered is equal to the Ratio which is calculated by dividing the Redemption Amount (Knock-out) by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item (= Reference Price of the Delivery Item (final)). Expressed with a formula that means:

The Redemption Amount (Knock-out) is equal to the product of the Nominal Amount or Calculation Amount and a quotient. The quotient is formed by dividing the Final Reference Price by the Strike. Expressed with a formula, that means:

If the Ratio contains a fraction, the Security Holder will additionally receive a Supplemental Cash Amount instead of the not delivered fractions of the Delivery Item.

If a Novation Event occurs, the Security Holder will receive a Novation Amount which is equal to the Redemption Amount (Knock-out) instead of the Delivery Item.

Subtype 2 – Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. With respect to the determination of the Redemption Amount, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Option A1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.

Option A2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.

- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

In the case of Securities with Cash Settlement, the following applies:

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. With respect to the determination of the Redemption Amount, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Option B1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of R (final) divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option B2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting a product from 100%. The product will be calculated by multiplying a difference with the Airbag Leverage. The difference is formed by subtracting a quotient from the Airbag Level. The quotient is formed by dividing (i) R (final) by (ii) R (initial).

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of the Underlying, the following applies:Option B3:

- If R (final) is equal to or higher than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If R (final) is lower than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount corresponding to the value of the fraction of the Underlying.

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of the Delivery Item, the following applies:Option B4:

- If R (final) is equal to or higher than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If R (final) is lower than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity of the Delivery Item to be delivered is equal to the Ratio which is calculated by dividing the Redemption Amount (Knock-out) by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item (= Reference Price of the Delivery Item (final)). Expressed with a formula that means:

The Redemption Amount (Knock-out) is equal to the product of the Nominal Amount or Calculation Amount and a quotient. The quotient is formed by dividing the Final Reference Price by the Strike. Expressed with a formula, that means:

If the Ratio contains a fraction, the Security Holder will additionally receive a Supplemental Cash Amount instead of the not delivered fractions of the Delivery Item.

If a Novation Event occurs, the Security Holder will receive a Novation Amount which is equal to the Redemption Amount (Knock-out) instead of the Delivery Item.

Subtype 3 – Barrier Reverse Convertible Stability Securities

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount will be determined as follows:

The Calculation Amount will be multiplied by a difference. The difference is formed by subtracting a product from the number one (1). The product is formed by the Participation Factor and a quotient. The quotient is formed by dividing a difference by R (b-1). The difference is formed by subtracting R (b) from the Strike (b).

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Strike (b) means the applicable Strike (t) with respect to the Barrier Event Date.

Strike (t) means with respect to an Observation Date (t) the Strike Level multiplied by R (t-1).

R (t-1) means the Reference Price on the Observation Date (t) immediately preceding the relevant Observation Date (t).

Barrier Event Date means such Observation Date (t) on which the Barrier Event has occurred.

A Barrier Event occurs if R (t) is lower than the Strike (t) on an Observation Date (t).

Automatic Exercise

The Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Call Event

Upon the occurrence of a Call Event, the Issuer may call and redeem the Securities early at their Cancellation Amount.

The following additional features may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Compo Feature
- Quanto Physical Feature
- Additional Unconditional Amount

For further information on the additional features, please see section "A.3 Additional Features" below.

1.9. Product Type 10: Discount Securities

General

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subtype 1 – Discount Securities

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the price of the Underlying falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls.

Subtype 2 – Discount Barrier Securities

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the price of the Underlying falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls.

Interest

The Securities do not bear interest.

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

Provided that no Call Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date as follows:

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. With respect to the determination of the Redemption Amount, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Subtype 1 – Discount Securities

In the case of Securities with Cash Settlement, the following applies:

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Final Reference Price multiplied by the Ratio. This product will also be multiplied by the Ratio Factor if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Maximum Amount.

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of the Underlying, the following applies:

- If the Final Reference Price is equal to or higher than the Cap, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.
- If the Final Reference Price is lower than the Cap, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount corresponding to the value of the fraction of the Underlying.

Subtype 2 – Discount Barrier Securities

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.

- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of R (final) divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Maximum Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the Barrier Observation, see section "A.5 Barrier Observation" below.

1.10. Product Type 11: Tracker Securities

General

Tracker Securities may have fixed or an indefinite term (open ended). In the case of open ended Securities, their term will continue until the exercise of the Redemption Right by the Security Holder or the Regular Call Right by the Issuer. Following such exercise, the term is limited.

Subtype 1 – Tracker Securities

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the market value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the market value of the Securities regularly rises. On the other hand if the price of the Underlying falls, the market value of the Securities regularly falls.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Indices, Shares, Fund Shares, Commodities, Exchange Traded Commodities, Futures Contracts or Currency Exchange Rates.

Subtype 2 – Tracker Leverage Securities

Tracker Leverage Securities may be issued as Long Securities or Short Securities. This means:

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the market value of the Securities during the term depends on the performance of the Underlying as follows:

- In the case of Long Securities, the Leverage Factor is higher than zero (0). In this case, the market value of the Securities regularly rises in accordance with the Leverage Factor (leveraged) if the price of the Reference Underlying rises. On the other hand if the price of the Reference Underlying falls, the market value of the Securities regularly falls in accordance with the Leverage Factor (leveraged). If the Leverage Factor is higher than one (1), the Security Holder participates over-proportionately (i.e. more) in the performance of the Reference Underlying. If the Leverage Factor is lower than one (1), the Security Holder participates under-proportionately (i.e. less) in the performance of the Reference Underlying.
- In the case of Short Securities, the Leverage Factor is lower than zero (0). In this case, it is the other way round and the market value of the Securities regularly falls in accordance with the Leverage Factor (leveraged) if the price of the Reference Underlying rises. On the other hand if the price of the Reference Underlying falls, the market value of the Securities regularly rises in accordance with the Leverage Factor (leveraged). If the Leverage Factor is lower than minus one (-1), the Security Holder participates over-proportionately (i.e. more) in the performance of the Reference Underlying. If the Leverage Factor is higher than minus one (-1), the Security Holder participates under-proportionately (i.e. less) in the performance of the Reference Underlying.

Payments under Tracker Leverage Securities may only be linked to Indices.

Interest

The Securities may be non-interest-bearing or interest-bearing at a "Fixed Interest Rate", as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the interest features, see section "A.6 Interest" below.

Dividend Payment

If the Underlying of the Securities is a distributing index, the Final Terms may include the following optional additional feature.

The Security Holder is entitled to a Dividend Amount (d) on each Dividend Amount Payment Date (d).

The Dividend Amount (d) equals the Dividend Value (d) of the Underlying for a certain Dividend Period (d) multiplied by the Ratio. Expressed with a formula, that means:

$$\text{Dividend Amount (d)} = \text{Dividend Value (d)} \times \text{Ratio}$$

The Dividend Value (d) of the Underlying for the respective Dividend Period (d) will be determined as the value of the Theoretical Cash Component of the Underlying. The Theoretical Cash Component will be determined by the Index Calculation Agent on each Dividend Observation Date (d). Following each Dividend Observation Date (d), the Theoretical Cash Component is reset to zero (0) and newly calculated.

The right to receive the relevant Dividend Amount (d) may be excluded in the Final Terms. In such case, the Security Holder will not receive the Dividend Amount (d) if on the Dividend Amount Observation Date (d) immediately preceding the relevant Dividend Amount Payment Date (d) the respective Security Holder was not a Security Holder.

If the Underlying of the Securities is a Share, the Final Terms may include the payment of a Dividend Amount as set out below.

If a Dividend Amount Payment Event occurs, the Security Holder receives payment of the respective Dividend Amount for the relevant Dividend Observation Period (as specified in the Final Terms).

a) Determination of the Dividend Amount

The Dividend Amount corresponds to an amount in the Specified Currency calculated or specified by the Calculation Agent as follows:

$$\text{Dividend Amount} = \text{Dividend} \times \text{Dividend Tax Rate} \times \text{Ratio}.$$

Dividend means the dividend to be paid per Underlying share as declared in the official cash dividend announcement during the Dividend Observation Period.

Dividend Tax Rate means the percentage value determined by the Calculation Agent as specified in the Final Terms based on the amount of any taxes, duties, retentions, deductions or other charges incurred by the Hypothetical Investor in respect of the cash distribution.

b) Determination of the Dividend Amount Payment Event Dividend Amount Payment Event means that the respective Dividend (see under a) above) is greater than the Dividend Amount Payment Level.

The Dividend Amount Payment Level is equal to an amount specified in the Final Terms divided by the Dividend Amount Payment Factor.

The Dividend Amount Payment Factor initially is 1 (one), but may be adjusted by the Calculation Agent following a change of the payment frequency of the Dividend to reflect such changed payment frequency.

Automatic Early Redemption Feature

The following optional Automatic Early Redemption Feature may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Automatic Early Redemption (Tracker).

Redemption

Provided that no Call Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed upon exercise of the Security Holder's Redemption Right or the Issuer's Regular Call Right by payment of the Redemption Amount.

In addition, Tracker Securities with fixed term will be redeemed on the Final Payment Date by payment of the Redemption Amount, provided that they have not been exercised by the Security Holder of the Issuer before.

Subtype 1 – Tracker Securities

With respect to the calculation of the Redemption Amount one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Option 1:

The Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Relevant Reference Price by the Ratio.

Option 2:

The Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Relevant Reference Price by the Participation Factor Current, as applicable from time to time, and the Ratio.

The Index Calculation Fee Adjustment, the Management Fee Adjustment, the Quanto Fee Adjustment and/or the Short Selling Fee Adjustment may be deducted from the product of the Relevant Reference Price and the Participation Factor Current, as specified in the relevant Final Terms. However, the Redemption Amount will not be lower than zero (0).

Subtype 2 – Tracker Leverage Securities

The Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Relevant Reference Price by the Ratio.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be lower than zero (0).

For further information on the applicable fees see section "Fees" below.

Reference Price Determination

In the case of an exercise of the Security Holder's Redemption Right, the Relevant Reference Price corresponds to the Reference Price on the Observation Date immediately preceding the respective Redemption Date.

In the case of an exercise of the Issuer's Regular Call Right, the Relevant Reference Price corresponds to the Reference Price on the Observation Date immediately preceding the respective Call Date.

In the case of Tracker Securities with fixed term, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Option 1:

The Relevant Reference Price corresponds to the Reference Price on the Observation Date immediately preceding the Final Payment Date.

Option 2:

The Relevant Reference Price corresponds to the equally weighted average (arithmetic mean) of the Reference Prices on the Observation Dates specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Fees

With regard to the determination of the Redemption Amount, the relevant Final Terms may specify that one or multiple of the following fees will be deducted from the Securities:

- Index Calculation Fee Adjustment
- Management Fee Adjustment
- Quanto Fee Adjustment
- Short Selling Fee Adjustment
- Transaction Fee
- Gap Risk Fee

The relevant fees may be deducted from the Relevant Reference Price, as multiplied by the Participation Factor Current, if applicable, or considered by an ongoing adjustment of the Ratio. In addition, the Transaction Fee may also be applied in each case of a Roll Over. The relevant Final Terms will specify how exactly the deduction of the relevant Fees will take place.

Dividend Tax Deduction

The Final Terms may specify the following additional option.

The Ratio will be adjusted in accordance with the Terms and Conditions on each Adjustment Date by the Dividend Tax Deduction. Dividend Tax Deduction means a percentage amount, which reflects the deduction of taxes, which would affect the Issuer in case of a dividend payment by the Underlying, or a component of the Underlying.

Automatic Exercise

In the case of Tracker Securities with fixed term, the Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Call Event

Upon the occurrence of a Call Event, the Issuer may call and redeem the Securities early at their Cancellation Amount.

Additional Features

The following additional features may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Compo Feature
- Additional Unconditional Amount

1.11. Product Type 11a: Index Tracker Open-End SecuritiesGeneral

Index Tracker Open-End Securities have an indefinite term. Their term will continue until the exercise of the Redemption Right by the Security Holder or the Regular Call Right by the Issuer. Following such exercise, the term is limited. The performance of the Index Tracker Open-End Securities is generally directly linked to the performance of the Underlying. The Security Holder participates in rising prices of the Underlying as well as in falling prices of the Underlying in full.

The market value of the Index Tracker Open-End Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the market value of the Open-End Securities regularly rises. On the other hand, if the price of the Underlying falls, the market value of the Index Tracker Open-End Securities regularly falls. In addition, other factors may influence the market value of the Index Tracker Open-End Securities. Such factors include: a change regarding the volatility of the Underlying, a change regarding general interest rates, etc.

Redemption

The Securities will be redeemed upon exercise of the Security Holder's Redemption Right or the Issuer's Regular Call Right by payment of the Redemption Amount.

If the Security Holder exercises his Redemption Right, the Index Tracker Open-End Securities will be redeemed on the Redemption Date. If the Issuer exercises its Regular Call Right, the Index Tracker Open-End Securities will be redeemed on the Call Date.

On the Redemption Date or the Call Date, as applicable, the Security Holder receives the Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency which is calculated and specified with respect to the corresponding Observation Date by multiplying the Ratio by the Nominal Amount or Calculation Amount. Expressed with a formula that means:

$$\text{Redemption Amount} = \text{Ratio} \times \text{Nominal Amount}$$ or, respectively,

$$\text{Redemption Amount} = \text{Ratio} \times \text{Calculation Amount}$$

Determination of the Ratio

On the Issue Date the Ratio equals the Ratio (initial). With respect to each Calculation Date (t) following the Issue Date, the Ratio equals "Ratio (t)" which is calculated by multiplying Ratio (t-1) by the Relevant Performance (t). Expressed with a formula that means:

Ratio (initial)

The Ratio (initial) is specified in the respective Final Terms.

Ratio (t-1)

With respect to the first Calculation Date (t) after the Issue Date, Ratio (t-1) is the Ratio (initial). With respect to any Calculation Date (t) after the first Calculation Date (t), Ratio (t-1) is the Ratio with respect to the Calculation Date immediately preceding that Calculation Date (t) (the "Calculation Date (t-1)").

Relevant Performance (t)

The Relevant Performance (t) is calculated multiplying the Index Performance (t) by a difference. The difference is calculated by deducting a quotient from 1. The quotient is formed by dividing the Spread multiplied with n_i by the Day Count Basis. Expressed with a formula that means:

$$\text{Relevant Performance (t)} = \text{Index Performance (t)} \times (1 - (\text{Spread} \times n_i / \text{Day Count Basis}))$$

Index Performance (t)

With respect to a Calculation Date (t) the Index Performance (t) is calculated by dividing the Reference Price (t) with the Reference Price (t-1). Expressed with a formula that means:

Reference Price (t)

The Reference Price (t) is the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Calculation Date (t). The Reference Price of the Underlying is specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Reference Price (t-1)

Spread

The Spread is specified in the respective Final Terms. The Spread is a fee which compensates the Issuer for its costs incurred in connection with the continuous management of the Securities (e.g. costs in connection with the pricing and trading of the Securities, licensing costs for using the Underlying, general operating costs).

n_i n_i is the actual number of calendar days in the period from Calculation Date (t-1) (including) to the immediately following Calculation Date (t) (excluding).

Day Count Basis

The Day Count Basis is specified in the respective Final Terms.

Determination of the Nominal Amount or Calculation Amount

The Nominal Amount or Calculation Amount is specified in the respective Final Terms.

1.12. Product Type 12: Knock-in Step-in Tracker SecuritiesGeneral

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the market value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the market value of the Securities regularly rises. On the other hand if the price of the Underlying falls, the market value of the Securities regularly falls.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Shares, Indices, Commodities, Exchange Traded Commodities, Futures Contracts or Fund Shares.

Securities linked to Shares or Fund Shares may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery. However, Securities linked to Group Shares are always issued as Securities with Cash Settlement.

Securities linked to an Index may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery of a Delivery Item.

InterestOption 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

Subject to the occurrence of a Final Knock-in Event, the Securities pay interest for each Interest Period. The relevant Interest Amount depends on the Relevant Cash Amount. The relevant Interest Amount will be paid on the relevant Interest Payment Dates.

The Interest Amount will be calculated as follows:

The Relevant Cash Amount will be multiplied by the applicable Interest Rate and the Day Count Fraction.

If a Final Knock-in Event occurs, the Securities will stop paying interest as of the corresponding Knock-in Date (b).

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

Subject to the occurrence of a Final Knock-in Event, the Securities pay interest for each Interest Period. The relevant Interest Amount depends on the Relevant Cash Amount. The relevant Interest Amount will be paid on the relevant Interest Payment Dates.

The Interest Amount will be calculated as follows:

The Relevant Cash Amount will be multiplied by the applicable Interest Rate and the Day Count Fraction.

A Final Knock-in Event occurs if in relation to all Knock-in Barriers (b) a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred.

If a Final Knock-in Event occurs, the Securities will stop paying interest as of the respective Knock-in Date (b).

Option 3 (Component Variant):

The payment of interest under the Securities is divided in separate Components (b).

Subject to the occurrence of a Knock-in Event (b), under each Component (b) the Securities pay interest for each Interest Period on the respective Cash Amount (b) per Security at the corresponding Interest Rate (b). The Interest Amount (b) under each Component (b) will be paid on the corresponding Interest Payment Date.

For each Interest Period and each Component (b) the respective Interest Amount (b) will be calculated as follows:

The respective Cash Amount (b) will be multiplied by the applicable Interest Rate (b) and the Day Count Fraction.

The Interest Periods will be specified in the relevant Final Terms. However, if during an Interest Period with respect to a Component (b) a Knock-in Event (b) occurs, the respective Interest Period ends with respect to the corresponding Component (b) on, and excluding, the relevant Knock-in Observation Date, on which the Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, and no further interest shall be paid on the respective Cash Amount (b) for any subsequent Interest Period.

Knock-in Event (b)

Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

A Knock-in Event (b) occurs if the Reference Price of the Underlying is equal to or lower than the Knock-in Barrier (b) on a Knock-in Observation Date (b).

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

A Knock-in Event (b) occurs if the Reference Price of the Underlying is equal to or lower than the relevant Knock-in Barrier (b) on a Knock-in Observation Date (b).

This means: For the determination of the first Knock-in Event (b), the Knock-in Barrier (b) (with $b = 1$) is relevant. For the determination of the second Knock-in Event (b), the Knock-in Barrier (b) (with $b = 2$) is relevant, and so on. For the determination of the last Knock-in Event (b), the Knock-in Barrier (b) (with $b = n$) is relevant. Each day on which a Knock-in Event (b) occurs will be referred to as Knock-in Date (b).

Option 3 (Component Variant):

A Knock-in Event (b) occurs with respect to a Component (b) if the Reference Price of the Underlying is equal to or lower than the relevant Knock-in Barrier (b) on a Knock-in Observation Date (b).

Knock-in Observation Date (b) means with respect to a Component (b) each Calculation Date during the respective Knock-in Observation Period (b), as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Determination of the Relevant Cash Amount

Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

The Relevant Cash Amount, the Interest Rate and the Day Count Fraction will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

The value of the Relevant Cash Amount is floating. As at the Interest Commencement Date, the Relevant Cash Amount corresponds either to the Relevant Cash Amount (initial) or to the Calculation Amount, as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Upon the occurrence of a Knock-in Event (b), the Relevant Cash Amount will be reduced during an Interest Period as follows:

As at the first Calculation Date after the Knock-in Date (b) (with $b = 1$), the Relevant Cash Amount corresponds to the Relevant Cash Amount (b) (with $b = 1$), as specified in the relevant Final Terms, until the next Knock-in Date (b) (with $b = 2$). As at the first Calculation Date after the Knock-in Date (b) (with $b = 2$) the Relevant Cash Amount will be reduced to the Relevant Cash Amount (b) (with $b = 2$), as specified in the relevant Final Terms. This procedure will be repeated on each subsequent Knock-in Date (b) (with $b = 3, \dots, n$). Multiple Knock-in Events (b) may occur on one single Knock-in Observation Date. In this case, the Relevant Cash Amount will be reduced as at the immediately subsequent Calculation Date to the Relevant Cash Amount (b), which corresponds to the Knock-in Barrier (b), in relation to which the last Knock-in Event (b) has occurred.

The index (b) denotes the sequential number of the potential Knock-in Event (b) since the respective Securities were issued.

If no Knock-in Event (b) occurs, the Relevant Cash Amount remains unchanged for all Interest Periods.

The Relevant Cash Amount (final) corresponds to the remaining Relevant Cash Amount (b) as of the Knock-in Date (b), that has most recently occurred. If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Relevant Cash Amount (final) corresponds to the Relevant Cash Amount (initial). If a Final Knock-in Event has occurred, the Relevant Cash Amount (final) is equal to zero (0).

Option 3 (Component Variant):

The Relevant Cash Amount (final) corresponds to the sum of all Relevant Cash Amounts (b).

With respect to each Component (b) the respective Relevant Cash Amount (b) will be determined as follows:

- If with respect to the relevant Component (b) no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the respective Relevant Cash Amount (b) is equal to the corresponding Cash Amount (b).
- If with respect to the relevant Component (b) a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the respective Final Relevant Cash Amount (b) is equal to zero (0).

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

Provided that no Call Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed on the Final Payment Date.

In the case of Securities with Cash Settlement, the following applies:

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount. With respect to the determination of the Redemption Amount one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Alternative 1:Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price by the Ratio (final). The Relevant Cash Amount (final) will be added to the result.
- If a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price by the Ratio (final).

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

The Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price by the Ratio (final). The Relevant Cash Amount (final) will be added to the result.

Alternative 2:Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price by the Ratio (final).

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If at least one Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Redemption Amount will be calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price by the Ratio (final). The Relevant Cash Amount (final) will be added to the result.

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of the Underlying, the following applies:

The Underlying of the Securities is a Fund Share or a Share.

Alternative 1:Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying. The quantity of the Underlying to be delivered is expressed by the Ratio (final). If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Underlying (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Security Holder will in addition receive the Relevant Cash Amount (final).

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying. The quantity of the Underlying to be delivered is expressed by the Ratio (final). If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Underlying (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

In addition, the Security Holder will receive the Relevant Cash Amount (final). However, if a Final Knock-in Event has occurred, the Relevant Cash Amount (final) is equal to zero (0).

Alternative 2:

Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Calculation Amount.
- If a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying. The quantity of the Underlying to be delivered is expressed by the Ratio (final). If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Underlying (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Calculation Amount.
- If at least one Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying. The quantity of the Underlying to be delivered is expressed by the Ratio (final). If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Underlying (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

In addition, the Security Holder will receive the Relevant Cash Amount (final). However, if a Final Knock-in Event has occurred, the Relevant Cash Amount (final) is equal to zero (0).

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of the Delivery Item, the following applies:

The Underlying of the Securities is an Index.

Alternative 1:

Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity delivered (Delivery Quantity) is calculated as follows:

The Final Reference Price is multiplied by the Ratio (final). This product is divided by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item.

If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Delivery Item, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Delivery Item (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Security Holder will in addition receive the Relevant Cash Amount (final).

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity delivered (Delivery Quantity) is calculated as follows:

The Final Reference Price is multiplied by the Ratio (final). This product is divided by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item.

If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Delivery Item, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Delivery Item (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

In addition, the Security Holder will receive the Relevant Cash Amount (final). However, if a Final Knock-in Event has occurred, the Relevant Cash Amount (final) is equal to zero (0).

Alternative 2:

Option 1 (Single Barrier Variant):

- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Calculation Amount.
- If a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity delivered (Delivery Quantity) is calculated as follows:

The Final Reference Price is multiplied by the Ratio (final). This product is divided by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item.

If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Delivery Item, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Delivery Item (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

Option 2 (Multi Barrier Variant):

- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Calculation Amount.
- If at least one Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity delivered (Delivery Quantity) is calculated as follows:

The Final Reference Price is multiplied by the Ratio (final). This product is divided by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item.

If the Ratio (final) leads to a fraction of the Delivery Item, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Delivery Item (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

In addition, the Security Holder will receive the Relevant Cash Amount (final). However, if a Final Knock-in Event has occurred, the Relevant Cash Amount (final) is equal to zero (0).

Determination of the Novation Amount

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of a Delivery Item, a Novation Event may occur. Novation Event denotes an extraordinary event, which affects the Delivery Item. In this case, the Security Holder will receive payment of the Novation Amount instead of delivery of the Delivery Item. The Novation Amount shall be calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price with the Ratio (final).

Reference Price Determination

With respect to the determination of the Final Reference Price, "Final Reference Price Observation" applies.

Determination of the Ratio

Option 1:

On the Initial Observation Date, the Ratio (final) corresponds to the Ratio (initial). The Ratio (initial) will be calculated by multiplying the Calculation Amount with a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing the (i) Knock-in Participation Factor or (ii) Initial Participation Factor by the Initial Reference Price, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

As long as no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Ratio (final) corresponds at any time to the Ratio (initial).

Upon the occurrence of the Knock-in Event (b), the Ratio (final) will be adjusted. The sum of the Ratios (b) as determined on each Knock-in Date (b) will be added to the Ratio (initial).

The Ratio (b) will be calculated by multiplying the Calculation Amount by a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing the Knock-in Participation Factor by R (b) or the Knock-in Barrier (b), as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

As a result, the Ratio (final) after the occurrence of a Knock-in Event (b) corresponds to the sum of the Ratio (initial) and the Ratio (b).

For further information on the Determination of R (b), see section "A.7.3 Determination of the Reference Price (b)" below.

Option 2:

- If a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Ratio (final) will be calculated as the sum of the Ratios (b) as determined on each Knock-in Date (b);
- If no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Ratio (final) is equal to zero (0).

The Ratio (b) will be calculated by multiplying the Calculation Amount by a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing the Knock-in Participation Factor by R (b) or the Knock-in Barrier (b), as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option 3:

The Ratio (final) will be calculated as the sum of the Ratio (initial) and each Ratio (b).

With respect to each Component (b) the respective Ratio (b) will be calculated as follows:

- If with respect to the respective Component (b) a Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Ratio (b) will be calculated as follows:

$$\text{Ratio (b)} = \text{Cash Amount (b)} / R (b)$$
- If with respect to the respective Component (b) no Knock-in Event (b) has occurred, the Ratio (b) is equal to zero (0).

Automatic Exercise

The Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Call Event

Upon the occurrence of a Call Event, the Issuer may call and redeem the Securities early at their Cancellation Amount.

Additional Features

The following additional features may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Additional Unconditional Amount
- Compo Feature
- Quanto Physical Feature

For further information on the additional features, please see section "A.3 Additional Features" below.

1.13. Product Type 13: Step-in Tracker SecuritiesGeneral

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the market value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. If the price of the Underlying rises, the market value of the Securities regularly rises. On the other hand, if the price of the Underlying falls, the market value of the Securities regularly falls.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Shares, Indices, Commodities, Exchange Traded Commodities, Futures Contracts or Fund Shares.

Securities linked to Shares or Fund Shares may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery. However, Securities linked to Group Shares are always issued as Securities with Cash Settlement.

Securities linked to an Index may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery of a Delivery Item.

Interest

The Securities do not bear interest.

Dividend Payment

If the Underlying of the Securities is a distributing index, the Final Terms may include the following optional additional feature:

The Security Holder is entitled to a Dividend Amount (d) on each Dividend Amount Payment Date (d).

The Dividend Amount (d) equals the Dividend Value (d) of the Underlying for a certain Dividend Period (d) multiplied by the Ratio. Expressed with a formula, that means:

The Dividend Value (d) of the Underlying for the respective Dividend Period (d) will be determined as the value of the Theoretical Cash Component of the Underlying. The Theoretical Cash Component will be determined by the Index Calculation Agent on each Dividend Observation Date (d). Following each Dividend Observation Date (d), the Theoretical Cash Component is reset to zero (0) and newly calculated.

The right to receive the relevant Dividend Amount (d) may be excluded in the Final Terms. In such case, the Security Holder will not receive the Dividend Amount (d) if on the Dividend Amount Observation Date (d) immediately preceding the relevant Dividend Amount Payment Date (d) the respective Security Holder was not a Security Holder.

Distribution Amount

If the Underlying of the Securities is a Fund, the following optional additional feature may be selected in the Final Terms:

On each Distribution Amount Payment Date (d), the Security Holders will receive the respective Underlying Distribution (d).

The Distribution Amount (d) is equal to the Underlying Distribution (d) (net) of the Underlying for an Underlying Distribution Observation Period (d) multiplied by the Ratio. Expressed with a formula, that means:

$$\text{Distribution Amount (d)} = \text{Underlying Distribution (d) (net)} \times \text{Ratio}$$

The Underlying Distribution (d) (net) is equal to the sum of the cash distributions which a Hypothetical Investor in the Underlying would have received per Underlying during an Underlying Distribution Observation Period (d), minus the amount of taxes and other fees to which a Hypothetical Investor would be subject with respect to the cash distributions, as determined by the Hypothetical Investor. The Hypothetical Investor is subject to the same tax and legal conditions as the Issuer.

The right to receive payment of the respective Distribution Amount (d) may be excluded in the Final Terms. In such case, the Security Holder will not receive the Distribution Amount (k) if the Security Holder was not a Security Holder on the Underlying Distribution Observation Date (d) immediately preceding the respective Distribution Amount Payment Date (d).

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

Provided that no Call Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed on the Final Payment Date.

With respect to the redemption on the Final Payment Date, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Option 1: Securities with cash settlement

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount, which is calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price by the Ratio.

Option 2: Securities with physical delivery of the Underlying

The Underlying of the Securities is a Fund Share or a Share.

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Underlying. The quantity of the Underlying to be delivered is expressed by the Ratio. If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Underlying (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

Option 3: Securities with physical delivery of the Delivery Item

The Underlying of the Securities is an Index.

The Securities will be redeemed by delivery of the Delivery Item. The Delivery Item of the Securities is either a Share, a Fund Share or an Index Certificate.

The quantity delivered (Delivery Quantity) is calculated as follows:

The Final Reference Price is multiplied by the Ratio. This product is divided by the Final Reference Price of the Delivery Item.

If the Ratio leads to a fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency will be paid instead in the amount of the value of a not delivered fraction of the Delivery Item (the "Supplemental Cash Amount").

Determination of the Novation Amount

In the case of Securities with Physical Delivery of a Delivery Item, a Novation Event may occur. Novation Event denotes an extraordinary event, which affects the Delivery Item. In this case, the Security Holder will receive payment of the Novation Amount instead of delivery of the Delivery Item. The Novation Amount shall be calculated by multiplying the Final Reference Price with the Ratio.

If a Final Knock-in Event has occurred, the Relevant Cash Amount (final) is equal to zero (0).

Reference Price Determination

With respect to the determination of the Final Reference Price, "Final Reference Price Observation" applies.

Determination of the Ratio

The Ratio is calculated based on the Reference Prices on the respective Observation Dates (s) (= R (s)). The Ratio corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by (i) the quotient of the number one (1) and the number of Observation Dates (s) (= N) and (ii) the sum of the quotients from the number one (1) and the respective R (s). Expressed with a formula, that means:

$$\text{Ratio} = \text{Calculation Amount} \times \frac{1}{N} \times \sum_{s=1}^N \frac{1}{R(s)}$$

Automatic Exercise

The Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Call Event

Upon the occurrence of a Call Event, the Issuer may call and redeem the Securities early at their Cancellation Amount.

Additional Features

The following additional features may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Additional Unconditional Amount
- Compo Feature

For further information on the additional features, please see section "A.3 Additional Features" below.

2. ADDITIONAL CONDITIONAL AMOUNTS

2.1. Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon)

If an Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

In this case, the Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) will be paid only once, even if on any following Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Coupon) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) occurs.

Option 2: Lock-in Feature:

If with respect to a Lock-in Observation Date (j) a Lock-in Event occurs, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) will be paid on each subsequent Additional Conditional Amount Payment Date (Coupon) (m), regardless of whether an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) has occurred. In this case, the Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) will be paid only once, even if on any following Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Coupon) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) occurs.

A Lock-in Event occurs if R (j) is either (i) equal to or higher, or (ii) higher than the Lock-in Level (j), as specified in the Final Terms.

For further information on the determination of R (j), see section "A.7.4 Determination of the Reference Price (j)" below.

Option 3: Barrier Event:

B. BASKET-LINKED SECURITIES1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PRODUCT TYPES OF BASKET-LINKED SECURITIES*1.1. Product Type 14: Protect Securities with Multi-UnderlyingGeneral

The Underlying of the Securities is a Basket consisting of the Basket Components_i. In this context, the Securities may be issued as (i) Securities with Basket Performance Determination, (ii) Securities with Best-of Performance Determination or (iii) Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination (see section "B.6. Performance Determination" below).

The Securities may be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subtype 1 – Top Securities with Multi-Underlying

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. The performance of the Underlying will be calculated as the sum of the performances of the Basket Components_i, which are taken into account according to their Weightings_i. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the performance of the Underlying rises and regularly falls if the performance of the Underlying falls.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls.

Subtype 2 – Double Barrier Bonus Securities with Multi-Underlying

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. The performance of the Underlying will be calculated as the sum of the performances of the Basket Components_i, which are taken into account according to their Weightings_i. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the performance of the Underlying rises and regularly falls if the performance of the Underlying falls.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Shares, Indices, Fund Shares, Commodities, Debt Securities or Currency Exchange Rates as Basket Components.

The Securities will be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement.

The Securities may be issued as non-Quanto or Quanto Securities.

Interest

The Securities do not bear interest.

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

Provided that no Call Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date as follows:

Subtype 1 – Top Securities with Multi-Underlying

The Securities will be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If the Relevant Performance (final) is equal to or higher than the Strike Level, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.
- If the Relevant Performance (final) is lower than the Strike Level, the Redemption Amount will be determined as follows:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the Relevant Performance (final) and divided by the Strike Level.

Subtype 2 – Double Barrier Bonus Securities with Multi-Underlying

- If the Relevant Performance (final) is equal to or higher than the Final Redemption Level, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the number one (1). The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor Up with a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the number one (1) from the Relevant Performance (final).

However, the Redemption Amount will not be lower than the Bonus Amount and not higher than the Maximum Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

- If the Relevant Performance (final) is lower than the Final Redemption Level, the Redemption Amount will be determined as follows:
 - If the Relevant Performance (final) is equal to or higher than the Strike Level, the Redemption Amount corresponds to Bonus Amount.
 - If the Relevant Performance (final) is lower than the Strike Level, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a sum. The sum will be calculated by adding a product to the number one (1). The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor Down with a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the Strike Level from the Relevant Performance (final).

Performance Determination

With respect to the determination of the Relevant Performance (final), one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Basket Performance Determination (final)
- Best-of Performance Determination (final)
- Worst-of Performance Determination (final)

For further information on the determination of the Relevant Performance (final), see section "B.6.3. Determination of the Relevant Performance (final)" below.

Performance Determination" below).

The Securities may be issued as Long Securities or Short Securities. This means:

Subtype 1 – Bonus Securities with Multi-Underlying (Long Securities)

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. The performance of the Underlying will be calculated as the sum of the performances of the Basket Components_i, which are taken into account according to their Weightings_i. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the performance of the Underlying rises and regularly falls if the performance of the Underlying falls.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls.

Subtype 2 – Double Barrier Bonus Securities with Multi-Underlying (Long Securities)

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. The performance of the Underlying will be calculated as the sum of the performances of the Basket Components_i, which are taken into account according to their Weightings_i. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the performance of the Underlying rises and regularly falls if the performance of the Underlying falls.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls.

Subtype 3 – Reverse Bonus Securities with Multi-Underlying (Short Securities)

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. The performance of the Underlying will be calculated as the sum of the performances of the Basket Components_i, which are taken into account according to their Weightings_i. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the performance of the Underlying falls and regularly falls if the performance of the Underlying rises.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Shares, Indices, Fund Shares, Commodities, Debt Securities or Currency Exchange Rates as Basket Components.

Securities linked to Shares may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery. However, Reverse Bonus Securities with Multi-Underlying and Securities linked to Group Shares are always issued as Securities with Cash Settlement.

The Securities may be issued as non-Quanto or Quanto Securities.

Option A4:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the product of (i) the Calculation Amount and (ii) the sum of the Bonus Level and a product. The product will be calculated by multiplying the Participation Factor with a difference. The difference will be calculated by deducting the Bonus Level from a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing the Relevant Performance (final) by the Strike Level.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be lower than the Bonus Amount and not higher than the Maximum Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

In this case, the Redemption Amount may be lower than the Bonus Amount or even be zero (0).

Option B2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting a product from 100%. The product will be calculated by multiplying a difference with the Airbag Leverage. The difference is formed by subtracting the Relevant Performance (final) from the Airbag Level.

Option B4:

- If the Relevant Performance (final) is equal to or higher than the Cap Level, the Securities will be redeemed by Payment of the Redemption Amount.

1.2. Product Type 16: Express Securities with Multi-Underlying

General

The Underlying of the Securities is a Basket consisting of the Basket Components_i. In this context, the Securities may be issued as (i) Securities with Basket Performance Determination, (ii) Securities with Best-of Performance Determination or (iii) Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination (see section "B.6. Performance Determination" below).

The Securities may be issued as Long Securities or Short Securities. This means:

Subtype 1 – Express Securities with Multi-Underlying (Long Securities)

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. The performance of the Underlying will be calculated as the sum of the performances of the Basket Components_i, which are taken into account according to their Weightings_i. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the performance of the Underlying rises and regularly falls if the performance of the Underlying falls.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls.

Subtype 2 – Short Express Securities with Multi-Underlying (Long Securities)

In the case of Securities with Basket Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Underlying. The performance of the Underlying will be calculated as the sum of the performances of the Basket Components_i, which are taken into account according to their Weightings_i. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the performance of the Underlying falls and regularly falls if the performance of the Underlying rises.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities regularly rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls and regularly falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises.

Payments under the Securities may be linked to Shares, Indices, Fund Shares, Commodities, Debt Securities or Currency Exchange Rates as Basket Components.

Securities linked to Shares may be issued as Securities with Cash Settlement or as Securities with Physical Delivery. However, Short Express Securities with Multi-Underlying and Securities linked to Group Shares are always issued as Securities with Cash Settlement.

In the case of Securities with Best-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance. If no Barrier Event has occurred and subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities generally rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises or moderately falls. If a Barrier Event has occurred and subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities generally rises if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance rises, and falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the highest performance falls.

In the case of Securities with Worst-of Performance Determination, the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the performance of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance. If no Barrier Event has occurred and subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities generally rises if the price of Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises or moderately falls. If a Barrier Event has occurred and subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities generally rises if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance rises, and falls if the price of the Basket Component_i with the lowest performance falls.

With respect to any other Early Redemption Observation Date (k) (with $k = 2, \dots$), the respective Early Redemption Level (k) (with $k = 2, \dots$) will be determined as follows:

The respective Early Redemption Level (k) shall be the lower of (i) the Relevant Performance (k) and (ii) the Early Redemption Level (k) on the immediately preceding Early Redemption Observation Date (k). Expressed as a formula, this means:

Early Redemption Level (k) = $\text{Min} \{ \text{Relevant Performance (k - 1)}; \text{Early Redemption Level (k - 1)} \}$

However, the respective Early Redemption Level (k) will not be lower than the Minimum Early Redemption Level.

If a Barrier Event occurs, the possibility of an automatic early redemption lapses and the Securities will be redeemed on the Final Payment Date if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

4.5. Automatic Early Redemption (Rocket)

In the case of Securities where the Automatic Early Redemption (Rocket) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

C. HYBRID SECURITIES

1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PRODUCT TYPES OF HYBRID SECURITIES

1.1. Product Type 25: Hybrid Express Securities

General

The Securities are linked to the performance of two different types of Underlyings (Underlying A and Underlying B). Each Underlying may either be a Financial Index, an Inflation Index or a Share (Share Underlying).

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlyings. If the price of the Underlyings rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the price of the Underlyings falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls. However, the price development of one Underlying may reinforce or compensate the price effect of the other Underlying.

Interest

The Securities do not bear interest.

Additional Conditional Amount

In the relevant Final Terms may be specified that an Additional Conditional Amount may be paid.

With respect to the Additional Conditional Amount, the following optional features may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet);
- Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon);
- Additional Conditional Amount (Memory); and
- Additional Conditional Amount (Performance).

The Additional Conditional Amount is linked to the Underlying B, which will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the Additional Conditional Amounts, see section "C.2. Additional Conditional Amounts" below.

Automatic Early Redemption Feature

With respect to the Securities the following Automatic Early Redemption Feature applies:

- Automatic Early Redemption (k).

The Automatic Early Redemption Feature is linked to the Underlying A, which will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the Automatic Early Redemption Feature, see section "C.4. Automatic Early Redemption Feature" below.

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

The Redemption as at the Final Payment Date is linked to the Underlying A, which will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Provided that no Call Event or Early Redemption Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

Option A1:

- If a Final Redemption Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.

- If no Final Redemption Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Final Redemption Amount.

Option A2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.

Option A3:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.

- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

Option B1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of the Final Reference Price of the Underlying A divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option B2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by (i) the Participation Factor and (ii) the quotient of the Final Reference Price of the Underlying A divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

A Final Redemption Event occurs if the Reference Price of the Underlying A on the Final Observation Date is equal to or higher than the Final Redemption Level.

For further information on the Barrier Observation, see section "C.5. Barrier Observation" below.

If the prices of the Underlyings rise, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the prices of the Underlyings fall, the value of the Securities regularly falls. However, the price development of one Underlying may reinforce or compensate the price effect of the other Underlying.

Option A1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Maximum Amount.

Option A2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.

- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

Option B1:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of the Final Reference Price of Underlying A divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount or the Maximum Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option B2:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by (i) the Participation Factor and (ii) the quotient of the Final Reference Price of the Underlying A divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount or the Maximum Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the Barrier Observation, see section "C.5. Barrier Observation" below.

Automatic Exercise

The Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Call Event

Upon the occurrence of a Call Event, the Issuer may call and redeem the Securities early at their Cancellation Amount.

Additional Features

The following additional features may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Additional Unconditional Amount
- Cap Feature

For further information on the additional features, please see section "C.3. Additional Features" below.

1.3. Product Type 27: Hybrid Reverse Convertible Securities

General

The Securities are linked to the performance of two different types of Underlyings (Underlying A and Underlying B). Each Underlying may either be a Financial Index, an Inflation Index or a Share (Share Underlying).

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlyings. If the prices of the Underlyings rise, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the prices of the Underlyings fall, the value of the Securities regularly falls. However, the price development of one Underlying may reinforce or compensate the price effect of the other Underlying.

Interest

The Securities may be interest-bearing or non interest-bearing. With respect to the specification of the Interest Rate, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Fixed Interest Rate
- Floating Interest Rate
- Digital Floating Rate (Cap)
- Digital Floating Rate (Floor)
- Reverse Floating Rate
- Fixed to Floating Rate
- Reverse Fixed to Floating Rate

Except for Securities with Fixed Interest Rate, the Interest Amount is linked to the Underlying B, which is an Inflation Index.

For further information on the interest features, see section "C.6. Interest" below.

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

The Redemption as at the Final Payment Date is linked to the Underlying A, which will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Provided that no Call Event or Early Redemption Event if applicable, has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date by payment of the Redemption Amount.

Subtype 1 – Hybrid Reverse Convertible Securities

- If R_A (final) is equal to or higher than the Strike, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If R_A (final) is lower than the Strike, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of the Final Reference Price of Underlying A divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Subtype 2 – Hybrid Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of the Final Reference Price of Underlying A divided by the Strike.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the Reference Price Determination, see section "C.7. Reference Price Determination" below.

For further information on the Barrier Observation, see section "C.5. Barrier Observation" below.

Automatic Exercise

The Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Call Event

Upon the occurrence of a Call Event, the Issuer may call and redeem the Securities early at their Cancellation Amount.

Additional Features

The following additional features may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Additional Unconditional Amount

For further information on the additional features, please see section "C.3. Additional Features" below.

2. ADDITIONAL CONDITIONAL AMOUNTS

2.1. Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet)

If an Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

- If, with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Cliquet) (m), an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Cliquet) has occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m) will be paid on the corresponding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Date (Cliquet) (m).
- If, with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Cliquet) (m), an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Cliquet) has not occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m) will not be paid.

An Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Cliquet) occurs on an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Cliquet) (m) if $R_B(m)$ is greater than or equal to $R_B(m-1)$.

$R_B(m-1)$ means, with respect to the Underlying B and an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Cliquet) (m), $R_B(m)$ on the Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Cliquet) (m) immediately preceding that Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Cliquet) (m). For $R_B(m)$ (where $m = 1$), $R_B(m-1)$ is equal to $R_B(\text{initial})$.

For further information on the Reference Price Determination, see section "C.7. Reference Price Determination" below.

The Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m) on the respective Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Cliquet) (m) is equal to the Calculation Amount multiplied by (i) the Participation Factor (m) and (ii) the Performance of the Underlying B (Cliquet) (m).

The Performance of the Underlying B (Cliquet) (m) is equal to a difference. The difference will be calculated by subtracting the number one (1) from a quotient. The quotient will be calculated by dividing $R_B(m)$ by $R_B(m-1)$.

If a Maximum Additional Conditional Amount (m) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m) is not greater than the Maximum Additional Conditional Amount (m).

If a Minimum Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m) is not lower than the Minimum Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m).

Subject to a Minimum Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m), the Additional Conditional Amount (Cliquet) (m) may also be equal to zero (0).

2.2. Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon)

If an Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

- If with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Coupon) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) has occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) will be paid on the corresponding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Date (Coupon) (m).
- If with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Coupon) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) has not occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) will not be paid.

Option: Lock-in Feature:

If with respect to a Lock-in Observation Date (j) a Lock-in Event occurs, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) will be paid on each subsequent Additional Conditional Amount Payment Date (Coupon) (m), regardless of whether an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) has occurred. In this case, the Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) will be paid only once, even if on any following Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Coupon) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) occurs.

A Lock-in Event occurs if the respective Relevant Performance (j) is either (i) equal to or higher, or (ii) higher than the corresponding Lock-in Level (j), as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the determination of the Relevant Performance (j), see section "C.7.4 Determination of the Reference Price (j)" below.

The Additional Conditional Amount (Coupon) (m) with respect to each Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Coupon) (m) will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

An Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) occurs if the Reference Price (m) of the respective Underlying is equal to or higher than the corresponding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Level (Coupon) (m).

For further information on the determination of R (m), see section "C.7.6. Determination of the Reference Price (m)" below.

2.3. Additional Conditional Amount (Memory)

If an Additional Conditional Amount (Memory) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

- If with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Memory) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Memory) has occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Memory) (m) will be paid on the corresponding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Date (Memory) (m) less the sum of all Additional Conditional Amounts (Memory) (m) which have been paid on the preceding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Dates (Memory) (m).
- If with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Memory) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Memory) has not occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Memory) (m) will not be paid.

Option: Lock-in Feature:

If with respect to a Lock-in Observation Date (j) a Lock-in Event occurs, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Memory) (m) less the sum of all Additional Conditional Amounts (Memory) (m) which have been paid on the preceding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Dates (Memory) (m) will be paid on each subsequent Additional Conditional Amount Payment Date (Memory) (m), regardless of whether an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Memory) has occurred. In this case, the Additional Conditional Amount (Memory) (m) will be paid only once, even if on any following Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Memory) (m) an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Memory) occurs.

A Lock-in Event occurs if the respective Relevant Performance (j) is either (i) equal to or higher, or (ii) higher than the corresponding Lock-in Level (j), as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the determination of the Relevant Performance (j), see section "C.7.4 Determination of the Reference Price (j)" below.

The Additional Conditional Amount (Memory) (m) with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Memory) (m) will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

An Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Coupon) occurs if the Reference Price (m) of the respective Underlying is equal to or higher than the corresponding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Level (Coupon) (m).

For further information on the determination of the Reference Price (m), see section "C.7.6. Determination of the Reference Price (m)" below.

2.4. Additional Conditional Amount (Performance)

If an Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

- If, with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Performance) (m), an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Performance) has occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m) will be paid on the corresponding Additional Conditional Amount Payment Date (Performance) (m).
- If, with respect to an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Performance) (m), an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Performance) has not occurred, the respective Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m) will not be paid.

An Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Performance) occurs on an Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Performance) (m) if R_B (m) is greater than or equal to R_B (initial).

With respect to the determination of an Additional Conditional Amount Payment Event (Performance) (m), one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

The Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m) on the respective Additional Conditional Amount Observation Date (Performance) (m) is equal to the Calculation Amount multiplied by (i) the Participation Factor (m) and (ii) the Performance of the Underlying B (Performance) (m).

The Performance of the Underlying B (Performance) (m) is equal to the quotient of (i) R_B (m) minus R_B (initial) as the numerator and (ii) R_B (initial) as the denominator.

If a Maximum Additional Conditional Amount (m) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m) is not greater than the Maximum Additional Conditional Amount (m).

If a Minimum Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m) is not lower than the Minimum Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m).

Subject to a Minimum Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m), the Additional Conditional Amount (Performance) (m) may also be equal to zero (0).

3. ADDITIONAL FEATURES

3.1. Additional Unconditional Amount

In the case of Securities where an Additional Unconditional Amount (I) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Additional Unconditional Amount (I) will be paid on each Additional Unconditional Amount Payment Date (I).

4. AUTOMATIC EARLY REDEMPTION FEATURE

4.1. Automatic Early Redemption (k)

In the case of Securities where the Automatic Early Redemption (k) is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

If, with respect to an Early Redemption Observation Date (k), an Early Redemption Event (k) has occurred, the Securities will be automatically early redeemed on the respective Early Payment Date (k) by payment of the respective Early Redemption Amount (k).

An Early Redemption Event (k) occurs if with respect to an Early Redemption Observation Date (k) the Reference Price (k) of the Underlying A is either (i) equal to or higher, or (ii) higher than the corresponding Early Redemption Level (k), as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the determination of the Reference Price (k), see section "C.7.4. Determination of the Reference Price (j)" below.

If a Barrier Event occurs, the possibility of an automatic early redemption lapses and the Securities will be redeemed on the Final Payment Date if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

5. BARRIER OBSERVATION

In accordance with section "C.1. General Description of the Product Types of Hybrid Securities" above, the following barrier observation methods may be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

5.1. Continuous Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Continuous Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

A Barrier Event occurs if any published price or rate of the Underlying A is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the Barrier during the Barrier Observation Period in the case of continuous observation, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

5.2. Daily Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Daily Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

Barrier Event means that any Reference Price of the Underlying A during the Barrier Observation Period is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the Barrier, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

5.3. Date-related Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Date-related Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

Barrier Event means that the Reference Price (b) of the Underlying A is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the Barrier, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the Determination of the Reference Price (b), see section "C.7.3. Determination of the Reference Price (b)" below.

5.4. Final Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Final Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

Barrier Event means that the Final Reference Price of the Underlying A is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the Barrier, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

6. INTEREST

6.1. Fixed Interest Rate

The Securities may be interest-bearing at a fixed Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms. The specified Interest Rate may be equal or different for each Interest Period.

6.2. Floating Interest Rate

The Securities may be interest-bearing at a floating Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Interest Rate depends on the Reference Rate as determined on each Interest Determination Date. A Factor, a Positive Spread and/or a Negative Spread may be applied to the floating Interest Rate.

Option: Minimum Interest Rate:

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Minimum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option: Maximum Interest Rate

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Maximum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

6.3. Digital Floating Rate (Cap)

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period will be either (i) the Fixed Interest Rate or (ii) the Floating Interest Rate. The Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a rising level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a falling level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities. However, the Interest Rate will never be higher than the Fixed Interest Rate.

Whether the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply with respect to an Interest Period, depends on whether the Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for the respective Interest Period, is above or below an Interest Rate Threshold.

- (i) If the Inflation Rate is equal to or greater than the Interest Rate Threshold, the Fixed Interest Rate will apply.
- (ii) If the Inflation Rate is lower than the Interest Rate Threshold in the respective Interest Period, then the Floating Interest Rate will apply.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Inflation Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Inflation Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Factor (m)

The Floating Interest Rate determined for the respective Interest Period will be the Inflation Rate multiplied by a Factor (m).

Option: Spread

A Spread will be added to or deducted from the Inflation Rate, as specified in the Final Terms, to determine the Floating Interest Rate for the respective Interest Period.

6.4. Digital Floating Rate (Floor)

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period will be either (i) the Fixed Interest Rate or (ii) the Floating Interest Rate. The Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a rising level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a falling level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities. However, the Interest Rate will never be lower than the Fixed Interest Rate.

Whether the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply with respect to an Interest Period, depends on whether the Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for the respective Interest Period, is above or below an Interest Rate Threshold.

- (i) If the Inflation Rate is higher than the Interest Rate Threshold in the respective Interest Period, then the Floating Interest Rate will apply.
- (ii) If the Inflation Rate is equal to or lower than the Interest Rate Threshold, the Fixed Interest Rate will apply.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Inflation Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Inflation Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Factor (m)

The Floating Interest Rate determined for the respective Interest Period may be the Inflation Rate multiplied by a Factor (m).

Option: Spread

A Spread may be added to or deducted from the Inflation Rate, as specified in the Final Terms, to determine the Floating Interest Rate for the respective Interest Period.

6.5. Reverse Floating Rate

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the difference between the Fixed Interest Rate and the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. In this case, the value of the Interest Rate will develop inversely to the performance of the Inflation Index. This means, a falling level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a rising level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Interest Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Interest Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

6.6. Fixed to Floating Rate

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is either the Fixed Interest Rate or the Floating Interest Rate. The Final Terms will specify for which Interest Period the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply. The Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a rising level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a falling level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Floating Interest Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Floating Interest Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Factor (m)

The Floating Interest Rate determined for the respective Interest Period may be the Inflation Rate multiplied by a Factor (m).

Option: Spread

A Spread may be added to or deducted from the Inflation Rate, as specified in the Final Terms, to determine the Floating Interest Rate for the respective Interest Period.

6.7. Reverse Fixed to Floating Rate

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is either the Fixed Interest Rate or the Floating Interest Rate. The Final Terms will specify for which Interest Period the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply. The value of the Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the difference between the Fixed Interest Rate and the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a falling level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a rising level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Floating Interest Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Floating Interest Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Minimum Interest Rate

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Minimum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option: Maximum Interest Rate

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Maximum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

6.8. Inflation Rate

With regard to the determination of the Inflation Rate, one of the following options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option 1: YoY Inflation Rate Observation

The Inflation Rate with respect to an Interest Period reflects the development of the Inflation Index between the respective Interest Period and the immediately preceding Interest Period, as further specified in the Final Terms.

Option 2: ZC Inflation Rate Observation

The Inflation Rate with respect to an Interest Period reflects the development of the Inflation Index from the Relevant Month (initial) or the Relevant Month immediately prior to the Initial Observation Date or the Issue Date, as specified in the Final Terms.

6.9. Interest Amount

The respective Interest Amount will be calculated under consideration of the respective Interest Rate and the Day Count Fraction, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

The respective Interest Amount falls due for payment on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

7. REFERENCE PRICE DETERMINATION

7.1. Determination of the Initial Reference Price

D. BASKET-LINKED HYBRID SECURITIES1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PRODUCT TYPES OF BASKET-LINKED HYBRID SECURITIES*1.1. Product Type 28: Basket-linked Hybrid Reverse Convertible SecuritiesGeneral

The Securities are linked to the performance of two different types of Underlyings.

Underlying A is a basket consisting of the Basket Components, as specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Basket Components can either be Financial Indices or Shares.

Underlying B is an Inflation Index.

The Securities will be issued as Long Securities. This means:

Subject to the effect of other price influencing factors (such as expected volatility, interest rate, dividend yield), the value of the Securities during their term depends decisively on the price of the Underlyings. If the prices of the Underlyings rise, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the prices of the Underlyings fall, the value of the Securities regularly falls. However, the price development of one Underlying may reinforce or compensate the price effect of the other Underlying.

Interest

The Securities may be interest-bearing or non interest-bearing. With respect to the specification of the Interest Rate, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

- Fixed Interest Rate
- Floating Interest Rate
- Digital Floating Rate (Cap)
- Digital Floating Rate (Floor)
- Reverse Floating Rate
- Fixed to Floating Rate
- Reverse Fixed to Floating Rate

Except for Securities with Fixed Interest Rate, the Interest Amount is linked to the Underlying B.

For further information on the interest features, see section "D.5. Interest" below.

Redemption as at the Final Payment Date

The Redemption as at the Final Payment Date is linked to the Underlying A, which will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Provided that no Call Event or Early Redemption Event if applicable, has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as at the Final Payment Date following an automatic exercise on the Exercise Date by payment of the Redemption Amount.

- If no Barrier Event has occurred, the Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount.
- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Securities will be redeemed as follows:

The Redemption Amount corresponds to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the quotient of the Relevant Performance A (final) divided by the Strike Level.

However, the Redemption Amount will not be higher than the Calculation Amount if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

For further information on the Reference Price Determination, see section "D.6. Reference Price Determination" below.

For further information on the Barrier Observation, see section "C. 5. Barrier Observation" below.

Automatic Exercise

The Securities are deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Call Event

Upon the occurrence of a Call Event, the Issuer may call and redeem the Securities early at their Cancellation Amount.

3.1. Continuous Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Continuous Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

A Barrier Event occurs if, with respect to at least one Basket Component_i, any published price is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the respective Barrier_i during the Barrier Observation Period in the case of continuous observation, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

3.2. Daily Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Daily Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

Barrier Event means that any Relevant Performance (b) during the Barrier Observation Period is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the Barrier Level, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

3.3. Date-related Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Date-related Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

Barrier Event means that the Relevant Performance (b) on the respective Barrier Observation Date is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the Barrier Level, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

3.4. Final Barrier Observation

In the case of Securities where Final Barrier Observation is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the following applies:

Barrier Event means that the Relevant Performance (final) is either (i) equal to or lower, or (ii) lower than the Barrier Level, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

4. PERFORMANCE DETERMINATION

4.1. Determination of the Relevant Performance (b)

The Relevant Performance (b) corresponds to the Worst Performance (b).

The Worst Performance (b) is, with respect to all Basket Components_i, the lowest Performance of the Basket Component_i (b) on the respective Barrier Observation Date.

With respect to the determination of the Performance of the Basket Component_i (b), one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms:

Option 1:

The Performance of the Basket Component_i (b) is equal to $K_i(b)$ divided by $K_i(\text{initial})$.

Option 2:

The Performance of the Basket Component_i (b) is equal to $K_i(b)$ divided by the Strike_i.

For further information on the determination of the Reference Prices_i, see section "B.7. Reference Price Determination" below.

4.2. Determination of the Relevant Performance (final)

The Relevant Performance (final) corresponds to the Worst Performance (final).

The Worst Performance (final) is, with respect to all Basket Components_i, the lowest Performance of the Basket Component_i (final) on the respective Barrier Observation Date.

The Performance of the Basket Component_i (final) corresponds to $K_i(\text{final})$ divided by $K_i(\text{initial})$.

For further information on the determination of the Reference Prices_i, see section "B.7. Reference Price Determination" below.

5. INTEREST

5.1. Fixed Interest Rate

The Securities may be interest-bearing at a fixed Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms. The specified Interest Rate may be equal or different for each Interest Period.

5.2. Floating Interest Rate

The Securities may be interest-bearing at a floating Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Interest Rate depends on the Reference Rate as determined on each Interest Determination Date. A Factor, a Positive Spread and/or a Negative Spread may be applied to the floating Interest Rate.

Option: Minimum Interest Rate:

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Minimum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option: Maximum Interest Rate

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Maximum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

5.3. Digital Floating Rate (Cap)

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period will be either (i) the Fixed Interest Rate or (ii) the Floating Interest Rate. The Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a rising level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a falling level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities. However, the Interest Rate will never be higher than the Fixed Interest Rate.

Whether the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply with respect to an Interest Period, depends on whether the Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for the respective Interest Period, is above or below an Interest Rate Threshold.

- (i) If the Inflation Rate is equal to or greater than the Interest Rate Threshold, the Fixed Interest Rate will apply.
- (ii) If the Inflation Rate is lower than the Interest Rate Threshold in the respective Interest Period, then the Floating Interest Rate will apply.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Inflation Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Inflation Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Factor (m)

The Floating Interest Rate determined for the respective Interest Period will be the Inflation Rate multiplied by a Factor (m).

Option: Spread

A Spread will be added to or deducted from the Inflation Rate, as specified in the Final Terms, to determine the Floating Interest Rate for the respective Interest Period.

5.4. Digital Floating Rate (Floor)

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period will be either (i) the Fixed Interest Rate or (ii) the Floating Interest Rate. The Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a rising level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a falling level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities. However, the Interest Rate will never be lower than the Fixed Interest Rate.

Whether the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply with respect to an Interest Period, depends on whether the Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent for the respective Interest Period, is above or below an Interest Rate Threshold.

- (i) If the Inflation Rate is higher than the Interest Rate Threshold in the respective Interest Period, then the Floating Interest Rate will apply.
- (ii) If the Inflation Rate is equal to or lower than the Interest Rate Threshold, the Fixed Interest Rate will apply.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Inflation Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Inflation Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Factor (m)

The Floating Interest Rate determined for the respective Interest Period may be the Inflation Rate multiplied by a Factor (m).

Option: Spread

A Spread may be added to or deducted from the Inflation Rate, as specified in the Final Terms, to determine the Floating Interest Rate for the respective Interest Period.

5.5. Reverse Floating Rate

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the difference between the Fixed Interest Rate and the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. In this case, the value of the Interest Rate will develop inversely to the performance of the Inflation Index. This means, a falling level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a rising level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Interest Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Interest Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

5.6. Fixed to Floating Rate

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is either the Fixed Interest Rate or the Floating Interest Rate. The Final Terms will specify for which Interest Period the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply. The Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a rising level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a falling level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Floating Interest Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Floating Interest Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Factor (m)

The Floating Interest Rate determined for the respective Interest Period may be the Inflation Rate multiplied by a Factor (m).

Option: Spread

A Spread may be added to or deducted from the Inflation Rate, as specified in the Final Terms, to determine the Floating Interest Rate for the respective Interest Period.

5.7. Reverse Fixed to Floating Rate

The Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is either the Fixed Interest Rate or the Floating Interest Rate. The Final Terms will specify for which Interest Period the Fixed Interest Rate and the Floating Interest Rate will apply. The value of the Floating Interest Rate with respect to an Interest Period is equal to the difference between the Fixed Interest Rate and the respective Inflation Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Final Terms. The Inflation Rate in turn depends on the value of the Inflation Index. This means, a falling level of the Inflation Index has a positive and a rising level of the Inflation Index has a negative effect on the value of the Floating Interest Rate and on the market value of the Securities.

Since the value of the Inflation Index changes, the level of the Floating Interest Rate will regularly change from Interest Period to Interest Period, too. Depending on the performance of the Inflation Index, the Floating Interest Rate can also be zero (0). The Interest Amount with respect to an Interest Period will be determined under consideration of a Day Count Fraction and paid on the respective Interest Payment Date.

Furthermore, one of the following additional options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option: Minimum Interest Rate

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Minimum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Option: Maximum Interest Rate

The Interest Rate may be subject to a Maximum Interest Rate if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

5.8. Inflation Rate

With regard to the determination of the Inflation Rate, one of the following options may be selected in the Final Terms:

Option 1: YoY Inflation Rate Observation

The Inflation Rate with respect to an Interest Period reflects the development of the Inflation Index between the respective Interest Period and the immediately preceding Interest Period, as further specified in the Final Terms.

Option 2: ZC Inflation Rate Observation

The Inflation Rate with respect to an Interest Period reflects the development of the Inflation Index from the Relevant Month (initial) or the Relevant Month immediately prior to the Initial Observation Date or the Issue Date, as specified in the Final Terms.

5.9. Interest Amount

The respective Interest Amount will be calculated under consideration of the respective Interest Rate and the Day Count Fraction, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

The respective Interest Amount falls due for payment on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

6. REFERENCE PRICE DETERMINATION

6.1. Determination of the Initial Reference Price

In accordance with section "D.1. General Description of the Product Types of Basket-Linked Hybrid Securities" above, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms with respect to the determination of the Initial Reference Price ($= K_i$ (initial)):

6.1.1. Initial Reference Price Specification:

K_i (initial) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, K_i (initial), as specified in the respective Final Terms.

6.1.2. Initial Reference Price Observation:

K_i (initial) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, the Reference Price_{i} on the Initial Observation Date.

6.1.3. Initial Average Reference Price Observation:

K_i (initial) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, the equally weighted average (arithmetic average) of the Reference Prices_{i} on the Initial Observation Dates.

6.1.4. Best-in Reference Price Observation

K_i (initial) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, the lowest Reference Price_{i} on the dates or the period specified in the respective Final Terms.

6.1.5. Worst-in Reference Price Observation

K_i (initial) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, the highest Reference Price_{i} on the dates or the period specified in the respective Final Terms.

6.2. Determination of the Final Reference Price

In accordance with section "D.1. General Description of the Product Types of Basket-Linked Hybrid Securities" above, one of the following options may be specified in the relevant Final Terms with respect to the determination of the Final Reference Price ($= K_i$ (final)):

6.2.1. Final Reference Price Observation:

K_i (final) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, the Reference Price_{i} on the Final Observation Date.

6.2.2. Final Average Reference Price Observation:

K_i (final) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, the equally weighted average (arithmetic average) of the Reference Prices_{i} on the Final Observation Dates.

6.2.3. Best-out Reference Price Observation:

K_i (final) means, with respect to the Basket Component_{i}, the highest Reference Price_{i} on the dates or the period specified in the respective Final Terms.

6.2.4. Worst-out Reference Price Observation:

[In the case of Securities linked to a Share, an Index, a Fund Share, a Futures Contract, a Currency Exchange Rate, a Debt Security or in the case of Compo Securities or Quanto Securities with Physical Delivery, the following applies:

- (1) Adjustments: If[, with respect to a[n] [Underlying] [Basket Component];] an Adjustment Event occurs the Calculation Agent is authorised to adjust these Terms and Conditions (the "Adjustment"); whether an Adjustment is to be made shall be determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner].

The goal of the Adjustment is to appropriately consider the economic impact of the circumstance that triggered the Adjustment Event, so that the economic characteristics of the Securities remain as unchanged as possible, taking into account the interests of the Security Holders as well as the Issuer ("Adjustment Goal"). A subsequent adverse change of the value of the Securities resulting from the Adjustment cannot be ruled out.

The Calculation Agent determines all Adjustments according to this § 8 [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner], taking into account the Adjustment Goal. It will only make an Adjustment if such Adjustment is reasonable for the Security Holders as well as for the Issuer; whether this is the case shall be determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner].

[In the case of Securities linked to a Share or an ETF (if applicable), the following applies:

[In addition, with respect to [the Share Underlying] [[a share] [or] [ETF] as Basket Component; (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data)], the following applies:]

Within the context of an Adjustment the Calculation Agent proceeds as follows:

- (a) Adjustment in accordance with the Determining Futures Exchange: In general, the Calculation Agent will undertake the Adjustment in terms of content and timing in a way that to the greatest extent matches the designated Adjustment by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i] regarding the [respective] Underlying Linked Derivatives [of the respective Basket Component_i]. The Calculation Agent is, however, also authorised to make an Adjustment if there is no adjustment made to the [respective] Underlying Linked Derivatives [of the respective Basket Component_i] by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i]. In this case, the Calculation Agent will make the Adjustment, if any, in accordance with the rulebook of the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i] with respect to the [respective] Underlying Linked Derivatives [of the respective Basket Component_i].
- (b) Deviating Adjustments: In particular in the following cases the Calculation Agent is authorised to make Adjustments deviating from the adjustments made by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i] in order to take into account the Adjustment Goal in an appropriate manner:
- (i) The adjustment envisaged by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i] regarding the [respective] Underlying Linked Derivatives [of the respective Basket Component_i] is impossible for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent or technically not feasible within reasonable economic efforts; whether this is the case shall be determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner].

- (ii) The adjustment envisaged by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i] regarding the [respective] Underlying Linked Derivatives [of the respective Basket Component_i] is unreasonable for Security Holders, the Calculation Agent or the Issuer (e.g. because the Issuer would have to breach internal trading restrictions in order to hedge its payment obligations under the Securities); whether this is the case shall be determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner].
- (iii) The adjustment envisaged by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i] regarding the [respective] Underlying Linked Derivatives [of the respective Basket Component_i] is not suitable to meet the Adjustment Goal; whether this is the case shall be determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner].

- (2) Type of Adjustment: In the context of an Adjustment the Calculation Agent may undertake in particular the following measure[s] in accordance with paragraph (1) above:

[In the case of Securities linked to a Share, the following applies:

- [(A) With respect to [the [Share] Underlying] [[a share] [or] [an ETF] as Basket Component, (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data)], the following applies:]
 - (a) Adjustment of Adjustable Product Data: The Calculation Agent may redefine the Adjustable Product Data based on an adjustment factor (e.g. in case of a capital increase against cash contribution, issue of securities with options or conversion rights in shares, a capital increase from company funds, a distribution of special dividends or other measures undertaken by the company, that issued the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] or a third party, that impacts the computed value of the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] not only in an insignificant way, based on a change of a legal or economic situation, in particular a change of the fixed assets or equity of the company).
 - (b) Replacement of the [Underlying] [Basket Component]: In case of a take-over or a merger or similar measure with respect to the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] the Calculation Agent can replace the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] with the share of the successor of the issuer of the original [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] or with another share of – inter alia – comparable liquidity and industry affiliation as the original [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] (the "Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component]"). Furthermore, until completion of the takeover or merger (excluding), the Calculation Agent may determine that either the shares submitted for sale or submitted for exchange are to be the Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component].

In case of a split or a similar measure with respect to the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component], the Calculation Agent may determine (i) a basket of shares and/or securities or (ii) a basket of shares and/or securities and a cash component to be the Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component]. The Calculation Agent may exclusively select, in deviation from the Adjustment made by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i], the share with the highest market capitalisation or another share from the basket of shares determined by the [respective] Determining Futures Exchange_[i] with – inter alia – comparable liquidity and industry affiliation as the original [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component] to be the Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component]. In this case, the Calculation Agent will, if necessary, determine an adjustment factor by itself to meet the Adjustment Goal and will undertake an Adjustment according to paragraph ([●]) above.

If the Calculation Agent designates a Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], from the Adjustment Date on (as defined in paragraph ([●]) below), every reference to the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component] in these Terms and Conditions shall be a reference to the Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], unless the context requires otherwise.]

[In the case of Securities linked to a Financial Index, the following applies:

- [(●)] With respect to [the Underlying] [[a [financial index] as [Underlying] [Basket Component] (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data)] [the Financial Index], the following applies:]

Replacement of the [Underlying] [Basket Component]: In the case of an Index Replacement Event, the Calculation Agent may replace the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component] with a Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component] and if necessary redefine the Adjustable Product Data. As a "Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component]" another index can be considered which is comparable to the original index with respect to the represented constituents, the consideration of returns and distributions of the constituents included in the index (e.g. dividends) and, if applicable, fees and costs included in the index. If the Calculation Agent designates a Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], from the Adjustment Date on (as defined in paragraph ([●]) below, every reference to [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component] in these Terms and Conditions shall be a reference to the Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], unless the context requires otherwise.]

[In the case of Securities linked to an Inflation Index, the following applies:

- [(●)] With respect to the Inflation Index, the following applies:]

Replacement of the Underlying: In the case of an Inflation Index Replacement Event, the Calculation Agent may replace the Inflation Index with a Replacement Inflation Index and, if necessary, redefine the Adjustable Product and Underlying Data. As a "Replacement Inflation Index" another index can be considered which is comparable to the original index with respect to its methodology, in particular an Inflation Index, which will be specified by the respective Index Sponsor_[Inflation] as substitute. If the Calculation Agent designates a Replacement Inflation Index, from the Adjustment Date on (as defined in paragraph ([●]) below, every reference to Inflation Index in these Terms and Conditions shall be a reference to the Replacement Inflation Index, unless the context requires otherwise.]

[In the case of Securities linked to Fund Shares, the following applies:]

- [(●)] With respect to [the Underlying] [a fund share as Basket Component_i (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data)], the following applies:
- (a) Adjustment of Adjustable Product Data: The Calculation Agent may redefine the Adjustable Product Data based on an adjustment factor (e.g. in case of a split or a merger of Fund Shares).
 - (b) Successor Fund: If the Fund is replaced by a Successor Fund, all calculations or determinations described in these Terms and Conditions shall be made on the basis of the successor fund. In such case, any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the Fund shall be deemed to be a reference to the Successor Fund. If necessary, the Calculation Agent is also entitled to adjust the Product and Underlying Data against the background of the changed [Underlying] [Basket Component] and the associated economic impact.]

[In the case of Securities linked to Futures Contracts, the following applies:]

- [(●)] With respect to [the Underlying] [a futures contract as Basket Component_i (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data)], the following applies:

Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component]: If, with respect to a Basket Component_i, a Futures Contract Replacement Event occurs, the Calculation Agent is authorized to replace the [Underlying] [respective Basket Component_i] by the Replacement Futures Contract announced by the Reference Market (the "Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component]"). If the Calculation Agent designates a Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], from the Adjustment Date on (as defined in paragraph (●) below), every reference in these Terms and Conditions to the [Underlying] [respective Basket Component_i] shall be a reference to the Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], unless the context requires otherwise.]

[In the case of Securities linked to a Currency Exchange Rate or in the case of Compo Securities or Quanto Securities with Physical Delivery the following applies:]

- [(●)] With respect to a [currency exchange rate as Basket Component_i (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data)] [[the] [a] FX Exchange Rate_[ij]], the following applies:

- (a) Replacement of [the] [a] FX Exchange Rate: The Calculation Agent may, in the event of a currency reform or currency conversion with respect to [the] [a] [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[ij] [or FX_p Exchange Rate], replace the [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[ij] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,] by a Replacement Exchange Rate and, if necessary, redefine the Product and Underlying Data. "Replacement Exchange Rate" can be another exchange rate which is composed of the currency of the original FX Exchange Rate_[ij] [or FX_p Exchange Rate] not affected by the Adjustment Event and the new or amended currency of the country, region or jurisdiction affected by the currency reform or currency conversion in its function as legal means of payment and/or official currency unit. The Calculation Agent may, if available, take into account an officially published conversion rate. If the Calculation Agent determines a Replacement Exchange Rate with regard to the [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[ij] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,], any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[ij] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,] shall be deemed to be a reference to the Replacement Exchange Rate as of the Adjustment Date (as defined in paragraph (●) below), unless the context requires otherwise.
- (b) Replacement of FX: In the event that the method of determination and/or publication of the fixing of [the] [a] [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[ij] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,], by the [respective] Fixing Sponsor_[ij] [or Fixing Sponsor_p, as the case may be,] is changed in a manner that is not merely insignificant, the Calculation Agent may replace the [respective] FX_[i] [or FX_p, as the case may be,] by another method for the fixing and publication of the [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[i] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,] (the "Replacement FX") and, if necessary, redefine the Product and Underlying Data. "Replacement FX" may be, in particular, a fixing for the [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[i] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,] officially published by a central bank or any other determination and publication of the [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[i] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,] by an established provider of market data. If the Calculation Agent determines a Replacement FX, any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the replaced FX [or FX_p, as the case may be,] shall be deemed to be a reference to the Replacement FX as of the Adjustment Date (as defined in paragraph ([●]) below), unless the context requires otherwise.

- (c) Replacement of the Fixing Sponsor: In the event that [the] [a] [respective] FX Exchange Rate_[i] [or FX_p Exchange Rate, as the case may be,] is no longer determined and published by the [respective] Fixing Sponsor_[i] [or Fixing Sponsor_p, as the case may be,], the Calculation Agent has the right to determine the calculations or determinations described in these Terms and Conditions on the basis of the determinations and publications of another person, company or institution (the "New Fixing Sponsor"). If necessary, the Calculation Agent may also determine a Replacement FX in accordance with subparagraph (b) above. If the Calculation Agent determines a New Fixing Sponsor, then, as of the Adjustment Date (as defined in paragraph ([●]) below), any reference in these Terms and Conditions to the replaced Fixing Sponsor_[i] [or Fixing Sponsor_p, as the case may be,] shall be deemed to be a reference to the New Fixing Sponsor, unless the context indicates otherwise.]]

[In the case of Securities linked to a Debt Security, the following applies:]

- [(●)] With respect to a debt security as [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data), the following applies:]

Replacement of the [Underlying] [Basket Component_i]: In the case of a Debt Security Replacement Event, the Calculation Agent may replace the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] with a Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component] and if necessary redefine the Adjustable Product Data. As a "Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component]" the Nominated Successor Security shall be considered. If no Nominated Successor Security is available, another debt security can be considered which is comparable to the original debt security (in particular with respect to the issuer sector, ranking, term, rating, coupon type, redemption type, issuer country, currency or yield-to-maturity). If the Calculation Agent designates a Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], from the Adjustment Date on (as defined in paragraph ([●]) below, every reference to the [respective] [Underlying] [Basket Component_i] in these Terms and Conditions shall be a reference to the Replacement [Underlying] [Basket Component], unless the context requires otherwise.]

[In the case of Securities linked to an Index, the following applies:]

- (3) New Index Sponsor [and New Index Calculation Agent]: If [the] [Index] Underlying [a Basket Component_i] is no longer determined by the Index Sponsor_[i] but rather by another person, company or institution (the "New Index Sponsor"), then all calculations or, respectively, specifications described in these Terms and Conditions shall occur on the basis of the [[Index] Underlying] [respective Basket Component_i] as determined by the New Index Sponsor. In this case, any reference to the replaced Index Sponsor_[i] in these Terms and Conditions shall be deemed to refer to the New Index Sponsor.

[If the [[Index] Underlying] [respective Basket Component_i] is no longer calculated by the Index Calculation Agent_[i] but rather by another person, company or institution (the "New Index Calculation Agent"), then all calculations or, respectively, specifications described in these Terms and Conditions shall occur on the basis of the [[Index] Underlying] [respective Basket Component_i] as calculated by the New Index Calculation Agent. [In the case of Securities linked to a Commodity, the following applies:

- [(A) With respect to a commodity as Basket Component_i (see § 2 of the Product and Underlying Data), the following applies:]

As "Replacement Reference Market" another market can be considered on which there is usually sufficient liquid trading in the commodity which forms the [Underlying] [respective Basket Component_i]; whether a replacement is to be made and which Replacement Reference Market is to be used shall be determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. [If a Reference Rate is applicable to the Securities, the following applies:

[If the EURIBOR or a CMS is applicable to the Securities, the following applies:

Replacement Reference Rate, Adjustments, Interest Rate Adjustment Factor or Spread, Notifications[, Authorisation] [, Legal Provisions]

- (1) Replacement Reference Rate: Upon the occurrence of a Reference Rate Cessation Event on or preceding an Interest Determination Date, the Reference Rate will be replaced by the Calculation Agent with an economically suitable reference rate (the "Replacement Reference Rate"). The Reference Rate should be replaced by [the Nominated Replacement Reference Rate] [or, if as of the relevant point in time the Nominated Replacement Reference Rate is no longer available, ceased to exist or may not be used under the Securities,] [a Replacement Reference Rate] that pursuant to the following sequence of adjustment methods (each an "Adjustment Method Level")
 - (a) has been publicly and permanently declared as the replacement for the original Reference Rate by the Reference Rate-Administrator, the relevant central bank or a supervisory authority and may be used as a Replacement Reference Rate in accordance with the governing law of the Securities, or – in the event and as long as this is not the case –
 - (b) is typically used as a replacement reference rate for comparable securities (in particular with a view to the [Specified Currency][Reference Rate Currency], the type of interest payment and the term), or – in the event and as long as this is not the case –
 - (c) is typically used as a reference rate for (x) interest rate swaps (fixed/floating interest) in the [Specified Currency][Reference Rate Currency] or (y) exchange traded interest futures with a comparable term, or – in the event and as long as this is not the case –

- (d) is determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner] with a view to the [Specified Currency][Reference Rate Currency] and the Designated Maturity in a reasonable economical manner, based on the general interest rate level at the relevant point in time in [Germany][●].

The Replacement Reference Rate is – subject to the occurrence of a new Reference Rate Cessation Event – applicable to all subsequent interest periods. With respect to subsequent Interest Determination Dates, however, a new adjustment may be made with respect to the preceding Reference Rate Cessation Event if an adjustment based on a prior ranking Adjustment Method Level pursuant to the sequence (a) to (d) is then possible at that time. This includes the change from a daily interest rate previously selected under a specific Adjustment Method Level to a previously unpublished term-based interest rate.

- (2) Adjustments: If necessary, the Calculation Agent will make further adjustments to these Terms and Conditions [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner]. This includes in particular:
- (a) the method of calculation or determination of the Interest Rate; this includes the application of an interpolation or an interest rate on the Securities by means of a formula on a daily interest basis;
 - (b) the method for determination of the Reference Rate (including any rounding rules),
 - (c) the Designated Maturity, which can be shortened or extended;
 - (d) the relevant Screen Page, Reference Rate Time and/or Reference Rate Financial Centre[;];
 - (e) the Day Count Fraction[;];
 - (f) the Interest Determination Date (including the relevant Banking Days), which may be postponed from the beginning of the relevant Interest Period to the end thereof[; and/or
 - (g) the business day convention according to § 6 (2) of the Special Terms and Conditions.

Such adjustments shall enable the Calculation Agent

- (i) to use the Replacement Reference Rate in accordance with the then prevailing market practice or – to the extent that the Calculation Agent determines that the application of any part of such prevailing market practice is not technically feasible, a prevailing market practice for the Replacement Reference Rate does not exist or does not lead to economically meaningful results –
- (ii) to use the Replacement Reference Rate in such a manner as determined by the Calculation Agent necessary for its use as the Replacement Reference Rate for the Securities; whether this is the case shall be determined by the Calculation Agent at [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner].

- (3) Interest rate adjustment factor or spread: In addition to an adjustment under paragraph (2), the Calculation Agent may also determine an interest rate adjustment factor or spread for the purpose of determining or calculating the Interest Rate or Interest Amount

[in order to achieve, as far as possible, a result that reflects the economic substance of the Securities prior to the occurrence of the Reference Rate Cessation Event. What is appropriate to reflect the economic substance of the Securities in a given case shall be determined by the Calculation Agent [in the case of Securities governed by German law, insert: in its reasonable discretion (§ 315 et seq. BGB)] [in the case of Securities governed by Italian law, insert: acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by French law, insert: using its reasonable judgment and acting in good faith] [in the case of Securities governed by the laws of the Netherlands, insert: acting in good faith and in a fair and reasonable manner].] [in such a way that the financial position of the Security Holders remains unchanged to the greatest extent possible.]

Reverse Split

- (1) Reverse Split Right: Upon the occurrence of a Reverse Split Event, the Issuer shall have the right but not an obligation to convert the Securities into New Securities at the Reverse Split Conversion Factor. The Reverse Split Right will be exercised by issuing a respective Reverse Split Notice. The Reverse Split Notice shall give reasonable details about the Reverse Split Event as well as the determination of the Reverse Split Conversion Factor and shall specify the Reverse Split Effective Date, which shall be a date not later than the Reverse Split End Date.
- (2) Conversion and delivery: By not later than the Reverse Split Payment Date, the Issuer shall deliver to each Security Holder New Securities in an aggregate number equal to each Holder's Reverse Split Delivery Amount for credit to the account of the relevant depository bank of such Securities Holder against debit of all Securities held by such Securities Holder in such account. No fractions of New Securities will be delivered. Instead, the Issuer will pay by not later than the Reverse Split Payment Date the Reverse Split Supplemental Cash Amounts (if any) if the Reverse Split Conversion Factor leads to a number of Securities held by a Security Holder which cannot be converted into the New Securities in full.

All costs, incl. possible custody fees, exchange turnover taxes, stamp taxes, transaction fees, other taxes or levies, incurred as a result of the delivery of the New Securities, shall be borne by the respective Security Holder.

- (3) Definitions: With respect to the Reverse Split Right, the following defined terms apply:

"New Securities" means newly issued securities of the Issuer having identical terms as the Securities safe for the value of the Ratio which will be adjusted by reference to the Reverse Split Conversion Factor.

"Reverse Split Conversion Factor" means an appropriate aggregation factor for the Securities to be replaced by New Securities with a lower aggregate number of individual securities in order to reduce the negative effects of the Reverse Split Event, as determined by the Calculation Agent acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith and taking into account the interest of the Security Holders, always provided that the economic profile of the Securities compared to the New Securities remains unchanged. Such factor shall, however, not be more than 10.000.

"Reverse Split Delivery Amount" means, with respect to a Security Holder, (i) the number of Securities held by such Securities Holder in its custody account with the relevant depository bank (ii) divided by the Reverse Split Conversion Factor, expressed as the nearest lower whole integer.

"Reverse Split Effective Date" means the date specified in the Reverse Split Notice.

"Reverse Split End Date" means 7 calendar days following the date on which a Reverse Split Notice has been given.

"Reverse Split Event" means, at any time, that as a result of the leverage under the Securities, the market price of the Securities reaches a level below EUR 1 in the Specified Currency and that the secondary market trading may be negatively affected; whether this is the case shall be determined by the Calculation Agent acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith.

"Reverse Split Notice" means the notice given by the Issuer pursuant to § 6 of the General Condition about the exercise of the Reverse Split Right pursuant to this § 9.

"Reverse Split Payment Date" means a day not later than 5 Banking Days after the Reverse Split Effective Date.

"Reverse Split Supplemental Cash Amount" means a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency equal to the sum of the fair market values of such Securities held by a Security Holder which cannot be converted in full into the New Securities at the Reverse Split Conversion Factor. The market value of the Securities will be determined as of the Reverse Split Effective Date by the Calculation Agent acting in accordance with relevant market practice and in good faith.]

TAX WARNING

In the case of the Base Prospectus I, the following applies:

The taxation of income received from the Securities is subject to the tax laws in the Federal Republic of Germany, where the Issuer has its registered seat.

In the case of the Base Prospectus II, the following applies:

The taxation of income received from the Securities is subject to the tax laws in the Republic of Italy, where the Issuer has its registered seat.

The Issuer assumes no responsibility for deducting any withholding taxes.

In addition, the taxation of income received from the Securities may be subject to the tax laws of the country, where the Principal Paying Agent has its registered seat or any other national law of a country, where any other paying agent has its registered seat, as well as any national law to the extent investors in the Securities are subject to such laws (i.e. law of Luxembourg, Germany, Austria, Italy, the Republic of Croatia, the Czech Republic, Greece, Hungary, Poland, Romania, the Slovak Republic, Bulgaria, France, Portugal or Spain).

U.S. WITHHOLDING TAX

Payments under index-linked Securities and equity-linked Securities may be subject to U.S. withholding tax.

U.S. tax rules stipulate that for certain financial instruments (such as for the Securities) a withholding tax (of up to 30% depending on the application of income tax treaties) may be imposed if the payment (or deemed payment) on the financial instruments is contingent upon, or determined by reference to, the payment of a dividend from sources within the United States.

This tax liability may apply even if pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Securities no actual dividend-related amount is paid or a dividend-related adjustment is made and thus investors can only determine with difficulty or not at all any connection to the payments to be made in respect of the Securities.

The Issuer or the custodian of the Security Holder is entitled to deduct from payments made under the Securities any withholding tax accrued in relation to payments made under the Securities.

Furthermore, the Issuer is entitled to take any tax liability pursuant to section 871(m) of the IRC into account in original and continuous pricing of the Securities and to comply with the withholding obligation using provisions that have to be made accordingly. Moreover, a 30% tax rate is generally applied, also when taking account of the tax liability in continuously adjusting amounts, due to the necessity of using a uniform rate for all investors in all cases mentioned. A double taxation may occur in relation to payments made under the Securities in that payments on the Securities may be subject to both U.S. tax and local tax, with no tax credit for the U.S. tax.

If U.S. dividend equivalent taxes are withheld, neither the Issuer nor any paying agent, the custodian of the Security Holder or any other person would be obliged to pay additional amounts to the Security Holders as a result of the deduction or withholding.

GENERAL INFORMATION

SELLING RESTRICTIONS

General

No action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction by the Issuer that would permit a public offer of the Securities, or possession or distribution of any offering material in relation thereto, in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required other than the approval of the Base Prospectus by the CSSF and a notification to the countries set forth in the Final Terms under "Terms and conditions of the offer".

The distribution of the Base Prospectus and the offering of Securities may be subject to statutory restrictions in certain jurisdictions. This may in particular affect the offer, sale, possession and/or distribution of Securities as well as the distribution, publication or possession of the Base Prospectus. Persons having access to the Securities and/or the Base Prospectus are required to obtain information on and comply with such restrictions on their own responsibility.

No offers, sales or deliveries of any Securities, or distribution of any offering material relating to the Securities, may be made in or from any jurisdiction except in circumstances which will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations and will not impose any obligation on the Issuer other than the approval and notification(s) mentioned above.

In particular, the Base Prospectus may not be used for the purpose of an offer or advertisement (i) in a country where the offer or advertisement has not been approved provided that such approval is required and/or (ii) to a person to whom such offer or advertisement may not legally be made.

The Base Prospectus including possible supplements thereto and the Final terms do not constitute an offer or an invitation to purchase Securities to any person and may not be viewed as recommendations by the Issuer to purchase Securities.

European Economic Area

In relation to each member state of the European Economic Area (each a "Member State"), the Securities may not be offered to the public in that relevant Member State, except that an offer of the Securities to the public may be made in that Member State:

- (a) if the Final Terms in relation to the Securities specify that an offer of those Securities may be made in that Member State in accordance with the Prospectus Regulation (as defined below) and the conditions of the offer applicable to the offer of the Securities set out in the Base Prospectus or in the relevant Final Terms, as the case may be, in the period beginning and ending on the dates specified in such Final Terms, provided that the Issuer has consented in writing to the use of the Base Prospectus for the purpose of such offer;
- (b) at any time if it is addressed solely to qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Regulation (the "Qualified Investors");
- (c) at any time if it is addressed to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than Qualified Investors) per Member State, subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Issuer or the relevant person or entity placing or offering the Securities nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; and/or
- (d) at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 1 (4) of the Prospectus Regulation, provided that no such offer of Securities referred to in (b) to (d) above shall require the Issuer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Regulation or supplement the Base Prospectus at least one banking day prior to the respective offer.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Securities to the public" in relation to any Securities in any Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Securities to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Securities.

The expression "Prospectus Regulation" means the Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

United States of America

The Securities have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("Securities Act"), and, except as provided in the applicable Final Terms with respect to Securities with a maturity on the issue date of one year or less, may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act or pursuant to another exemption from, or in a transaction otherwise not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Any person when purchasing the Securities agrees with the Issuer and, if different, the seller of such Securities that (i) it will not at any time offer, sell, resell or deliver, directly or indirectly, any Securities so purchased in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, any U.S. person, (ii) it is not purchasing any Securities for the account or benefit of any U.S. person and (iii) it will not make offers, sales, re-sales or deliveries of any Securities (otherwise acquired), directly or indirectly, in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, any U.S. person.

Terms used above have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

INTEREST OF NATURAL AND LEGAL PERSONS INVOLVED IN THE ISSUE/OFFER

Other transactions

The Issuer is active on a daily basis in the securities, currency, credit derivatives and commodities markets. The Issuer can accordingly conclude transactions for the own account or for the account of customers that directly or indirectly relate to the Securities.

Furthermore, the Issuer may conclude transaction in relation to the relevant Underlying or Basket Component or Delivery Item. When concluding these transactions, the Issuer can act without considering the interests of the Security Holders. Such transaction can have a negative effect on the performance of the relevant Underlying or Basket Component or Delivery Item. The Issuer can pursue economic interests which are contrary to the interests of the investors when doing so. This includes transactions of the Issuer that hedge its obligations under the Securities. The value of the Securities may also be affected by the dissolution of some or all of these hedging transactions. The Issuer can purchase and sell Securities for the own account or for the account of third parties and issue other Securities. In particular, the Issuer, a distribution partner and their affiliates may issue securities in relation to an Underlying or Basket Component on which they have already issued securities.

Business relationships

Every distribution partner and/or its affiliates may be customers or borrower of the Issuer or its affiliates. Furthermore, these distribution partner and their affiliates may have entered into investment banking and/or (commercial bank) transactions with the Issuer and its affiliates. They may also continue to enter into such transactions in the future and may render services to the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. For this reason, the distribution partners and/or their affiliates may have a special interest in the commercial success of the Issuer and in continuing their business relations with the Issuer.

In addition, conflicts of interest of the Issuer or the persons involved in the offer may arise from the following reasons and may lead to decisions unfavourable for the Security Holder being made:

The Issuer itself or any affiliate determines the Issue Price.

Distribution partners may receive certain financial rewards from the Issuer or any affiliate in the form of sales-dependant placement provisions and/or portfolio commissions.

The Issuer, a distribution partner, as well as any of their affiliates may act as Calculation Agent or Paying Agent under the Securities.

The Issuer, a distribution partner, as well as any of their affiliates maintains business relations with other issuers of financial instruments, their affiliates, competitors or guarantors.

The Issuer, a distribution partner, as well as any of their affiliates act as syndicate bank, financial advisor or bank of another issuer of financial instruments. The Issuer or one of its affiliates may itself act as an index sponsor, index calculator, consultant or index committee of an index compiled by it or by a legal entity belonging to the same group.

The Issuer as well as any of their affiliates might be acting as advisor, manager or management company of funds.

Information in relation to the Underlying or Basket Component or Delivery Item

The Issuer and its affiliates may possess or obtain material, non-public information on the Underlying or Basket Component or Delivery Item. The Issuer and its affiliates are not obliged to disclose such information to the Security Holders. Potential investors therefore depend on public information when analysing the Underlying or Basket Components or Delivery Item. The Underlying or Basket Component may be issued by the Issuer or another company belonging to the UniCredit Group.

Pricing by the Issuer

The Issuer or its affiliates can act as the Market Maker for the Securities. The prices are then not directly determined by supply and demand. Therefore, the setting of the price for the Securities differs from exchange trading, where the price relies on supply and demand. The Issuer and its affiliates may also act as Market Maker for the Underlying or Basket Component or the Delivery Item. Market Making can influence the price of the Underlying or Basket Component or Delivery Item and thereby the value of the Securities. The prices set by the Market Maker will not always correspond to the prices which would develop in a liquid market. Bid and ask prices quoted by the Market Maker on the secondary market are determined on the basis of the fair value of the Securities. The fair value depends, among other things, on the value of the Underlying or Basket Component.

The Market Maker sets the spread between the bid and ask prices. The bid price is the price at which the Market Maker buys the Securities. The ask price is the price at which the Market Maker sells the Securities. The spread depends both on supply and demand for the Securities and on certain yield considerations. Some costs are deducted when pricing the Securities over the life of the Securities. However, this is not always done evenly over the term. Costs can be deducted in full from the fair value of the Securities at an early stage as determined by Market Maker. The prices quoted by the Market Maker may therefore deviate significantly from the fair value or the economically expected value of the Securities. In addition, the Market Maker may at any time change the method by which it determines the prices quoted. For example, the Market Maker may increase or decrease the spread between bid and ask prices.

Other potential conflicts of interest

- Any of the Distributors and their affiliates may be customers or borrowers of the Issuer and its affiliates. In addition, any of such Distributors or any of its affiliates may have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for the Issuer, or its affiliates in the ordinary course of business.
- The Issuer and/or the Distributor may have a conflict of interest with regard to the Securities as/if they belong to UniCredit Group.

- Any relevant regulated or equivalent or other market(s) or trading venue(s) where the Securities are listed or admitted to trading may be organised and managed by UniCredit S.p.A. or UniCredit Bank GmbH or a Distributor or a company in which the Issuer has a stake or is related to.
- UniCredit S.p.A. or UniCredit Bank GmbH or a Distributor or one of their affiliates may act as an investment advisor or manager of a fund used as Underlying or Basket Component.
- The relevant Distributor may receive from the relevant Issuer an implied placement commission comprised in the Issue Price, while the Issuer or another person may receive an implied structuring commission and/or other commissions or charges.
